

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE ROGUE RIVER VALLEY

BASKETBALL NOW HOLDS INTEREST IN CENTRAL POINT

CENTRAL POINT, Feb. 15.—The Central Point basketball team will play the Rogue River teams tonight upon the home floor. There will be three games played, by the Alumni team, first high school and second team, commencing at 7:30. Last Friday evening the high school and grade quints played the respective teams of Gold Hill at Gold Hill. The latter game was played first. Central Point was the victor by a score of 19 to 10. However the high school score was very much closer, at the end of the first half the score stood at 10 to nothing. Even the Central Point was in the lead by ten points, Gold Hill managed to tie the score and at the end of the game the score was 19 to 20 in favor of the home team.

Dr. Chas. C. Jesse delivered an address on "The Fall of Booe and the Reign of Law," in the Christian church last evening under the auspices of the "Flying Squadron." An appreciative audience was present to hear the speaker expound his points. Mrs. Jamieson, dean of women at O. A. C. presented a short talk, "The Value of an Education," to the student body of the high school Monday afternoon. She stressed her points upon the poem written by Van Dyke, quite appropriate. She also announced the educational exposition to be held there during the coming week, and extended a cordial invitation to the high school to send five delegates to represent the school there.

The Central Point town basketball team will meet the Gold Hill team next Saturday night, a return game. Last Wednesday evening they played the National Guard team of Medford. They possess a formidable team consisting of Messrs. H. P. Jovett, Kincaid, C. Richmond, J. Ross, L. Cash, Moore Hamilton and A. L. Lynch. All are excellent players, and are determined to make the season a success.

The Damon Cafe, leading cafe of the city, anticipating the extra heavy trade that will soon come with the coming of spring, have added much more equipment. The management of the establishment are contemplating installing booths upwards to the number of a dozen. With these installed the cafe can much easier attend to the wants of the populace and especially to their many regular customers. With the continuance of their policy of good service and quality they will easily attain the extreme heights of success in the business world.

Once more the grim reaper, Death, has entered the home of one of the highly respected families of Central Point. On the morning of Feb. 7th at 11 A. M., Mrs. Maggie Bowman was called to rest forevermore, never again to sense the pain of her mortal suffering. For nearly six months she had valiantly tried to overthrow the cause of her suffering and yet patiently did she await the inevitable. The kind dear lady was born across the sea in Holland in the year 1870 and upon the day Nov. 5, 53 years three months ago. When but four years of age, her parents came to the United States and made their home at Lincoln, Neb. In 1894 she wedded J. H. Bowman and to this union there were born eight children, of which six were boys and the others girls, all stalwart young men and women, reflecting the patient care of their dear loving mother. But she now goes from their mortal eyes she will live on forever treasured in the memories of those who loved her and were her once beloved. Altho only recently she came to live in Central Point, perhaps nine months ago, not only a few friends did she make but many who came often to her bedside giving comforting words thru the hours and days of her suffering; and who will ever remember her as a patient woman ever waiting for that which should be for the better or for the worse. Last Sunday the funeral was held at the Union church in the presence of her many friends. After the services which were in charge of Rev. Lanegar of Ashland the body was laid in its last resting place in the Central Point cemetery. She leaves to mourn her loss Curtis and Noble Bowman of Portland, Mrs. Lenz of Sacramento, John, Wallace, Raymond, Wayne and Grace Bowman of this city, her husband, J. H. Bowman and sister Mrs. Spradford of Kansas, who has been at her bedside and loyally only as a sister could, for the past three months. All were present at the last solemn rites except Mrs. Lenz of Sacramento, who was unable to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Seaborn returned from their business trip which necessitated their going to San Francisco and other busy points. Miss Letha Casbeer, popular student of the high school, is now lying ill in a Medford hospital recovering from three operations which were performed upon her last Monday. Her many friends are extremely sorry of her misfortune and hope that she will recover thoroughly from her ailments.

State Superintendent of Schools Churchill was a visitor in the Central Point schools Wednesday. He was accompanied by County Superintendent Susanne Holmes Carter.

Bertram C. Rostel and George A. Myers were weekend visitors in Klamath county points, being in Klamath Falls, Merrill and Malin. The young men report the roads to be quite good for this time of the year.

Mrs. Mattie Parker returned from Portland after three months visit with relatives in the northern part of the state.

