CENT. POINT MAN IS MARRIED TO PRINEVILLE GIRL

CENTRAL POINT, Jan. 4.—The most important event of the holiday season was performed at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Slayton near Prineville when their eldest daughter was married to Mr. Floyd Ross of this city. Miss Slayton is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural College, where she was a member of the Gamma Iota sorority. She is very well known in Central Point, having been on the faculty of the Central Point high school for three years until the present term. She is held in high esteem by all of her former students and by all who know her. The groom, Mr. Ross, is a veteran of the World War and a very prominent young business man of this city. He is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ross and has resided here practically all of his life, and now is the proprietor of Ross and Ross confectionary and billiard parlor, popular place of recreation of the men-folk of the town. The ceremony was performed at four o'clock on Christmas day, the Rev. Horace Kay of Redmond, officiating, in the presence of a few friends and near relatives of the bride. After an elaborate wedding dinner the happy couple departed for Central Point, where they will make their home. The entire community extends congratulations to the bride and groom, and that everlasting happiness be theirs.

The Central Point schools resumed activities on Wednesday after a holiday vacation of a week and one-half. During this time the different members of the faculties spent the week out of town with relatives.

The new gymnasium is now very near completion, the floor has been all laid, everything complete except the stage will be finished in a very short time. Then the city will have a building that can be pointed out with civic pride.

The second number of the lyceum course being presented in the city was very well attended in the F. and E. theatre Monday evening. The Buckeye Male Trio, were very good entertainers. They presented instrumental and vocal numbers in the line of music, but also gave several very good comical readings, keeping the audience in uproar throughout their presentation. Encores were frequent.

The next number on the course will be given by Emma Dee Randall, said to be a highly entertaining lecturer, who will appear on January 12.

No man can long endure "Dan Cupid's" darts, and so it was with Mr. Lester Cash, for on Sunday, December 29, the young man with Miss Pearl Millard of Medford, were made one in name by marriage. The ceremony was performed at the home of Rev. Hubbard, of the M. E. church at Yreka, California. Mr. Cash, the groom, is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cash of this city, who have resided here for over ten years. For several years he was employed by the Central Point meat market, but of late he has been connected with the City Meat Market of Medford. Here in this city, he is very well known among all the residents, and is exceedingly well thought of by all. The bride, Miss Millard, is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Millard of Medford and has been employed by the Home Telephone company for over a year. She is quite well known in Central Point and its environs. The marriage came as a great surprise to all their friends here, for they had kept it secret for over a week. They will make their home in Central Point in the very near future.

New Year was ushered into existence with clamorous clangings of the different bells of the city. For many a year the bells were not rung with greater zest as they were that night. Far, far, into the early hours of the morning of New Year's the bells were rung to herald forth the passing of 1923 and the advent of 1924. It seemed as if there were two groups of merry-makers each having one bell, and seeing which group could ring for the longest time, but after two or three hours of ringing, both felt that they deserved the laurels. Officially the question has not been decided.

Miss Ruth Mury returned recently from Portland where she has been spending the Christmas vacation. While gone from her post of duty at the office of Doctor Johnson, dentist, at Medford, her sister, Esther, worked in her stead.

Leon Boomer left yesterday for Long Beach, California, where he will undoubtedly spend the winter. He is making the trip by motor car.

The Messrs. John Sutton, Howard Kell and Aaron Cook were visitors in Central Point Tuesday evening from Gold Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Love returned from a motor trip down through California. They spent a short time at Long Beach. They reported a very good time.

Mrs. Saltmarsh is home again from the John Chaffin home, where she took care of a new granddaughter.

SAMS VALLEY

The unusual cold snap of the last few days came as a surprise, having followed a day of quite mild temperatures. The snow by Thursday morning has fallen to a depth of 2 1/2 inches here and from the clouded condition of the atmosphere, there will likely be more yet.

