

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE ROGUE RIVER VALLEY

POPULAR ASHLAND
COUPLE MARRIED AT PARSONAGE

ASHLAND, Dec. 25.—Miss Helen Dickerson and A. J. McCallen, popular young people of Ashland, were married Wednesday evening at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. A. J. Chaney officiating. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Finerman. After the wedding ceremony the party adjourned to the Finerman home where supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Enders, Jr., and Miss Thelma McCredie were guests at the supper. After the supper the bride and groom left for their new home on the Boulevard. Mrs. McCallen is the daughter of J. O. Dickerson, former merchant. She is well known here, having graduated from the Ashland high school, and has been bookkeeper for the Ashland Creamery during the past few years. Mr. McCallen is the owner of the Ashland Creamery. Their many friends extend to them wishes for a happy future.

Professor DuBach of O. A. C., called at the chamber of commerce rooms Thursday on his way to Oakland, Cal., where he will deliver a series of lectures.

Colonel Thomson, superintendent of Crater Lake national park, will be the speaker at one of the chamber of commerce forum luncheons that will be given in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Jalo are in Ashland visiting friends and relatives during the Christmas vacation.

C. E. MacCollister who has been working in southern California, is here for a few days with his family on Granite street.

Hubert Prescott who has been attending the University of Oregon, is home for the Christmas vacation.

G. A. Briscoe, superintendent of the Ashland public schools and Mrs. J. K. McWilliams, principal of the Bellevue school, are among those from Ashland who are attending the meeting of the Oregon State Teachers' association that is meeting in Portland at the present time. Mr. Briscoe will also visit his son, L. E. Briscoe, while in Portland.

Mrs. Selma Gray and Miss Ruth Osmund left Monday evening for Oakland. Mrs. Gray will visit her parents there and Miss Osmund will spend a week with Rev. Cullahan, former pastor of the Presbyterian church, and family. Mrs. C. H. Pierce and Mrs. Emma Murphy will leave Saturday night for San Francisco where they will spend a week and then they will return with Miss Osmund and Mrs. Gray.

John P. Rocho of San Diego, formerly an Ashland resident, arrived in Ashland Wednesday where he will spend a few days on business.

Only a few more days left to get in on our Special Discount Sale, which closes December 31st, 1923.

So if you want to take advantage of this sale you will have to hurry.

	Value	For
Fleeced lined Union Suits	$2.95	$2.19
Wool Sox	.60	.45
Blankets, all wool	5.40	4.35
Blankets, all wool	7.00	5.45
Blankets, all wool	8.40	6.65
Blankets, all wool	14.00	12.15
Leather Vest	12.50	10.85
Leather Vest	7.25	6.45
Jershins	7.95	6.95
Leather Aviator Coats	20.00	17.50
Mackinaws, sheepskin lined	15.00	12.50
Heavy Cotton Undershirts	.79	.50
Heavy Cotton Drawers	.79	.50
Wool Breeches	5.25	4.95
English Officers Shirts	4.75	4.25
Officers Shirts	4.50	3.95

Mail orders promptly filled at above prices 'till December 31.

No refund or exchange during sale.

United Army Stores
32 So. Central Ave. Medford, Ore.

Ed Flackus and wife are visiting friends and relatives in Ashland during the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Ray Hargrove from Rona, Montana, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Myers, left Thursday for Vallejo, Calif., where she will visit her sister.

Donald Walker of Astoria is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Walker during the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Fry of Astoria are visiting at the home of Mrs. Fry's sister, Mrs. Howard Rose.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Warren of Oakland, Calif., are visiting T. A. Culbertson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark are visiting Mrs. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hale of Mountain Avenue.

Leith Abbott of Long View, Wash., is home for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler spent Christmas with Judge and Mrs. Pollock of Grants Pass.

Dr. Sawyer journeyed to Klamath Falls Monday, to spend Christmas there with his sister.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mars and family and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mars spent Christmas day with Mrs. Paul Mars' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Schaeffer of Medford.

