

VANDERLIP NOT TO BE QUESTIONED UNTIL TOMORROW

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The oil committee decided today that Frank A. Vanderlip would not be questioned until tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—With Frank A. Vanderlip waiting to explain his recent references to the sale of President Harding's Marion Star, the senate oil committee today put on the stand Oscar Sutor, counsel for the Standard Oil company of California, and questioned him about his company's refusal to bid on one of the Full lenses.

Mr. Vanderlip arrived at the committee room a few minutes before the committee met. Chairman Leavitt said he would be called during the day and questioned at length about his circulation of reports about the sale of the Star.

The chairman also put into the committee record this telegram from one of the purchasers of the Star:

"Roy D. Moore and I will be in Washington Friday and request that either or both of us be permitted to tell the senate oil investigating committee what we know relative to the purchase of Mr. Harding's paper. Arrive five o'clock Thursday afternoon."

The committee apparently had reached no decision whether to recall E. L. Doherty and ask him whether he ever attempted to employ Hainbridge Colby, former secretary of state and for a time law partner of President Wilson. Committee members have been asked to put that question to Mr. Doherty, whose attorney, Frank J. Hogan, today issued this statement:

"Neither Mr. Colby nor any law firm with which he was connected was ever retained by or employed by Mr. Doherty or any company in which he was interested at any time, before, or since he was a member of President Wilson's cabinet. Nor did Mr. Doherty at any time offer to retain or employ Mr. Colby in any matter whatsoever."

DECLARES PRICE OF MARION STAR O. K.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Feb. 14.—Ernest L. Owen, manager of the Poughkeepsie Evening Star and Enterprise, in a telegram today to George B. Christian, Jr., who was secretary to President Harding, said:

"On September 22, 1922, I offered President Harding $250,000 for Marion Star. Have all correspondence which was carried on through my agent, John Griffiths of Poughkeepsie."

"In file of late president you may find copies of correspondence containing original offer."

"I think that my offer was the basis of Brush's purchase price" and the paper was well worth it."

Mr. Owen formerly lived in Marion.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over RHEUMATISM

Has Also Proven Remarkably Successful in Severe Cases of Rheumatic Neuritis.

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allen's, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed Heath's Drug Store and West Side Pharmacy to dispense Allen's with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment. Mail orders accepted. Adv.

GRANTS PASS GETS LICENSE MONEY RETURNED TO GRAY

GRANTS PASS, Feb. 14.—After many columns of adverse publicity for Grants Pass and southern Oregon had resulted from the act of traffic officers in forcing L. H. Gray, of Seattle, to purchase an Oregon license while traveling thru the state, the $34 paid for the license was returned to Mr. Gray by Sam H. Koser, secretary of state. A large amount of correspondence was entered into between Mr. Gray and the traffic department and between the chamber of commerce here and the department. An investigation into the affair was made by the traffic department, thru T. A. Rafferty, chief of the traffic division. Several conflicting reports were made.

The matter was taken up by the Grants Pass chamber of commerce on the morning after the incident occurred. The trend of the argument was that the matter would result in a large amount of unfavorable publicity for the state, which is just now entering into an extensive advertising campaign. The whole thing arose over the fact that Mr. Gray was forced to buy an Oregon license, having been apprehended here by Officers J. J. McMahon and G. Max Flannery. He was traveling with a 1923 Washington license and according to Mr. Gray's story, he offered to show proof that he had ordered a new Washington license. The officers, on the other hand, maintain that Gray did not and could not show evidence of having sent for his new license plates. All parties were agreed, however, that Mr. Gray's car was held in a local garage until the Oregon license was applied for.

The effect that such incidents have is seen in the following paragraph taken from a letter written by Mr. Gray: "I am financially interested in several concerns in Oregon. One in particular that will probably spend several hundred thousand dollars and unless this small sum of $34 is returned to me, I will commence to take the necessary steps to withdraw all my interests from Oregon and request other concerns and individuals to do likewise." Mr. Gray has cooled down considerably now and states that he does not hold any revengeful thoughts against the state.

JAP EXCLUSION BILL NOT BEATEN YET SAYS JOHNSON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Objections of Secretary Hughes to the Johnson immigration bill, particularly with regard to provisions which practically would exclude Japanese from the United States will be considered tomorrow at a meeting of the house immigration committee. Chairman Johnson declined to comment on the protest of Mr. Hughes beyond reiterating the prediction that the committee would not be disposed to back down on its stand against Japanese immigration. He did, however, issue a formal statement in which he charged that "professional leaders of foreign blocs, aided by paid leaders of other groups, who would benefit from the continued arrival of aliens are now boldly proclaiming that they have beaten the proposal for restrictive immigration legislation this year."

"They are glomming too soon," said Mr. Johnson.

SUBPOENA M'LEAN FROM PALM BEACH

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—A subpoena for Edward B. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post, was issued today by the senate oil committee.

The immediate presence here of the publisher will be required.

Mr. McLean, who is at Palm Beach, was examined in Florida more than a month ago regarding his statement that he had loaned former Secretary Fall $100,000, but it is understood the committee now desires to question him about a wholly different matter. Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, said the committee desired to question Mr. McLean as to the reports that a $1,000,000 "slush fund" had been sent to Washington by New York financiers.

