

ASHLAND C. OF C. FAVORS SPENDING $10,000 ON CAMP

ASHLAND, Jan. 16.—The chamber of commerce held a very worth while meeting at the Ashland hotel Tuesday noon. The speaker for the day was Col. Chas. G. Thomson, superintendent of Crater Lake national park. He spoke of the growth of Crater Lake park and stated that Crater Lake is having practically as many visitors as any of the other national parks of the country. He said that work was in hand to furnish better entertainment features and other plans being made for the enjoyment of the tourists. He urged that southern Oregon extend every courtesy to the tourists and also urged that the county fair be open to tourists and out-of-state people. The chamber voted for a resolution to expend $10,000 for the purpose of expanding the Lithia park and auto camp ground. Frank Jordan, president of the park board stated that the park commission was greatly handicapped by the lack of funds, and that the amount of money was quite necessary to keep the camp ground up to standard to meet the future tourist travel. J. H. Moran, superintendent of the auto camp gave a short talk on the camp ground and recommended the construction of a community house and cottages. The vote on the Fourth of July celebration resulted in a unanimous decision in favor of making the Fourth of July celebration an annual event.

A meeting of the chamber of commerce ladies was held after the forum luncheon that was given Tuesday for the purpose of discussing plans for the big annual banquet. It was planned to continue the banquet as formerly and it will probably be given some time during the last week in January. R. W. Price, manager of Crater Lake Lodge and president of the Oregon Hotelmen's association will probably be the speaker on this occasion.

Mrs. S. N. Miller who has been spending the past week visiting in Ashland, returned Tuesday morning to her home in Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lilly, former Ashland resident, now living at Klamath Falls, returned to Ashland recently on business. They will only remain here a few days.

Monday evening began the regular evening practice of the high school orchestra, "In Old Louisiana," which will be given on Thursday, Jan. 23. The cast has been chosen and the choruses are hard at work practicing every evening from now till the night of the performance. This play is being directed by Miss Marsters, musical director, Miss Wheeler, dramatic director and Miss Blumenfeld, dancing director. The play is a clever story of life in the south in about the year 1862. The costumes for the opera will be beautiful and the songs very catching. This play is one of the popular ones of the season and is sure to be a very good one. The high school gives the opera each year in order to earn money for the musical organizations. This money goes to buy music and other necessary equipment for these organizations. Some of it was used last year to help out with the athletic debt. The cast is picked from the two high school girls clubs, with the exception of several of the minor characters. It is expected that the one this year will be much superior to the one that was given last year, entitled, "The Captain of Plymouth" which was said to be one of the best plays that has ever been given in the history of the school.

The Lithians held a very interesting meeting at the Plaza Monday evening. The motion was made for a bigger and better Fourth of July celebration, to be sponsored entirely by the Lithians. A resolution was passed "that the Lithians favor a program of education and effort to secure the extension of our sidewalk system." A motion to enlarge the membership to fifty was made and reports of the past year's work were given by different members. The announcement that all of the members have their regulation suits was also made, and the committee on regalia instructed to get hats to match.

Harry Silver left Tuesday morning for Portland where he will spend a few days on business concerning the Pompadour Lithia Springs, of which he is the owner.

H. A. Wagner of Ashland left Wednesday for southern California, where he will visit with friends and relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Roy Hargrave, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Wm. Myers, for the past few weeks, returned Tuesday for her home in Montana. Lawrence Wolfe of Vancouver, Wn. stopped in Ashland at the home of R. E. Detrick, Tuesday, on his way to his home from southern California. Louis Schevlin, who has been ill at his home on Church street for about a month, is reported to be in quite a critical condition.

Mrs. Pomeroy of Fort Klamath is visiting her mother, Mrs. Norris on Granite street for a few days.

A. S. Rosenbaum, freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific and F. O. Frohlich, secretary of the Medford chamber of commerce were in Ashland Tuesday attending the Ashland chamber of commerce forum luncheon.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Mrs. Cecil (Babe) Cantor, who was assisting in the work in the Sunnyside hotel during the time that the hostess and daughters were on their vacation in the northern part of this state and Washington, went home on Tuesday, Jan. 15, to get ready to start for Nevada with her brother, W. R. Edger, to be housekeeper for him during the time that his wife is being treated in Medford by one of the specialists in that city.

In my rounds last Tuesday morning I met our popular school clerk, J. L. Linn and he seems to be considerably elated over the present conditions as well as the future prospects for our school, notwithstanding the expense of the addition of another room, the high school department, under the management of the present board of directors the expenses of the present year have been cut about $600, less than during the years 1922 and 1923, a reduction of about two mills, and still a fine flourishing school, and it is increasing in numbers and interest.

I just learned from Alex Vestal that his nephew, one of Wilford Jack's sons, recently has joined the list of pupils from the adjoining districts on account of the branches he wishes to study are not taught in the Reese creek school, and I understand that a strong effort is to be made this coming spring to have an arrangement made so that the pupils who have or may pass the eighth grade during the present school year can be brought here to school and thus give them the advantage of a good high school with but very little extra expense, and save the pupils the necessity of being exposed to the temptations of the larger towns or cities.

I also met Roy Davis, formerly of Derby but now of this neighborhood. Marsh Garrett and wife of Medford who owns two or more stock farms and quite a lot of stock, were also business callers Wednesday, the same day I also met Mrs. Ben Kingery of Wellen.