It is reported that Miss Nora Williams, well known young lady in Central Point was married to Henry Dingel at Yreka the first part of the week. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Williams and has resided in the city practically all her life. She attended the schools until about a year ago when a senior. Mr. and Mrs. Dingel are at present making their home in Medford. Their many friends sincerely hope and expect that happiness will ever be theirs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ingram of this city were among the Central Pointers present at a social gathering and dance at Gauls creek Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Ingram are the members that compose the orchestra which play at the dances in the Central Point building. The next dance given there will be Saturday evening.

Messrs. Altony, Morris and Richard Grey of Gold Hill were visitors in Central Point Wednesday forenoon.

Robert Holmes, traveling passenger agent of the S. P., with headquarters at Salem was a visitor at the home of his cousin, Mrs. M. P. Holmes, last Sunday. He returned to his duties Monday.

The F and E theatre will feature Thomas Meighan in a Paramount picture, "Homeward Bound," Sunday and Monday in conjunction with the country store Monday night.

The annual meeting of the Jackson County Health association will be held at St. Mark's parish house, Feb. 20th. A luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock followed by a report of work done during the year, and addresses by Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar, Mrs. Blakely and Dr. Stella Ford Warner. Many people of Central Point and vicinity have shown so much interest in this work that it is hoped a number will be able to attend this meeting.

VALENTINE PARTY AT CIVIC CLUB HOUSE, ASHLAND

ASHLAND, Feb. 15.—The Civic club gave a very charming Valentine party at the Civic Club house Thursday evening. This was in the form of a dinner, with a short program and dancing afterward. A very delightful dinner consisting of meat pie, macaroni, coffee and pie. The party was given in order to raise money for some repair work that is necessary in the building, and also for beautifying the grounds and adding some new shrubs this spring. After the dinner the audience was delighted by a beautiful vocal solo sung by Mrs. Rush Henry, accompanied by Miss Leona Marsters. Miss Marsters played a charming piano solo, with "The Three Bears" as an encore. Six girls dressed in white, with red hearts for aprons, and little head dresses made of hearts, served the meal. The hostesses were also decorated with hearts, each one having one in her hair. After the program, the tables and chairs were cleared away and the evening was spent in dancing, with card tables for all who wished to play cards. About $27.75 was raised by the affair, which helps quite a bit in the work which the Civic club is planning to do during the spring. Hostesses for the evening were: Mesdames H. K. Tomlinson, president of the club, Mrs. Will Dodge, corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. H. McGee, Mrs. E. McGee, Mrs. Eubanks, Mrs. Maxey, Mrs. MacCracken and Mrs. Shull.

It is reported that the Southern Pacific will erect a new machine shop in the near future at Ashland. This will be quite a large shop, and will employ about 35 men. They are now waiting for the material to come before going ahead with the work. The present round house will also be enlarged, in order to cover the six new pits that have recently been completed. This work is to go forward at once.

The Elks' Ladies' club met at the club rooms on Thursday, Mrs. Jack Dunn and Mrs. Judd Miller acting as hostesses. Mrs. Domino Provost was the high score at bridge. The hostesses served delicious refreshments consisting of fruit salad, coffee and wafers. At the close of the card playing a business meeting was held to complete plans for the Leap Year party to be given by the club. It was decided to hold a combination dance and card party, using the ladies' club room on the lower floor for cards for the benefit of those who do not care to dance. The necessary committees to handle both affairs were appointed by the president, Mrs. George Kramer. The proceeds from this affair will be used towards purchasing pictures for the ladies room.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church observed Lincoln's birthday last Tuesday. There was a very large attendance, over one hundred women being present, in response to the unique invitations which were sent out. A very fine program was given, consisting of some numbers of patriotic music and some negro melodies. A very interesting pageant was one of the main features of the afternoon. The ladies gave a great deal of time and work to make an interesting afternoon, and they were well rewarded for their efforts. An offering was taken up at the close of the meeting, which resulted in $70 for use in their missionary work.

Miss Elaine Todd and Mr. Joseph Davis were married in Medford recently. Miss Todd is a very well known girl in Ashland, as she has attended the Ashland high and has been teaching at the Green Spring school for the past year. Although she has stayed in Ashland, her home is in Tillamook. She attended the University of Oregon recently. Mr. Davis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Davis, who live on a ranch on the Green Spring mountain. The couple will live in Ashland.

