

COPCO REVIEWS ADVANCES MADE IN PAST YEAR

The December issue of "The Volt," the small publication of the California Oregon Power company, which will be distributed next week, is devoted to a review of the activities of the company for the year 1923. It contains a number of illustrations of new installations during the year, including the system warehouse and machine shop constructed in Medford and the new transformers of larger size installed at the Medford substation on Riverside avenue.

The most important transaction of the year in the company's business is referred to as the acquisition of the properties of the Douglas County Light and Water company, and the tying in of the old Douglas county system with the Prospect-Springfield high tension transmission line at Dixonville, just east of Roseburg.

We quote from an advance copy of "The Volt" as follows:

"The famous valley of the Rogue is not lacking of monuments bespeaking progress—both ours and the region's—during 1923. We installed additional transformer capacity in our Medford substation, increasing the total installed capacity here to 3000 K.W. And more noticeable than the new electric equipment installed is the company's new system warehouse in Medford, which was completed in July. This enables us to centralize the handling of electrical supplies kept in stock for use throughout the Copco system. The property is so situated that equipment arriving by rail can be handled economically by means of derricks and motor trucks; the warehouse lot is located on the main line of the Southern Pacific railroad. The building, which is nearly 300 feet long and 48 feet wide, is of corrugated-iron construction. A portion of the floor space will be utilized for offices, thus increasing the available office space at our Home office headquarters, the Copco building, on West Main street. In addition to the warehouse the lot contains the company repair shop and pole yard, and there is ample room for further expansion of the warehouse and shop facilities.

"It will be recalled that the Copco Power plant was completed near the end of last year, a new unit doubling the capacity of the plant having been installed. The new unit has been in successful operation ever since, and our daily peak load has required an load on both units of this plant.

"At opportune times during the last half of this year we have been re-installing portions of transmission lines Nos. 2, 3 and 4, extending into Siskiyou and Shasta counties in California, and Klamath and Jackson counties in Oregon. This work will be completed during the coming year, and make it possible to operate these lines at 66,000 volts, more than double their present capacity. On line 2 we installed new transmission switches at Castella and at Dunsuir, in California, which improves our service to consumers in this section. Also to improve service to Grants Pass and the surrounding territory, we installed a new oil switch at Grants Pass, at a cost of $1800, the amount being mentioned so that non-electrical readers may realize that it was a big job. "Gold mining has been resumed to some extent in Siskiyou county, California, and in Jackson and Josephine counties, Oregon. Early in the year the Estabrook Gold Dredging company's dredger, located near Trinity Center, was reconnected for service after having been shut down for two seasons. Their load is 1600 h. p."

Miss Annette Heckman is home from Eugene, where she is attending the University of Oregon.

Mr. Charles Cunningham returned to his home for the week from Derby where he has been employed as a master workman.

The Messrs. Moravy and Ben Stevens have opened up a garage in the brick building, formerly occupied by the Johnson Produce company. This brings the total garages up to the number of four in this city. The owners of the new garage have just sold further down on Main street. It is expected they will meet success in their new enterprise.

The Masons and the order of Eastern Stars of this city held their joint installation in their lodge building last night. After the ceremonies a banquet was given to all present. All the members and their families had been invited.

Owing to the fact that the Lyceum number will be presented on Monday night, the country store at the F and B will be given Tuesday night, January 2.

Miss Grace Bowman returned to her home in the city Saturday, from Butte Falls, where she conducts the Mt. Pitt school, six miles above Butte Falls. She reports that a very nice program was given at her school on Friday, by the students, consisting of readings, singing and other things. After all this "Santa Claus" came upon the scene with his good Xmas cheer.

EVANS VALLEY

The Wimer Sunday school gave a short program at the Grange hall last Sunday night. The songs by the young people's class and a solo by Mrs. Eva Van Goolin were exceptionally good. After the program candy was distributed to all present. There was a large crowd for Wimer, there being about 200 persons present. The hall and Christmas tree were beautifully decorated.

