

Local and Personal

A year ago today was quite a wet one with 34 hundredths of an inch of rain reported for the preceding 24 hours. The minimum temperature of this morning, 25 degrees, was the coldest for a week past. Rain is the prediction for tonight and Friday.

Ask your neighbor about our family service. You will be surprised about how reasonable and satisfactory it is. Medford Domestic Laundry, Phone 168.

Before you buy that piano see Launspach. He can save you money. He knows pianos and is reliable. Office and salesroom at Weeks & Orr, West Main.

Pianos! See Launspach. St. Mark's guild of the Episcopal church will meet at the Hotel Holland Friday at 2:30 p. m.

Many forward-looking, up-and-coming young people will make 1924 their Opportunity Year. You? Intensive day or evening classes will put you on a steady payroll.

Medford Business College, GVN. Hemstitching 8c per yard at Stylecraft, opposite Rialto theatre.

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Wallace Woods, Phone 168, 711 East Main.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Grieve and son Heaton, and Dewey Hill arrived in the city from Prospect yesterday in a new Studebaker six car, which was a Christmas present to Mrs. Grieve from her husband. The quarters are occupied by three or four weeks at Portland, and left today for that city. Mr. Grieve reports that there is only about an inch of snow at Prospect and that telephone communication from Diamond lake just before they left home was to the effect that there was eight inches of snow at that resort.

Regular dance at Jacksonville Friday 23. Lyric orch.

Flowering shrubs, vines and ornamentals. Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2.

Masquerade, Eagle Point, Monday, New Year's Eve.

There was born to Mr. and Mrs. Healy V. Hall, an eight lb. boy yesterday, Dec. 26, at the Purucker Maternity Home.

This is greater fun week. He at the Oriental gardens Saturday night and learn the value of relaxation.

We carry nothing in coal but the best guaranteed Utah or Wyoming. Our prices on all fuel are handled are always the lowest, considering quality. Valley Fuel Co.

Masquerade, Eagle Point, Monday, New Year's Eve.

G. B. Lane and Sam Lowry, both of Medford, have purchased the Fourth Street Market, from Perry & Newby. They obtained possession of the business Monday of this week. The Lane and Lowry families came from Medford—Ashland Tings.

You judge a good horse by the way he handles his feet. Persons are often judged likewise. Be a good dancer and be admired by everybody. You can do this by attending the dance at the Oriental gardens Saturday night.

Pianos! See Launspach. Duplicating sale books for sale at this office.

Do not overlook paying your assessments before January 2nd. It will save you a five per cent penalty.

The Epworth League of the First Methodist church is having a "kiddie" party Friday night at 8 o'clock. There will be there with a bag full of surprises. All are invited to come and bring a small package not to exceed 15 cents in value.

Photographs! See Launspach. Clean cotton rags wanted at the Mail Tribune office.

A big time and dance at Jville Fri. Dec. 28. Music by Lyric orch.

Travel from Bend to Klamath Falls is still possible and fairly comfortable. The road to Burns is still open, although some snow is reported.

You can get it at DeVoie's. You can get Krenn Bros. famous Health Bread at DeVoie's.

We have good values in used cars. Patton & Robinson, Inc.

Van Morse of Princeville arrived Sunday to spend the holidays with his wife at Phoenix.

"When one no longer finds pleasure in the dance then surely they are becoming old," was the assertion of an old sage. Times have not changed since. You are not old so long as you can swing to the rhythm of music. The Oriental gardens serve a youthful purpose in your community. Be there Saturday night.

Special bargains in player pianos at Palmer's.

We will loan you money to build or buy Holmes the Insurance Man.

Guests in the city from a distance are few at the hotels and include R. L. Bates of New York City, G. M. Rowland of Los Angeles, H. B. Crewson of Seattle, Arthur J. Gillette of Boise, Idaho and Dr. J. J. Carvell and John J. Lynch of Butte, Mont.

See the genuine Victor, Victorolas, at Palmer's Piano House.

Creeper paper 6c roll, DeVoie's. Who pays the agent, you or the other fellow? Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2.

Weather Strip shuts out the cold from around doors and windows. Cheap and easily applied. Big Pine Lumber Co.

Pianos! See Launspach. Lloyd Moss, the county club leader, is at his former home at Hood River to spend the holidays vacation with his parents.

