LUMBER RATES TO EAST FROM SOUTH ARE CUT A LITTLE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—A revision of lumber rates from southeastern states to New England and eastern trunk line territory, was ordered today by the interstate commerce commission effective June 10.

On shipments to New York, northern Pennsylvania and New Jersey, the new schedule constitutes slight reductions. To certain other points in the territory affected, there will be increases.

The southern lumber producers had asked for substantial general reductions on the ground that competition from the Pacific coast was becoming more serious.

"The force of the Pacific competition," the decision said, "appears to be due primarily to the volume of the movement through the Panama canal and to the difference in costs of production. We cannot require carriers to reduce their rates for the purpose of meeting water competition and we will not undertake to adjust rates from competing producing territory in order to equalize manufacturing costs."

"We find that the smaller rates from the southeast to trunk line and New England territory are not unduly prejudicial as compared with rates from the Pacific coast to the same destinations."

TO COMPLETE DALLES ROAD THRU KLAMATH

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 11.—An outline of its 1924 program completed late yesterday by the state highway commission included cleanup of work on the Roosevelt highway in Tillamook and Coos counties and of Klamath county and of the John Day highway as far as Unity. Work on the Mount Hood loop, except a bridge across the White river also was ordered pushed to completion.

One of Oldest Banks in S. Dakota Fails to Open

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Jan. 11.—The Sioux Falls National bank, capitalized for $150,000, one of the oldest banks in South Dakota, failed to open its doors today. The bank opened May 3, 1888. The December 31 statement of the bank showed deposits of more than $2,500,000.

SCREEN

Colleen Moore, Rialto

In "The Huntress," which is to be the feature of the program at the Rialto theatre today and tomorrow, Colleen Moore has, without doubt, one of the most delightful roles of her whole screen career.

In this picture the winsome young star plays the part of a vivacious care-free white girl, who has been reared as an Indian. She learns that she is white and then "the fun begins" when she decides to win a white husband.

She kidnaps a bashful city youth, who has come into the country prospecting. Her efforts to win him, naturally create a series of highly humorous and at times dramatic situations.

Lloyd Hughes plays opposite Miss Moore and other screen celebrities are Russell Simpson, Walter Long, Silt Edwards, Charles E. Anderson and Wilfred North.
