ED ANDREWS AIDS HIGH SCHOOL PLAY TO BE GIVEN FEB. 8

Tickets for the high school operetta "In the Garden of the Shah," to be produced at the armory on Friday, Feb. 8, will be placed on sale at Crowson's at noon on Wednesday, and will be sold there each afternoon, beginning each day at 12 o'clock. Reserved seats are $1 and 75c, general admission 50c. Any general admission ticket may be converted by paying the difference between 50c and the price of the reserved seat desired.

Posters advertising the operetta have appeared about town, and it is expected that every loyal supporter of the high school will be in the audience on Friday night. By so doing they will not only show their loyalty to the school, but will enjoy a production of high merit. The high school has never asked Medford audiences to attend performances simply because the students give them, but have always given full return. "In the Garden of the Shah" is no exception. Those who have seen rehearsals and who are in a position to speak critically, state that it is the cleverest and most finished production the school has ever put on.

The cast was benefited last week by having present Ed Andrews at a rehearsal. Mr. Andrews later in the week addressed the entire student body on the mechanics of acting.

MRS. SANDEFER PASSES AWAY AT LOCAL HOSPITAL

Alta May Sandefer, wife of S. B. Sandefer, well known prohibition enforcement officer of Jackson county, passed away at a local hospital at 9:40 Sunday evening.

Mrs. Sandefer was born in Moravia county, Ohio, August 15, 1876, and was aged 47 years, five months, 15 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandefer were residents of Portland before coming to Medford about two and one-half years ago.

Decceased was a member of the local W. C. T. U. and also of the Royal Neighbors of Woodcraft.

Besides her bereaved husband, she leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Baker of Springfield, Oregon, also six sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Pearl Graham and Mrs. Ethel Wakley of Portland; Ruby Paris, Marcola, Ore.; Mrs. Junia McPherson and Mrs. Mary Stephens of Springfield, Ore.; Mrs. Nellie Cooper, Kalamazoo, Wash.; Riley Baker, Newhall, Calif.; Sinclair Baker, of Portland.

The father and mother were at her bedside when the end came.

The funeral services will be held at the Conger chapel at 2 p. m. Thursday, Rev. J. R. Sammet officiating. Interment in L. O. O. F. cemetery.