John McMichael and family of Tenet, Ore., spent Christmas with friends and relatives in Ashland.

Lee C. Port and family spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Peachey of Lincoln street.

T. D. Thomas of Phoenix, Ore., was in Ashland Thursday afternoon on business.

Mrs. Channell is helping at McGee's dry goods store at the present time, in the absence of one of the regular clerks.

Miss Bertha Borall, clerk in McGee's dry goods store, spent Christmas with her grandmother, Mrs. Caldwell, in Rogue River.

Telegrams from Senators McNary and Stanford to the secretary of the chamber of commerce state that every effort is being made to retain Bert E. Haney as a member of the shipping board.

Jack Brady, who is attending O. A. C., has been appointed representative of the Ashland chamber of commerce, at that place.

Frank Dougherty and wife left Wednesday evening for their home in Dunsmuir. They spent Christmas with Mr. Dougherty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dougherty on Oak street.

Meade Hoover of San Francisco is visiting with his sister, Mrs. N. H. Harrison for a few days.

COMMUNITY XMAS
TREE WELL ATTENDED AT WILLOW SPRINGS

WILLOW SPRINGS, Dec. 25.—The Community Christmas entertainment and tree held at the schoolhouse last Saturday evening was well attended and very enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Brophy of Chiloquin, are spending the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Brophy's parents, at the Crossing Ranch.

Mrs. Roy Nichols' brother, Nathan Grisham and family, and her sister, Mrs. Adrian Thompson and Mr. Thompson and Mr. Thompson are here from Weed for the holidays. All of the relatives enjoyed Christmas Day at the Grisham home in Central Point.

The W. K. Parker home was the scene of a delightful Christmas gathering. As usual on Christmas day, they entertained the following guests at dinner and supper: The Elden, Birkholz, Bonney and Du Buque families. The H. B. Clark and Herbert Harris families joined the party in the evening and all enjoyed cards and dancing.

Mrs. Sam Anderson has been quite ill for some time, but was able to be up on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harris had no guests for Christmas dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clarke and son, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Glace, Ernest Harris from Medford and Russell and Herbert Harris who are home from O. A. C. on their Christmas vacation.

Mrs. Clyde Richmond remembered her many friends here with Christmas cards, written from Los Angeles, where she and her sister, Mrs. Wood, are visiting friends and enjoying the sunshine of southern California.

Mrs. W. K. Parker and daughters motored to Grants Pass Wednesday and spent the day with Mrs. Parker's mother, Mrs. Alverzon.

Mrs. Sam Anderson has been quite ill for some time, but was able to be up on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harris had no guests for Christmas dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clarke and son, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Glace, Ernest Harris from Medford and Russell and Herbert Harris who are home from O. A. C. on their Christmas vacation.

Mrs. Clyde Richmond remembered her many friends here with Christmas cards, written from Los Angeles, where she and her sister, Mrs. Wood, are visiting friends and enjoying the sunshine of southern California.

Mrs. W. K. Parker and daughters motored to Grants Pass Wednesday and spent the day with Mrs. Parker's mother, Mrs. Alverzon.

Mrs. Sam Anderson has been quite ill for some time, but was able to be up on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harris had no guests for Christmas dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clarke and son, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Glace, Ernest Harris from Medford and Russell and Herbert Harris who are home from O. A. C. on their Christmas vacation.

Mrs. Clyde Richmond remembered her many friends here with Christmas cards, written from Los Angeles, where she and her sister, Mrs. Wood, are visiting friends and enjoying the sunshine of southern California.

Mrs. W. K. Parker and daughters motored to Grants Pass Wednesday and spent the day with Mrs. Parker's mother, Mrs. Alverzon.

Mrs. Sam Anderson has been quite ill for some time, but was able to be up on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harris had no guests for Christmas dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clarke and son, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Glace, Ernest Harris from Medford and Russell and Herbert Harris who are home from O. A. C. on their Christmas vacation.