A very charming party was given at the home of Mrs. C. C. Crowson Wednesday afternoon. This was a Valentine party, with appropriate decorations. The afternoon was spent in making unique purses from old rubber tubes. Some of the ladies had had the benefit of instruction from a woman from O. A. C., who was here recently for the purpose of helping some of the out-of-town districts. Some very beautiful bags were made. Very delightful refreshments consisting of cake, decorated with hearts, jelly in the form of hearts, sandwiches, fruit salad and coffee. The table was beautifully decorated with small hearts as place cards, ribbon streamers running to the table from the light, which was adorned with a tasteful red shade. A large centerpiece was on the table, giving the whole a very charming effect.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Carson left Thursday morning for Los Angeles, where Mr. Carson will attend the Lumbermen's convention which will be held there soon. They made the trip by auto and expect to stop at quite a few places both coming and going to visit friends and relatives. They will be away for several weeks.

SENATOR FALL'S RANCH FOREMAN APPEARS BEFORE SENATE

J.T. Johnson, ranch foreman for ex-Secretary of Interior Fall, at Three Rivers, New Mexico, who testified before the special Senate Committee investigating the Teapot Dome oil lease. Mr. Johnson's name has been mentioned during the investigation as having received the check from the Sinclair Oil interests.

BLOSSOM MINE ON SARDINE CREEK SOLD TO COMPANY

SARDINE CREEK, Feb. 15.—What is known as the Blossom mine, consisting of a group of claims covering about 160 acres on the left fork of the creek, and which was owned and developed by Geo. Huff of Gold Hill, has recently changed hands. It has been purchased by the Wilvan Mining Co., who have held the Blossom under lease for about two years.

L. R. Vandebogart, manager and Lewis Frates, president of the company are here actively engaged in getting the mine ready for operation. They plan to install a mill for reduction of the ore and there are several tons of ore on the dump now. This is one of several good producing mines on this creek which may be profitably operated when the prospective Gold Hill smelter is built so the ore can be handled at a fair profit.

Ted Bevis, who is working on W. L. Van Houten's place has an unusually large smile on his face the past week, owing to the fact of the stork leaving a fine 10 lb. boy at his home in Gold Hill recently. Ted is fixing up his house preparing to move his family up here, as soon as the young man is able to help his dad out wood.

Al Kennier, accompanied by Geo. Briggs, made a business trip to Alturas, Calif., last week.

Wm. Bozette and Mr. Clipper, both of Cleveland, Ohio, were Friday visitors at the home of the former's cousin, Mrs. E. C. Fiene. They are making a tour of the western states, having been thru California and returning by way of Portland. They were very much pleased with this locality and regretted that their time was limited so they only had one day to spend here, but vowed they would return some day.

Chas. Herman moved his planer up from Gold Hill Tuesday, where Frank Childers has been putting it in first class shape; and will soon have it ready to run.

Among Medford visitors from here this week were John Smith, Fred McFarland, Mrs. J. U. Smith and S. A. Dusenberry.

Mrs. John Hittler visited with her sister, Mrs. M. A. Dusenberry and son Arthur were week end visitors in Central Point last Saturday.

The dance in the community hall at Sardine creek last Saturday was a decided success. A large crowd of about a hundred were present, several coming from as far as Medford. A three piece orchestra furnished good music. Smith Bros. of Sardine creek conducted everything in a very pleasant and orderly manner, and everybody had a good time.

Miss Wilda Richmond is recovering from the measles and hopes to be back in school next week.

H. A. DuBouque left Wednesday evening for Alliance, Neb., his old home town, on a business trip. He will be gone for a week or ten days.

Miss Clara Anderson, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Medford hospital, the first of last week, is making a very satisfactory recovery. She will be at home in another week.

Miss Anderson is a senior in high school and hopes to regain her strength in time to graduate with her class.

Mrs. H. H. Clarke entertained at a one o'clock luncheon last Thursday, for a party of Medford ladies. Places were laid for nine.

The W. K. Parker family were guests at the Clyde Richmond home last Saturday evening and enjoyed a fine radio concert.

The little son of Edwin Boardman was seriously ill last week. Dr. Stearns was called and soon gave the little fellow relief.