Senator Walsh said the publisher also would be examined further about his testimony in Florida that he gave Fall checks for $100,000, but that they were returned to him uncashed.

STUDY METHODS OF CALIFORNIA GROWERS

FRESNO, Cal., Feb. 14.—Studying co-operative methods used by organization of California farmers, a commission of five members representing fruit growers of the Pacific Northwest, conferred here today with officials of the Sun-Maid Raisin Growers, California Peach and Fig Growers, California Olive Growers and the local branch of the California Fruit Exchange.

F. H. Moses of Cashmere, Wash., chairman of the commission, said that the move in California to secure cooperation in the marketing of fresh fruit is being closely followed in the northwest.

French Heels? "Never!" Says Girl Owner Of Most Perfect Feet In America

MISS SMITH (RIGHT) DISPLAYING THE PERFECT ARCH THAT WON HER THE TITLE OF OWNING "MOST PERFECT AMERICAN FOOT."

NEW YORK.—The most perfect foot in America is owned by Miss Effie Smith, of this city. Dr. William M. Scholl, specialist in foot troubles, who has acted as judge in more national contests than Rudolph Valentino, declares Miss Smith's strong, delicately arched foot to be anatomically perfect. "It surpasses any of the prize-winners I have ever seen, and I have selected many," says Dr. Scholl. "As in a case of physical perfection of any kind, Miss Smith's foot has at once strength as well as grace."

The young woman, who is an office worker, says she frequently dances until the wee small hours, but never when her feet are tired. High heels? Never!

Scenic Spots of Southern Oregon Given Hearty Boost by Los Angeles Paper

It's not too early to begin thinking about that summer vacation trip with Lizzie or Limousine, as the case may be. The supposition is that Angelinos have seen about all the wonder spots in Southern California. But, after all, have they?

Here is an Oregon man, a booster for his own state, who has been spending the winter in and around Los Angeles. What he thinks about it is shown briefly in a letter he writes to The Evening Herald, as follows:

"We came down last fall and have been all over the Southland from Santa Barbara to Mexico, and then back via Escondido, Temecula, Elsinore and Riverside to Los Angeles. Any one who falls to make this inland trip will never realize what has been missed. I would not begrudge $1000 for this wonderful drive. We have also covered 90 per cent of all the beautiful outside towns in Southern California and have been around San Pedro mountain from Redondo to the harbor, the latter a wonderful trip. Then we have been up Topanga canyon and visited all the towns in the San Fernando valley, Rainbow valley and other similar sections."

Here is a man who has got out to get everything Southern California has to give, and he has come very near doing it. Many of our own citizens might well take a leaf from his book. However, that is not what we started out to say.

The summer vacation season will be on us before long and it is not too early to give some thought to the plans for the annual outing.

On the new Pacific avenue, Angelinos have a clear road from San Diego to Vancouver, all well paved and marked so that one need never lose the way. Over the Tejon pass and on through Bakerfield, with the great Kern oil fields near at hand, one may detour to Tulare Lake on the one hand or the Sequoia National Park on the other. From Merced or Modesto the Yosemite National Park is within easy access. From Sacramento another detour will bring one to Lake Tahoe.

Returning to the main avenue, at Red Bluff one can turn aside for a view of Lassen National Park, with the only active volcano in the United States. Passing through Yreka, the Klamath river is soon crossed and shortly thereafter Oregon is entered—also rich in natural beauty.

From Medford, Ore., a side trip can be made to Crater Lake and, if time permits on to Klamath Falls, near which are the Klamath Indian reservation, extensive lava beds and a huge irrigation system. At Grants Pass the elevation is considerable, with snowcapped peaks scattered all around even in the summer time. In the vicinity, too, are the famous Oregon Caves, well worth a visit, where can be found accommodations for travelers.

Continuing northward, Portland is reached just before passing over into Washington. Here new beauties greet the eye, as the highway follows the Columbia river for awhile and then turns inland. A detour will make possible a visit to Tootie lake, an another will enable the tourist to see Mount Rainier and the park in which it stands.

Shortly before arriving in Tacoma, the avenue comes to Puget sound, and this great body of water is skirted through Seattle, Everett and Bellingham, near the latter being Mirror lake and Blue canyon. At Blaine the passage is made into British Columbia and soon the end of the trail is reached at Vancouver.

This northward tour is well worth while to any one who can take the time to make it. Only a few of the sights along the way have been here mentioned. The tourist will find hundreds of other places which will delight the eye, soothe the tired senses and rejuvenate the body for another year of labor in the great city.

Camping places are available by stream and in forest, with plenty of accommodations along the way for the one who craves some of the comforts of home and is timid as regards the experience of "roughing it."

Whatever be the taste in these matters, it is amply met and the traversal of the entire United States from Mexico to Canada along the great highway—"Pacific avenue"—will be an experience never forgotten. It will enlarge the vision, help in binding by ties of friendship the three great nations of Mexico, United States and Canada, and will be a revelation as to the abundance of natural gifts which are scattered about this western territory.

When planning your vacation trip, then, don't overlook this tour along the "Avenue of Peace."