Mrs. Clyde Richmond remembered her many friends here with Christmas cards, written from Los Angeles, where she and her sister, Mrs. Wood, are visiting friends and enjoying the sunshine of southern California.

Mrs. W. K. Parker and daughters motored to Grants Pass Wednesday and spent the day with Mrs. Parker's mother, Mrs. Alverzon.

Mrs. Sam Anderson has been quite ill for some time, but was able to be up on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harris had no guests for Christmas dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clarke and son, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Glace, Ernest Harris from Medford and Russell and Herbert Harris who are home from O. A. C. on their Christmas vacation.

Mrs. Clyde Richmond remembered her many friends here with Christmas cards, written from Los Angeles, where she and her sister, Mrs. Wood, are visiting friends and enjoying the sunshine of southern California.

Mrs. W. K. Parker and daughters motored to Grants Pass Wednesday and spent the day with Mrs. Parker's mother, Mrs. Alverzon.

Mrs. Sam Anderson has been quite ill for some time, but was able to be up on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harris had no guests for Christmas dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clarke and son, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Glace, Ernest Harris from Medford and Russell and Herbert Harris who are home from O. A. C. on their Christmas vacation.

Mrs. Clyde Richmond remembered her many friends here with Christmas cards, written from Los Angeles, where she and her sister, Mrs. Wood, are visiting friends and enjoying the sunshine of southern California.

Mrs. W. K. Parker and daughters motored to Grants Pass Wednesday and spent the day with Mrs. Parker's mother, Mrs. Alverzon.

Mrs. Sam Anderson has been quite ill for some time, but was able to be up on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harris had no guests for Christmas dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clarke and son, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Glace, Ernest Harris from Medford and Russell and Herbert Harris who are home from O. A. C. on their Christmas vacation.

Mrs. Clyde Richmond remembered her many friends here with Christmas cards, written from Los Angeles, where she and her sister, Mrs. Wood, are visiting friends and enjoying the sunshine of southern California.

REV. M. M. REID OF TALENT METHODIST CHURCH DEPARTS

TALENT, Ore., Dec. 25.—Rev. M. M. Reid delivered his farewell sermon Sunday morning. He is leaving for Portland so he may be near his mother who is in very poor health.

A farewell reception was tendered to Dr. Reid and his wife by the members of the M. E. church Christmas eve.

Mr. Bonham has disposed of his property at Medford and will make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Louis Brown of Talent.

Christmas eve a program was given at the M. E. church under the auspices of the Sunday school to a packed house. At the conclusion Santa Claus arrived and distributed gifts of oranges, pop-corn balls and sacks of candy and nuts to the children and grown-ups.

Prof. and Mrs. G. W. Millam of Medford were Talent callers Christmas day.

Mrs. E. E. Evans has just received word of the death of her father, H. Ward Noble, which occurred in Tampa, Florida, the 18th where he was spending the winter.

The student body of Talent high school gave an entertainment Wednesday evening, Dec. 19, for the benefit of the Athletic association at which about $40 was raised. Music was furnished by Girls' Glee club. Two plays were given under the direction of the English teacher, Mrs. Lucy Wedding, and much credit is due her for the success of the entertainment. Buelah Burnett, Anna Evans, Ruth Bannan, Madge Hackler, Elizabeth Brown and Ruth Edmundson each took a part in "Six Cups of Chocolate," and the cast in "A Christmas Chime" consisted of Elvira Cochran, Gladys Harton, Imogene Arant, and Vern Speirs. These young people all did fine.

Miss Lucile Holdridge who is a student at O. A. C. is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Holdridge during the holidays. She expects to return New Year's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lacey and baby of Murphy, spent Christmas with Mrs. Lacey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hackler.

The members of the Talent schools are spending their vacation at school and home. Mrs. Lucy Wedding at Portland and Heppner; Misses Blanche and Ina Hubbs at Silverton; Miss Alta Edmiston at Sherwood; Miss Edith Kuhl on the Applegate; and Miss Marion Sabin at Grants Pass.