A beautiful place to welcome the New Year. Wonderful music, beautiful dances, and a real dance floor, be at the Oriental Gardens New Year's Eve.

Weather Strip shuts out the cold from around doors and windows. Cheap and easily applied. Big Pine Lumber Co.

What is the most interesting thing in your community? The New Year's Eve dance at the Oriental gardens, of course!

At last the chances look good for the establishment of a sawmill at Jacksonville—an enterprise badly needed here to furnish lumber for the big building boom soon to strike this place. A crew of from 50 to 100 men will furnish a nice little payroll for the town. Jacksonville Post.

Genuine Bosch Magneto parts and repairs. Electric Shop, Eighth and Bartlett.

This office has inventory blanks, ruled and punched, suitable for all classes of inventory.

Come and be the lucky one New Year's eve at Armory.

Miss Mildred Jarl, who is attending the state normal school at Monmouth, arrived here Thursday morning and is visiting with her parents. She attended Medford high school during her junior year.

Get your magazines at DeVoie's. Photographs! See Launspach. Get soft paper school tablets at this office.

Mrs. Catherine Van Dyke, and the Misses Margaret Van Dyke and Esther Kleinhammer were guests at the S. A. Kleinhammer home on Applegate over Christmas. Mr. Kleinhammer came to Ashland Monday and took the party to the farm, where they dined Miss Carolyn Van Dyke and Claus Kleinhammer. Miss Doris Kleinhammer of Medford was also at home for the festivities. They returned last night—Ashland Tidings.

Edison New Diamond Disc phonograph plays all makes of records, at Palmer's.

Best tone phonograph, your choice of $5.00 worth of records, all for $50, at Palmer's.

Remember January 2nd is the last day to pay your city assessments without penalty.

W. N. Simpson is here from Portland on one of his periodical business visits mixing with his many friends and attending to the Elk's club in his spare moments.

"My wife has taken your medicine and has been wonderfully benefited. For over four years she has had trouble with bloating and could scarcely eat any food because of this condition. Doctor's medicines did not help her and an operation was advised. Her brother, who is a druggist, sent her a bottle of May's Wonderful Remedy and it helped her at once. I cannot praise your medicine enough." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by all druggists.

Listen to the genuine Victor Victorolas at Palmer's, compare quality of tone with others.

Special sale on Ford accessories. Grease, oil and piston rings. The Buick Motor Co.

Miss Viola Hughes and Miss Esther Turnbuck of Butte Falls are spending a few days in Medford and Central Point visiting friends.

Masquerade, Eagle Point, Monday, New Year's Eve.

Photographs! See Launspach. Highest grade Utah and Wyoming coal, absolutely free from slack and dust. Hansen Coal Co., 34 South Fir, Phone 239.

Leland Noe, son of Clarence Noe who has been attending school in Berkeley is spending the holidays in Medford. Father and son have gone to Klamath Falls for a few days duck hunting.

Masquerade, Eagle Point, Monday, New Year's Eve.

Pay your city assessments before January 2nd and avoid the penalty.

Masquerade, Eagle Point, Monday, New Year's Eve.

Miss Edith Kubil is a guest at the Hotel Medford who is registered from Talent and arrived in the city Wednesday. She is a teacher in the Talent school.

Property owners, attention! January 2nd is the last day to pay city assessments without penalty.

Weather Strip, shuts out the cold from around doors and windows. Cheap and easily applied. Big Pine Lumber Co.

Yakima Netted Gem potatoes at Watkins Feed Store, Phone 269.

The design for the 1924 windshield stickers for non-resident cars which registered in the state of Oregon consists of a white background and red lettering, with an outline of the geographic boundaries of the state. Approximately 50,000 of these stickers will be required, according to the estimates of the secretary of state.

With winter weather coming on much damage will be done in homes by leaky roofs, frozen pipes, leaky heating systems and other damage by water. We can protect you from all this with a water damage policy. Brown & White Agency, Phone 241.

Buy your screen doors at Wallace Woods Lumber Yard, 711 E. Main, Phone 108.

Spot lights bought this month at Electric Shop installed free.

J. F. Gannaway, superintendent of the Spokane Inland Railway and Power company, and wife, are here spending the holidays with W. C. Gannaway and family.

Seasonal festivities can never be quite complete without an old melody waltz at the Oriental gardens. Dance the old year out and the new year in the New Year's Eve.