There was a rather bad wreck at the grade near the McMahon place last Wednesday evening, when a Dodge touring car in rounding a sharp curve ran into a wagon loaded with gravel. The car was almost a total wreck and the driver was badly cut by broken glass from the windshield. Donald Dimick who was driving the gravel wagon escaped uninjured but his wagon was considerably damaged and one horse was slightly hurt and considerably shaken up.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith and family were dinner guests at Mrs. D. E. Neathamer's Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Honner and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Moore and Gene Moore drove to Provolet Christmas and had Christmas dinner with Mrs. Stewart.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO HARDING MEMORIAL FUND SOLICITED

The Harding Memorial association, with headquarters at Washington, D. C., is headed by President Calvin Coolidge and all the members of his cabinet, and an incorporation of responsible men has been formed for the purpose of building a Harding Memorial.

It embraces the three purposes of: 1—Acquiring the Harding home with the grounds, the same to be kept always as archives for the books, papers, speeches, etc., of the late President Warren G. Harding; 2—Establishing a chair in some university to be determined, devoted to statesmanship, diplomacy and international law; —Also of building a mausoleum and monument in which shall rest the remains of the late president, and ultimately those of Mrs. Harding. This enterprise calls for three million dollars, $60,000 of which has been assigned to the state of Oregon as its quota.

President Harding's last weeks of activities were spent on the Pacific coast, and the people grew to love him for his splendid character and his high ideals, and also to admire, respect and love Mrs. Harding for her womanly qualities.

It is desired that voluntary contributions shall be made to this fund, and that a very great many people should participate in it, that all may have a tangible interest in the enterprise.

Contributions may be sent to B. F. Mulkey, state chairman of the Harding Memorial association for the state of Oregon, Suite 403, Corbett building, Portland, Oregon, or they may be sent direct to headquarters at 1414 F street NW, Washington, D. C.

Between the 6th and 16th of January, 1924 a drive will be made in the several counties of this state to secure the funds; but meanwhile and during that time, it is hoped that a large number of people will respond of their own initiative.

Governor Walter M. Pierce is taking an active interest in this Harding Memorial enterprise, and has issued a proclamation calling upon the various churches of the state to say something commendatory to the movement on Sunday, January 6th.

SCRANTON, Pa.—Low Tandler won the judges' decision over Pep O'Brien, Scranton lightweight, in ten rounds last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Diamond spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Pollard.

Harold Shook and Bert Chapman gave a Christmas dance at the Bungalow. A large crowd came and danced till morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Abbott and sons and Miss Zella Taylor went to Ashland Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Herring, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Herring, of this city who has been a deputy internal revenue collector for a little over a year has been promoted by Internal Revenue Collector Clyde Huntley to chief of the third district, comprising the southern Oregon counties, with headquarters at Eugene. He assumes his new duties January 1st and will have several deputies under his direction.

Mr. Herring was first sent to Pendleton where he was a deputy, spent some time in the general office at Portland and a few months ago was transferred to the office here in charge of Fred Colvig.

Mr. Herring's many friends will be glad to hear of his promotion.

THE WELL-KNOWN MEDICINE OF THE FAMOUS RECIPE BOOK AUTHOR

K-L Pills

For Kidney and Liver Troubles, Constipation, Intestinal Indigestion and Kindred Ailments
Liver trouble leads to serious ills. And a sure sign of liver trouble is biliousness. If you have attacks of headache, if you have a coated tongue, if you have a sickle appetite, you probably are bilious—which may lead to derangement of the liver and to serious and quite often fatal results. Read this strong endorsement of Dr. A. W. Chase's K-L Pills. Mrs. J. H. Stone, Route No. 8, Bailey, Ga., writes:

"For a number of years I have been troubled with my kidneys, liver and also my heart. I find Dr. A. W. Chase's K-L Pills a wonderful remedy. They certainly are the best I ever used. I would not be without them in my home and take great pleasure in recommending them to my friends."

You can buy Dr. Chase's K-L Pills at all drug stores. To be sure of getting the genuine, see the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., on each box—your protection against imitations.