Miss Ruth Hackler who is a sophomore at the Willamette university, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hackler.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Carter entertained Christmas with a dinner party in the evening. About 30 relatives were present.

Mrs. V. C. Cleveland of Newport, Wash., and her son Glen of the navy service, are holiday guests of Mrs. Lester Newberry.

Dr. M. M. Reid and wife were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Evans Christmas evening.

Principal G. W. Millam of Applegate called on Mr. Evans Christmas day.

School closed Dec. 21 for a two weeks vacation. All of the lower grades participated in programs the last day.

The 7th and 8th grades gave a party in the basement gym and dining room Thursday evening, Dec. 20th. The evening was spent in games, a program and a Christmas tree with a real Santa Claus. The dining room was very appropriately decorated for the occasion. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Barnes of Phoenix were Christmas callers on Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Evans.

Mrs. H. C. Baughman and daughter Dorothy of Medford, were callers on Mrs. Louis Brown Christmas.

Rev. Ralph Bowman and wife of Canyonville are spending the Christmas holidays with Mr. Bowman's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Vogell and daughter Callie spent Christmas in Medford with relatives.

Mr. Geo. Estes has returned from an extended visit with relatives at San Jose, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Riper of Roseburg and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McIntyre of Grants Pass spent Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Long.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Wells, and Dr. and Mrs. Land of Klamath Falls, stopped at the Rosatis ranch Saturday. They were en route to Portland where they spent Christmas with Mrs. Wells' mother and Mr. Wells attended the state teachers' association.

Mrs. James Kershaw visited her mother, who lives near Medford, last Saturday.

Mr. William Franklin spent Sunday at his home in Phoenix.

Mr. G. W. Jacobs and Mr. Clark of Gold Hill visited Frank Norton on Sunday and inspected his mine.

Ted Striker, who is at present living in Grants Pass, visited Harris Porter Sunday. The Striker family, who used to live on the Gray place, are now residing at Creswell, Oregon.

Mr. Frank Norton was a dinner guest at Rosatis ranch Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Gray and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. King of Ashland Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Smith of Medford were visiting at the D. L. Stead home Christmas evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Strahan spent Christmas with relatives in Rogue River.

Mrs. J. M. Hosmer and Mrs. Bell Farmer spent the day at Rosatis ranch Wednesday.

The following persons from this vicinity were shopping in Grants Pass last Saturday: Mrs. M. W. Jacobs and Miss Nellie Jacobs, Messrs. William Franklin and Harris Porter.

Mrs. Edith L. Porter was called to Griffin creek Monday, where she will spend an indefinite period.

RESE CREEK, Dec. 27.—The Reese Creek school, taught by F. H. Johnson, Jr., gave an entertainment and Christmas tree Saturday evening with a treat for everyone. The decorations were very nicely arranged, everything suggesting Christmas. A large crowd was in attendance to enjoy the festivities. The following took part in the program: Recitations were given by Freya Ryan, Hilda Ryan, Mary Jacks, Evelyn Jacks, Morris Jacks, Mildred Bellows and Vivian Hannaford. Esther Hannaford sang "Holy Night" with Rev. Davidson accompanying at the organ. The cast of characters for the Christmas play: Grandfather Cole...Bennie Bellows and Ada, grandchildren...Tony and Donna Dwyer, Lemuel Douke, farmer...Frank Pettigrow, Blah, the butler...John Clarno, Sally Evans, old maid...Esther Hannaford, Kate, her maid...Velva Evans, Mrs. Hale, housekeeper...Ruth Hannaford, Mrs. Ames, solicitor...Bertha Clarno, Mr. Johnson, the teacher, went home to spend his Christmas vacation.

There was quite a number at Sunday school. After Sunday school, Rev. John Stille preached on what the bible teaches about prayer. Mr. Stille will preach each Sunday after the Sunday school.

Will Merritt and family took Christmas dinner with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Castor and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hammett, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Courtney, Mr. Marshall Minter and the Misses Mina and Myrtle Minter spent Christmas at the home of their sister, Mrs. T. E. Bonelius of Talent.