Mr. and Mrs. John Holst returned in their new Jewett from a very pleasant week's visit with Mrs. Holst's brother and family at Everett, Wash.

Walter Straus, one of our steady young men who has attended high school for several years, is now employed at the Gold Hill bank.

Miss Grey, our intermediate teacher, who got back to her school duties Wednesday, was quite badly handicapped by the cold weather. Leaving her home below Gold Hill early in the morning in her father's car, they got as far as Gold Hill when the radiator froze so solidly they were compelled to get a taxi to go any further, but Mr. Sutton, the taxi driver also failed to get her to her destination and owing to the frozen condition of his car, had to procure another car when within two miles of school, before her teacher could be landed safely at her post of duty.

Misses Mary and Rella Edington were both visitors during the holidays at their brother's home on Galls creek.

Many complaints have been made recently among our telephone members over the errors in our telephone bills received from the Medford office. Many bills are charged for calls never rendered, also rental fees which have been paid, are charged over, making large bills where the books should be clear. This shows an inefficiency of help and we fail to believe it comes from our local office.

REESE CREEK RIPLETS

The New Year was ushered in with snow and the coldest weather of the season, the snow having fallen the day previous. The New Year day was bright and clear, giving the young people and children a chance to enjoy a taste of real winter with toboggan rides, snowballing, making snow men, etc., games which are so much enjoyed in the colder climates.

Mrs. Walter Isbel spent the holidays in Medford, Mr. Graham looking after the goats in the meantime.

A. P. Barrow of Chico, Cal., visited at the home of his sister, Mrs. H. Watkins, during the holidays.

Mr. Strauss and family ate New Year dinner at Mr. Conger's.

Tom Vestel and family and Mrs. Lizzie Jacko called at the Ayers home on New Year's afternoon.

Prudence Conger is staying with Mrs. Strausser and attending school.

Mr. Scutz, who lived on Indian creek, passed away New Year's morning. It seems he went out and did his chores that morning as usual, and after coming to the house he sat down on a chair and passed away immediately. He and his wife have lived on Indian creek for some years.

gets there!
THE new ZEROLENE for FORDS

Zerolene "F" for Fords is the latest product of the Standard Oil Research Laboratories. We believe it does the lubricating job for Fords as no other oil will do it. Zerolene "F" for Fords will increase gasoline mileage, save carbon-removal and valve-grinding expenses, reduce friction and wear, and prolong the life of every Ford in which it is used. It is a scientific, practical answer to the Ford owner's lubricating problem—and it costs not more, but less than most of the special Ford oils now on the market.

Plenty of oils are good in the can and in the crankcase. Zerolene "F" for Fords is not only obviously good in the container—a clear, bright golden oil whose quality is evident in its appearance—it is good on the job. On every part of the job. It satisfies the first requirement of a Ford lubricant—it gets to the parts that require lubrication.

The wrist-pin bearings, for example. The Ford lubricating system is an excellent system, but it won't splash oil to the wrist-pin bearings, unless the oil is right. Neither will it reach the upper half of the cylinder walls—unless the oil is right.

Zerolene "F" for Fords saves your Ford at these crucial points. It reduces the up-keep cost of your car and lengthens its working life.

Zerolene "F" for Fords gets there, under all operating conditions, in summer and in winter. Like other Zerolene oils, it is made from selected Western Naphthenic Base Crude, and is consequently one of the best cold-test oils obtainable. Like the other Zerolene oils, it deposits very little carbon, and that little is so soft and fluffy that most of it blows out with the exhaust. You won't be bothered with caked and "frozen" piston rings if you keep Zerolene "F" for Fords in your crankcase exclusively.

All Standard Oil Service Stations and most garages and other dealers now carry Zerolene "F"—on tap and in cans. Clean out your crankcase today and start right with Zerolene "F" for Fords.

A Ford, well treated, is an A-1 transportation investment. Protect YOUR investment by proper lubrication.