Redden & Canaday write bonds and insurance. Phone 720.

Eventually a genuine Victrola—why not now? Palmer Piano House.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hawley spent Christmas with Dr. Maude Hawley and father in Ashland.

The big dance of the season, the Oriental gardens New Year's Eve.

Weather Strip shuts out the cold from around doors and windows. Cheap and easily applied. Big Pine Lumber Co.

Pianos! See Launspach. Lloyd Moss, the county club leader, is at his former home at Hood River to spend the holidays vacation with his parents.

A beautiful place to welcome the New Year. Wonderful music, beautiful dances, and a real dance floor, be at the Oriental Gardens New Year's Eve.

Weather Strip shuts out the cold from around doors and windows. Cheap and easily applied. Big Pine Lumber Co.

What is the most interesting thing in your community? The New Year's Eve dance at the Oriental gardens, of course!

At last the chances look good for the establishment of a sawmill at Jacksonville—an enterprise badly needed here to furnish lumber for the big building boom soon to strike this place. A crew of from 50 to 100 men will furnish a nice little payroll for the town. Jacksonville Post.

Genuine Bosch Magneto parts and repairs. Electric Shop, Eighth and Bartlett.

This office has inventory blanks, ruled and punched, suitable for all classes of inventory.

Come and be the lucky one New Year's eve at Armory.

Among the visitors from Portland in the city are Ed Harney, J. M. James, Alex Page and Earl J. Wood. Harry Hart of the Medford Grocery company returned this morning from Walla Walla, where he had gone to spend Christmas day.

Used sewing machines, over 40 to choose from. Prices $5 to $50. All guaranteed. The Slinger Store, 10 South Fir street.

Unity literature teaches people how to be well, prosperous and efficient. Free distribution. 310 S. Riverside, st.

Mrs. T. E. Daniels will give a silver tea at her home at 335 E. Main street for the St. Ann's Altar society, Friday afternoon at 2:30. The ladies are to bring their sewing. All are invited.

Hamburger sandwiches at DeVoie's.

Expert Income Tax help. BAB College Bldg., Phone 259-H.

Margaret Mansfield left Wednesday to spend a week or so in Portland. Selling out new phonographs and records all kinds half price. Gold Ray Realty Co.

Don't forget mask ball, Medford Armory, New Year's eve.

Vernon Garrett of San Francisco is spending a few days in Medford visiting his family.

Our only business is insurance, but we cover every known kind of risk. R. A. Holmen, "The Insurance Man."

From Dec. 17 to Jan. 1, student marbles will be given half-price. Marinello Shop.

Harry Rosenberg returned this morning from Seattle where he had been for several weeks past.

There's a busy Business College in Medford, GVN.

Trade at home and bank the difference. Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2.

Lieutenant Oakley G. Kelley of the army air service, who with Lieutenant John A. MacIntyre made the record-breaking transcontinental air flight from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast last summer, has been assigned to duty with the 96th division, organized reserves, headquarters of which are in Portland. Lieutenant Kelley will sail from New York for San Francisco January 8, on board an army transport, and is scheduled to reach Vancouver barracks before February 1.

Be relieved of the disagreeable part of the holiday work. Let us do your washing. Medford Domestic Laundry, Phone 166.

Follow the crowd to Armory New Year's eve. Grandest dance of the season.

Harriet Campbell, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. Campbell of Locust street, was operated on today for appendicitis at Sacred Heart hospital and was reported early this afternoon as having well withstood the ordeal.

At Deuel's—Hemstitching 8c. Grafted French walnut trees. Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2.

Milk and cream at DeVoie's.

The Elk's lodge meeting tonight is expected to be a very quiet affair of routine nature, as it comes in between the Christmas tree doings of last Thursday and the lodge's big annual open house, dinner and dance of New Year's day.

Plant now, why wait until spring? Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2.

Holidays mean more work and less time to do it. We are well equipped to handle the hardest part. Let us convince you. Medford Domestic Laundry, Phone for prices.

John R. Tomlin leaves for St. Paul today on a business trip.

Buy your tickets at Heath's drug store for ball at Armory.

Miss Brownie Purdin returned from Portland yesterday where she had been visiting for several days.