Andrew Tucker has just returned from San Francisco, where he has been employed at his trade, the tailoring business.

Mr. W. H. Crandall and family drove to Medford Sunday afternoon to visit his little son, Edwin, who is in the hospital. He is very slowly improving.

Mrs. Bert Clarno is improving also. She is able to help with the work.

Mrs. M. S. Wood, who is at her granddaughter's, Mrs. Dick Johnson's, is able to sit up all day.

Mr. K. Lucely has built a portable house on the Ryan land for his sheep herder.

President Qualifies in S. Dakota. PIERRE, S. D., Dec. 28.—The signed acceptance of President Coolidge as a majority republican candidate in the state primary election campaign was filed with the secretary of state today. The declaration said, "I, Calvin Coolidge, do hereby declare that if nominated and elected, I will qualify."

Little Mother Happy Again

"For the past nine years I have been very much distressed with bloating and stomach trouble due to constipation since I was a child. No medicine gave me more than temporary relief. I got so bad I was afraid I would have to leave my three little children. But since taking a course of May's Wonderful Remedy two years ago, I have been entirely well, no constipation or other trouble." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by all druggists. Adv.

ROCK POINT PEBBLES

Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Wells, and Dr. and Mrs. Land of Klamath Falls, stopped at the Rosatis ranch Saturday. They were en route to Portland where they spent Christmas with Mrs. Wells' mother and Mr. Wells attended the state teachers' association.

Mrs. James Kershaw visited her mother, who lives near Medford, last Saturday.

Mr. William Franklin spent Sunday at his home in Phoenix.

Mr. G. W. Jacobs and Mr. Clark of Gold Hill visited Frank Norton on Sunday and inspected his mine.

COOLIDGE'S MANAGER IN THE PRESIDENTIAL RACE

President Coolidge's hat is officially in the ring for the forthcoming contest for the republican presidential nomination. William M. Butler, above, the Massachusetts member of the republican national committee and a Coolidge friend of many years' standing, will act as the president's personal representative in the contest, according to an announcement made at Washington by Frank W. Stearns for many years the close friend and political advisor of the president.

and Miss Nellie Jacobs, Messrs. William Franklin and Harris Porter.

Mrs. Edith L. Porter was called to Griffin creek Monday, where she will spend an indefinite period.

RESE CREEK, Dec. 27.—The Reese Creek school, taught by F. H. Johnson, Jr., gave an entertainment and Christmas tree Saturday evening with a treat for everyone. The decorations were very nicely arranged, everything suggesting Christmas. A large crowd was in attendance to enjoy the festivities. The following took part in the program: Recitations were given by Freya Ryan, Hilda Ryan, Mary Jacks, Evelyn Jacks, Morris Jacks, Mildred Bellows and Vivian Hannaford. Esther Hannaford sang "Holy Night" with Rev. Davidson accompanying at the organ. The cast of characters for the Christmas play: Grandfather Cole...Bennie Bellows and Ada, grandchildren...Tony and Donna Dwyer, Lemuel Douke, farmer...Frank Pettigrow, Blah, the butler...John Clarno, Sally Evans, old maid...Esther Hannaford, Kate, her maid...Velva Evans, Mrs. Hale, housekeeper...Ruth Hannaford, Mrs. Ames, solicitor...Bertha Clarno, Mr. Johnson, the teacher, went home to spend his Christmas vacation.

There was quite a number at Sunday school. After Sunday school, Rev. John Stille preached on what the bible teaches about prayer. Mr. Stille will preach each Sunday after the Sunday school.

Will Merritt and family took Christmas dinner with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Castor and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hammett, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Courtney, Mr. Marshall Minter and the Misses Mina and Myrtle Minter spent Christmas at the home of their sister, Mrs. T. E. Bonelius of Talent.

Andrew Tucker has just returned from San Francisco, where he has been employed at his trade, the tailoring business.