Elmer Feldenhelmer and a friend motored down from Portland last Thursday and spent a few days at his orchard here.

The ladies of the Tolo Community club are giving a supper at the Tolo school house Saturday evening, February 16th, at 6:30. Supper to be followed by a program and the raffling of a handsome log cabin quilt that the ladies have just completed. They have kindly extended an invitation to the Willow Springs people to join them.

The supper and program are free and everybody should take a chance on the quilt as winter isn't over yet.

Orchard work in this vicinity is progressing finely and the orchard owners are in hopes of raising another big crop, which will be of great benefit to the commission men and railroads.

The new block signal system that has just been installed by the S. P. is now in working order.

BUTTE FALLS

E. D. Thompson of Wimer has been visiting J. J. Smerville the past week. He is an old resident of Wimer.

known to your correspondent for the past 18 years. It is his first visit to Butte Falls and although flying a few silver threads is not yet married.

Measles have visited us but they had to be brought here. Ada Dunlap has been sick with pneumonia but is recovering. No one can stay sick long in Butte Falls.

There is considerable interest in the proposed road from Medford to Ruch. There appears to be no justification for such an expense when the county funds are exhausted. Many signed the petition who would not have done so but for a misconception.

Violet Zimmerman left on Tuesday for Los Angeles where she has a sister living. She will continue her school studies there.

The new postmaster has not as yet been notified of the appointment.

Mr. Thompson says he will come back again to Butte Falls to live as soon as we get the railroad.

The hotel has been bought by C. H. Page and will be run as a rooming house while the Dew Drop Inn serves meals in the same block.

The Grigsby house on the corner opposite the school house is about to change hands. It was bought twelve years ago by Rev. S. L. Grigsby who was Presbyterian evangelist but who now lives in Tulsa, Okla.

Spring is getting here and our citizens are putting their yards and gardens in shape.

Rev. J. W. Angell has been requested to come to Butte Falls as often as weather and roads will permit. When he cannot get thru T. J. Owen will supply his place. This is a model instance of Christian fraternity.

We have been expecting a visit from Rev. C. C. Hulet of Merrill. Like Stephen of old his face shines like an angel's and he will be welcomed by a host of friends.

Our mail comes promptly considering condition of the roads. It is rarely more than thirty minutes after schedule time.

FALL GRAIN IN SAMS VALLEY IS SHOWING UP FINE

SAMS VALLEY, Feb. 15.—The soil has dried sufficiently since the recent heavy rain to allow the farmers to continue their farm work and the hum of tractors is heard on every side.

The fall sown grain is beginning to look much better and the outside pasture lands are quite green with grass. The Pankey school district now have a good Sunday school going with preaching services in the evening.

Our last literary program was well attended and the following numbers were rendered in a pleasing manner: Recitations by Etta Atkinson, Dorothy Straus and Betty Wilson; song, Gene Gulvason and Harval Jones; a one-act play by the primaries; a debate, resolved, that the Indian has been down trodden more than the Negro, by Chas. Fredenburg, Mr. West, Richard Fredenburg and Mr. Zimmerman; paper, by the intermediates, read by Frances Wilson.

Our next literary meeting will be Feb. 29. A debate, resolved, that tractor farming is more economical than team farming will be one of the main features of the program.

Mrs. Jack Davis of Marshfield, who has been visiting friends and relatives thruout the valley was a recent visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. Geo. Gulvason.

Several of our young men are lately employed at the Modoc orchards in Table Rock district.

Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Pelton, who have spent the last several months in Oakland, Calif., were home for a few days last week attending to business matters and returned Saturday back to California where Mr. Pelton is still under a doctor's care. His many friends are very sorry to see him so little improved in health.

Some of our orchardists are taking out a large portion of their fruit trees and will put the ground mostly in other farm products while some are setting pears in place of apples.

Those who have been confined to their rooms with severe colds are now able to be outside and are convalescing rapidly.

May's school, our second high school, teacher returned to school Tuesday after an absence of one day. He has suffered an attack of a bad cold.

Joe Rowe, our genial mail carrier will soon leave for Marshfield to remain indefinitely. He will be substituted on the mail route by Mr. Pierce, convince or money refunded. Sold the bus driver for the Gold Hill by all Druggists.