Medford Auto Painting, 27 South Front street, phone 934. As up to date paint shop where real auto painting is done. It takes from nine to twelve coats, and from 14 to 20 days to do a real paint job. I have had over twenty years experience and guarantee all my work. Don't be led astray that you can get a paint job done in any less time. Agents for Kelly Springfield tires, Crystalline Auto Polish, the only polish for your car. Call and see our work.

Vernon Garrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Garrett, arrived Christmas day from San Francisco where he has been on business since his return from Honolulu two years ago. Mr. Garrett has been with the Emporium as assistant credit manager and will return to San Francisco after the holidays to resume his duties with the same company as manager of its contract department.

Buy your shingles and roofing at Wallace Woods Lumber Yard, 711 E. Main street, Phone 108.

W. L. Lewis, head of the Interurban Auto bus, has returned from Oakland with a new Packard safety truck which will be put on the stage line from Medford to Roseburg.

Bling cherry trees, the best ever. Eden Valley Nursery, Phone 680-J-2.

Captain H. A. Canaday leaves today for Roseburg where he will remain till Sunday when he will return to Medford till after the New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hammett and children left this morning by motor for Portland where they will remain till after the New Year.

Miss Francis Kinney plans to go to southern California at the beginning of the New Year to spend some time there.

The Scandinavian society of the valley will hold their annual New Year's feast in the grange hall at Grants Pass on Monday evening, Dec. 31. All attending are asked to take a basket lunch. Coffee will be furnished by the society. A good time for everybody is promised.

The Red Cross Thrift Shop has a number of nice articles for sale among them being an electric vibrator good as new, a nice set of fur, a boys' suit for a 10 or 12 year old, a lot of brand new absorbent wash cloths at 2 for 6c, and some nice dolls' clothes, very reasonable. These are just a sample of the many bargains offered here. Come and look them over.

Mr. and Mrs. George Treloher left this morning by motor for Los Angeles. They will be in that city for about a month.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the kind friends and neighbors who so lovingly remembered us in flowers and deeds during the illness and bereavement of our son.

MR. AND MRS. E. E. MINNICK.

CO. CLERK FLOREY NOT TO RUN, BUT C. E. TERRILL MAY

County Clerk Chauncey Florey will not seek the office he has filled for two terms, at the spring primary, according to a statement made Wednesday. He plans to retire to private life.

Sheriff Terrill, stormy petrel of Jackson county politics, and grand jury and gossip target, has returned somewhat, and may, or may not, enter the field for another term, bringing the list of avowed and prospective candidates for sheriff up to a dozen.

"I don't know for sure yet," said the sheriff yesterday afternoon. "I am waiting to see how they line up, and how the cat is hopping. I would like to get back to Lake Creek. Some of my friends wanted me there before my term was out, but I'll finish her up, if I don't die."

Update political gossip has it that County Judge George A. Gardiner will go out for the republican nomination for secretary of state, running against the incumbent, Sam A. Kozor, who has been around the capitol for 25 years. The county judge thought some of running for the place the last time. Friends, however, may he will seek re-election for his present position.

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

CO. CLERK FLOREY NOT TO RUN, BUT C. E. TERRILL MAY

County Clerk Chauncey Florey will not seek the office he has filled for two terms, at the spring primary, according to a statement made Wednesday. He plans to retire to private life.

Sheriff Terrill, stormy petrel of Jackson county politics, and grand jury and gossip target, has returned somewhat, and may, or may not, enter the field for another term, bringing the list of avowed and prospective candidates for sheriff up to a dozen.

"I don't know for sure yet," said the sheriff yesterday afternoon. "I am waiting to see how they line up, and how the cat is hopping. I would like to get back to Lake Creek. Some of my friends wanted me there before my term was out, but I'll finish her up, if I don't die."

Update political gossip has it that County Judge George A. Gardiner will go out for the republican nomination for secretary of state, running against the incumbent, Sam A. Kozor, who has been around the capitol for 25 years. The county judge thought some of running for the place the last time. Friends, however, may he will seek re-election for his present position.

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.

A new name has shown up in the list of candidates for district attorney, to-wit: John H. Calkin, who went to the legislature from this county two years ago. Others mentioned for the place are William Briggs, Jr., of Ashland, Don A. Newbury of this city, both rising young lawyers, and C. C. Boggs, ousted by Governor Pierce, as "special prosecutor."

County Assessor Rim Coleman and Ben Hilton, Central point rancher and dayman, are also mentioned for the berth of county judge.