Mr. W. H. Crandall and family drove to Medford Sunday afternoon to visit his little son, Edwin, who is in the hospital. He is very slowly improving.

Mrs. Bert Clarno is improving also. She is able to help with the work.

Mrs. M. S. Wood, who is at her granddaughter's, Mrs. Dick Johnson's, is able to sit up all day.

Mr. K. Lucely has built a portable house on the Ryan land for his sheep herder.

President Qualifies in S. Dakota. PIERRE, S. D., Dec. 28.—The signed acceptance of President Coolidge as a majority republican candidate in the state primary election campaign was filed with the secretary of state today. The declaration said, "I, Calvin Coolidge, do hereby declare that if nominated and elected, I will qualify."

Little Mother Happy Again

"For the past nine years I have been very much distressed with bloating and stomach trouble due to constipation since I was a child. No medicine gave me more than temporary relief. I got so bad I was afraid I would have to leave my three little children. But since taking a course of May's Wonderful Remedy two years ago, I have been entirely well, no constipation or other trouble." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by all druggists. Adv.

ROCK POINT PEBBLES

Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Wells, and Dr. and Mrs. Land of Klamath Falls, stopped at the Rosatis ranch Saturday. They were en route to Portland where they spent Christmas with Mrs. Wells' mother and Mr. Wells attended the state teachers' association.

Mrs. James Kershaw visited her mother, who lives near Medford, last Saturday.

Mr. William Franklin spent Sunday at his home in Phoenix.

Mr. G. W. Jacobs and Mr. Clark of Gold Hill visited Frank Norton on Sunday and inspected his mine.

Ted Striker, who is at present living in Grants Pass, visited Harris Porter Sunday. The Striker family, who used to live on the Gray place, are now residing at Creswell, Oregon.

Mr. Frank Norton was a dinner guest at Rosatis ranch Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Gray and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. King of Ashland Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Smith of Medford were visiting at the D. L. Stead home Christmas evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Strahan spent Christmas with relatives in Rogue River.

Mrs. J. M. Hosmer and Mrs. Bell Farmer spent the day at Rosatis ranch Wednesday.

The following persons from this vicinity were shopping in Grants Pass last Saturday: Mrs. M. W. Jacobs and Miss Nellie Jacobs, Messrs. William Franklin and Harris Porter.

Mrs. Edith L. Porter was called to Griffin creek Monday, where she will spend an indefinite period.

RESE CREEK, Dec. 27.—The Reese Creek school, taught by F. H. Johnson, Jr., gave an entertainment and Christmas tree Saturday evening with a treat for everyone. The decorations were very nicely arranged, everything suggesting Christmas. A large crowd was in attendance to enjoy the festivities. The following took part in the program: Recitations were given by Freya Ryan, Hilda Ryan, Mary Jacks, Evelyn Jacks, Morris Jacks, Mildred Bellows and Vivian Hannaford. Esther Hannaford sang "Holy Night" with Rev. Davidson accompanying at the organ. The cast of characters for the Christmas play: Grandfather Cole...Bennie Bellows and Ada, grandchildren...Tony and Donna Dwyer, Lemuel Douke, farmer...Frank Pettigrow, Blah, the butler...John Clarno, Sally Evans, old maid...Esther Hannaford, Kate, her maid...Velva Evans, Mrs. Hale, housekeeper...Ruth Hannaford, Mrs. Ames, solicitor...Bertha Clarno, Mr. Johnson, the teacher, went home to spend his Christmas vacation.

There was quite a number at Sunday school. After Sunday school, Rev. John Stille preached on what the bible teaches about prayer. Mr. Stille will preach each Sunday after the Sunday school.

Will Merritt and family took Christmas dinner with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Castor and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hammett, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Courtney, Mr. Marshall Minter and the Misses Mina and Myrtle Minter spent Christmas at the home of their sister, Mrs. T. E. Bonelius of Talent.

Andrew Tucker has just returned from San Francisco, where he has been employed at his trade, the tailoring business.