C. H. Natwick was also here for a few days strengthening up his affairs, getting ready to finish his contracts on the Eagle Point-Big Butte canal and the laterals.

Chester Russell and wife, who have been living with his brother in the Morgan house, started last Wednesday in a large truck for The Dalles. He did not object to our country or climate, but there were other reasons for their moving.

R. A. Petty, one of our farmers and poultry men was in town Thursday trading with our popular merchants known as the Brown Bros. They seem to be quite busy and are doing quite a business. Altho I seldom report from that quarter as it is a long walk beyond the postoffice, for me to walk, but Charley Humphrey, the man who has been hauling for the stores of our town says that he does about as much if not more hauling for them as anyone else. I also met J. L. Robertson, our retired farmer, for he says that he has turned the farming over to the boys, but still he does the brain work and sees that everything is kept up and going on all right. I also met three young men but did not learn their names. They had just come in from working on one of the siphons on the Eagle Point canal and reported that the work was stopped for a while on account of the inclemency of the weather.

Charley Manning of Flounee Rock district, and E. Peter of Medford and Jack Mayham were here for dinner the same day.

Rev. L. L. Simmons and a part of his family were here visiting Mrs. Simmons' father, D. A. Scheibley on their way to Los Angeles to visit a married daughter from Washington where he has been preaching for several years but has had to give up the work on account of his eyes falling him. Rev. Simmons was the pastor of the Baptist church here for about four years, but concluded that he could do better in Washington than he was doing here, but he seemed to talk as though he might locate here again as he has a small place of his own here just outside the corporation, and if he should decide to locate here again his many friends would give him a cordial greeting.

W. C. Clements' son postmaster, was notified that his brother-in-law, who was taken sick in Los Angeles had died and he started immediately to meet and console his sister, and make the necessary arrangements to have the body taken back to his former home for interment. I have not learned yet whether it was necessary for Mr. Clements to go east with the body as I have not seen Mrs. Clements since Saturday afternoon and she had not heard from him at that time as he would not reach there until that evening.

R. E. Wright of Klamath Falls, and R. E. Becker of Eugene, two salesmen were here for dinner Friday.

P. J. McPherson reports that Friday J. M. King and Frank Castor of Beeson creek, Mrs. Thomas Abbott, of Lake creek, Alex. Anderson, H. W. Ward and H. W. Hudson were patronizing his store, and that his sister, Mrs. W. G. McPherson of Portland was there visiting him.

LA FOLLETTE WILL INSIST ON CUT IN FIGHT RATES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Holding its first meeting the senate inter-state commerce committee unanimously approved today the nominations of two members of the inter-state commerce commission and three members of the railroad labor board. The inter-state commerce commissioners whose nominations were approved are Frank McManamy and Mark W. Potter, while the members of the railroad labor board are E. F. Grable of Michigan, Horace Baker of Ohio, and Edwin P. Morrow, former governor of Kentucky.

Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, leader of the republican insurgents, who already has introduced bills calling for sweeping changes in the methods of basing freight rates, introduced today a resolution under which congress would order rates on farm products and implements reduced to substantially pre-war levels.

The resolution cites that the secretary of agriculture has reported that in the fifteen wheat states 693,000 farmers or 26 per cent of all, are virtually bankrupt.

REBELS CLAIM A BIG VICTORY IN CERRO OIL REGION

VERA CRUZ, Via Radio to Port Arthur, Texas, Jan. 16.—(By Associated Press). A long and bloody battle in the oil district of Cerro Azul resulted in victory for the revolutionists according to information from General Jose Moran, chief of the De La Huertista forces. The report said that the federal garrison under command of Colonel Benjamin Silva was dispersed and the town occupied by the revolutionists. About 300 prisoners were taken. Colonel Silva escaped. Announcement was made that the De La Huerta forces had started toward Campeche, held by Colonel Pablo Hernandez, a federal officer.

The battle for possession of Villa Hermosa, in Tabasco, continued unabated yesterday, the latest reports to the rebels' headquarters said. The federalists were resisting strenuously but the revolutionists said they expected to win.

TAMPICO, Mexico, Jan. 16.—The Spanish liner Cristobal Colon, which was sent to Vera Cruz to embark foreigners who were stranded in that city when the revolution broke out, has arrived here with about 500 passengers. The refugees, most of whom lacked means to leave Vera Cruz, are of French and Spanish nationality. They reported that Vera Cruz was tranquil.

Rebel vessels which have been hovering off Tampico steamed for Vera Cruz. A dispatch from Vera Cruz last night said that De La Huerta, leader of the rebellion, had ordered a blockade of Tampico, effective Wednesday. The decree gives all merchant ships desiring to enter the harbor three days in which to do so, beginning Wednesday, while all ships desiring to leave the port will have six days to clear. Thereafter all shipping, the order said, will be classed an enemy craft.

A Message to Owners Of New Automobiles

Many new car owners, with cars varying in age from four to eight months, have come to our shop with the idea in mind of having their cars varnished and have been amazed to find that parts of the surface have perished so that the car would not take a varnish.

They immediately place the blame on the automobile dealer, who sold them the car and who is not at fault. He cannot be responsible for the fact that varnish does not last as long as it is used to.

The secret of keeping a new car looking well is to varnish it in time. Some surfaces last ten months, some only four. Consult a reliable automobile paint shop—one whose chief aim is to build good will by treating you right. One job more or less does not make such a tremendous difference to a firm of that type. One dissatisfied customer does. If you have let the painted surface go so that it is necessary to have a paint job, be sure and see
