AVIATOR IS RESCUED FROM BURNING PLANE

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Dec. 22.—A navy airplane crashed while attempting to take off from the air mail field here this forenoon and was destroyed by fire. The pilot, Lieutenant J. D. Price, and Mechanic R. E. Burgeson escaped injury. Price, unable to extricate himself and in danger of cremation, was rescued by Burgeson, who broke through a wing to reach him. The plane and a companion ship stopped here for the night while enroute from San Diego to Washington, D. C.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

In gathering the vast budget of items of interest after an absence of almost six months, among other items of special interest that I omitted to mention was that our primary department of our school is presided over by Miss Cecil Moore and in making special inquiry as to her qualifications and how she was getting along with her work as a man who is greatly interested in our schools, he replied, just fine; she seems to be just fitted for the place for there is no foolishness about her, but her mind seems to be wholly taken up with her work, and I think that she is giving very general satisfaction. I had the pleasure of meeting her with the principal of the school, Mrs. George Holmes, the first of the week, for the first time.

Among the callers Sunday noon for dinner at the Sunnyside were Miss Dunlap, a cousin of Mrs. Thomas F. Nichols, of Los Angeles; Claudia Miles of Butte Falls, Miss Beth Galloway, one of our popular young teachers who recently graduated from the Medford high school, and is now engaged in teaching the Lake Creek school.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Nichols, Mrs. Lottie Vanscoy and her two sons Harold, who has recently returned from San Francisco to visit his mother, brother Lyle, uncles and aunts of the family of the late George Brown, Lyle Vanscoy, J. L. Patrick, Mordicia Hess, a cattleman of Fort Klamath, who brought over a small band of cattle to Frank Ditzworth, the old Folk Mathews ranch, to be fed; Kay Looney, of Fort Klamath who has his sheep on the range north of here, and his brother George of Ashland, the last four named remaining over night; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mayfield of Derby and later in the day T. F. Nichols and family and Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson of Medford, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nichols; Ira Tungate and Ed Ooeze of Butte Falls.

Lois Martin, a noted hunter and trapper, as well as an expert rock worker who has been employed on the C. H. Natwick contract on the Big Butte-Eagle Point canal during the summer and fall and up to last Monday, came in Monday and engaged room and board at the Sunnyside for an indefinite period as he has decided to lay off and take a much needed rest during the winter.

Miss E. Belford who is living alone on a farm a short distance from here called for dinner last Monday.

Robert Humphrey and his father were also among the guests at the Sunnyside Monday.

J. W. Berran, the superintendent of the fish hatchery on Big Butte and who also has charge of the fish trap just above here made a hurried call here last Monday.

Mrs. Roy Bolderback of Derby was among the diners Monday.

J. C. Fuller of California has been in the neighborhood during the week buying cattle.

W. P. Morgan of Trail was in town Tuesday and informs me that he has traded the old Pool property to his son and that he is tearing the buildings down and intends to build a neat bungalow on the lot.

Ralph Hurst was among the guests at the Sunnyside hotel Tuesday while his mother, Mrs. W. P. Hurst, was shopping in Medford.

Millard Robinson and E. Leamon and Claus Charley of Brownboro were also here and W. F. Hanson and wife of Brownboro were business callers Tuesday. And so was Herbert Launspach of the Medford Interviewing Mrs. William Brown.

W. R. McDonald and wife drove to Corvallis last Tuesday to visit their son and family.

Elmer Robinson, one of our hustling farmers made a hurried call on our blacksmith and also on F. J. McPherson and was off for his home before one could thing. He is a chip off the old block, his father, J. L. Robinson, who always has something to sell.

Sam Courtney who has been spending some time in California following his trade, painting and paperhanging, returned while I was gone and at this writing is engaged papering A. J. Florey's house and stopping at the Sunnyside.

Alex Beets was a business caller in our town Wednesday.

C. F. Neuman, G. Scheff, Mr. Dosen and C. Lidge and another whose name I failed to learn came in Wednesday morning and engaged rooms and board for a few days. They are engaged putting up a steam shovel to be taken up to the Florence Rock grade to do road work.

W. P. Cole whose wife went up to Enterprise some time ago to visit her mother while he was working near Butte Falls, came out Wednesday to meet her.

I see that I have omitted to state that the county school superintendent visited our school last Tuesday.

Violets Blooming in Illinois.
CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—Violets and dandelions are blooming at Waterman, Ill., forty miles west of here and boys and girls are picking them for Christmas decorations. Unusually mild weather for the past two weeks is responsible.

Foley Pills Bring Relief
"Foley Pills are the best I have tried. My kidneys work a lot better since I received your generous offer," writes John W. Hrogan, Adams, Mass. Foley Pills are a diuretic stimulant for the kidneys and while being taken close attention should be paid to the diet. Avoid sweets, pastry, starchy foods, alcoholic drinks, tea and coffee. Drink plenty of good fresh water and keep the body warmly clothed. Refuse substitutes. Sold everywhere. Adv.

Notice
I have taken up the following horses and if not redeemed within 10 days, will be sold for charges against them:

One horse dark brown, with three white feet, and white spot in forehead; the other horse, color dark brown, with collar marks.

J. M. CUMMINGS, City Marshal.
