

ASHLAND VICTORY OVER FRESHMEN WAS AN EASY ONE

ASHLAND, Feb. 18.—The Ashland high school basketball team played the University of Oregon Fresh at the Armory Saturday night, resulting in a victory of 33-21 for Ashland. This was one of the best games of the season, both in the playing, and the spirit displayed by both teams. The game was a very fast one, and both teams played their best. Although the university men are older and more seasoned men, Ashland was able to win easily from them. The line-up for the Ashland team was as follows: Chapman, center; Butterfield and Hobson, forwards; Caldwell and Woods, guards. The next game will be played at Medford next Friday night, followed by a game with Medford on the local floor Saturday night. There is great interest here in the Medford series.

Mr. Harry Silver, Jr., spent the week-end in Ashland visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Silver of Oak Street.

One of the most important events in the social season occurred Friday night when the Lithians and their wives enjoyed a banquet at the Plaza. About sixty people were there. The regular business meeting was held, and a committee appointed to plan for the visiting and participation in the Rose Festival in Portland this June. A committee was also appointed to arrange stunts for the Chamber of Commerce banquet at the Armory Friday evening. Chief Effervescence V. D. Miller urged all of the members to help make the auto camp an all-year camp. Following the banquet the Lithians and wives were entertained at a reception given by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fuller. A very interesting program was given in which Mr. Gruelle, author of the Raggedy Ann series, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Robertson and Carl Loveland participated. Mr. Gruelle and Mr. Loveland gave several of their original compositions, both vocal and instrumental. They have been working together in music composition for some time and all of their pieces are exceptionally clever. Punch was served during the evening.

The Ashland high school girls' team played Roseburg as a preliminary to the game Saturday night, resulting in a victory of 52-9 for Ashland. This was an easy victory, although the Roseburg girls played a very good and hard game.

A very charming party was given at the home of Mrs. F. G. Swendenburg Friday afternoon. The guests were requested to bring hand work with them, so the afternoon was spent in plying the needle and in visiting. All the close of the afternoon, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were Mesdames E. V. Carter, A. E. Kinney, H. G. Galey, J. H. Turner, Gordon McCracken, T. H. Simpson and the hostess, Mrs. Swendenburg.

A very charming Valentine party was given by Miss Alice Brown and Miss Bernice Flackus at the home of Miss Brown Saturday evening. The house was very appropriately decorated with hearts and valentines and the color scheme of red and white was carried throughout. The announcement of the engagement of Miss Bernice Flackus to Russell R. Elliott, of Ashland, was given by Miss Brown. Miss Alice Brown to Ora W. Callahan, came as a great surprise to the guests. The evening was spent in playing games, with prizes awarded to the fortunate ones and enjoying music which was played by several of the people there. The table was beautifully decorated in red and white valentines and carnations with a little valentine as a place card. These had the names of the guest on the outside and upon opening the announcement of the engagements of the two girls was seen. At the close of the evening very charming refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were Misses Mildred Kaegle, Mabel Trott, Grace Ridler, Violet Wilton, Molly Clary, Etha Abbott, Bertha Borall, Marjorie Gillette, Bessie McMillan, Nellie Hake, Ruth Flackus, Gertrude Brown, Mrs. Nell Walters and the hostesses, Misses Brown and Flackus. Both of these young ladies are prominent of young people of Ashland, as they graduated from the high school here and are now working here. The best of wishes of the community are extended to the couples.

E. N. Butler has recently purchased the E. D. Briggs place on the highway south of Ashland and is fixing the place up so that it will make a very pretty place. He is fixing the grounds at the present time, and plans to renovate the house later on in the season.

Plans are being completed for the Agricultural-Economic conference in Medford Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Many Ashland merchants and farmers and fruitgrowers in the surrounding country are planning to spend the three days in Medford at that time. This conference is similar to the conference held at Corvallis under the auspices of the Oregon Agricultural college, which was given a short time ago. While that conference covered projects treated at this conference will be more directly concerning Jackson county and southern Oregon. A great many very good speakers will be in Medford at that time to address the different assemblies, and the conference is sure to prove a very profitable one from all standpoints. The Ashland men are planning to eat luncheon at the Hotel Medford on Monday and are each planning to take a farmer of the local country to lunch with him.

Dollar A Day Kept Love Away; Husband's Economy Ruled "Torture" By Court

MRS. GENEVIEVE KAISER.

BROOKLYN, N. Y.—Birds-eye maple furniture and cut-class from Woolworth's spoiled her honeymoon "love nest" for Mrs. Genevieve Kaiser, 20 years old, and Supreme Court Justice Benedict agreed that this constituted "mental torture" and annulled the marriage.

"Every morning he put a silver dollar on the breakfast table for me to run the house on that day," related the bride. "For entertainment we went out walking. He put out silver away and bought 10-cent knives and forks to eat with, and when he left in the mornings took out the electric globes so I couldn't burn the lights during the day."

When she had to go to her mother's to get enough to eat, she brought suit, Mrs. Kaiser said.

A radio dramatic company in the studio of KGO, the new General Electric Broadcasting Station, will present four one-act plays before the microphone on Thursday evening, February 28th. Two comedies, a radio phantasy, and a scene from Act II of the drama "Dante and Beatrice" will make up the program. Henry Buttner, violinist, and Richard Buttner, pianist, will play the incidental music for the drama and characteristic numbers between the acts.

Frederick O'Brien, author and lecturer, will talk about "The Islands of the South Sea" on Saturday evening, March 1st, at 8 o'clock. This should prove very interesting, especially to those who have read his delightful stories. Several musical numbers of instrumentalists and combinations of instruments not usually heard are on this program.

Tuesday evening, February 26th, Prof. Leon J. Richardson, director of the extension division of the University of California, will deliver an address, "Education—A Continuous Process." Playing before its first radio audience, the Towler String Quartette will offer compositions of Mozart, Beethoven, Liszt and Haydn. Other musical numbers, including baritone solos by Edward William Johnson, and soprano solos by Claire Uphurst, will be given.

LEGION HEAD ASKS G. O. P. TO STOP IT

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 18.—Charging that the republican party's organization in Washington is sending out news matter to country newspapers stating falsely that there can be no tax reduction if adjusted compensation is paid, John R. Quinn, national commander of the American Legion in a telegram last night to John T. Adams, republican national chairman requested that the practice be discontinued and that the statements be repudiated.

DEFINITE PLANS FOR OLYMPIC TRY- OUTS ANNOUNCED

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Definite plans for tryouts of candidates for the American Olympic track and field team are under way.

Club and unattached candidates will be given preliminary trials in eight sectional tournaments; the army men will qualify in their own meets and the college men in recognized intercollegiate tournaments.

William C. Prout, chairman of the Olympic track and field committee and president of the Amateur Athletic union announced the plans last night. In three preliminary trials the men who will compete for the final trials in the Harvard stadium June 13 and 14, will be picked and from the final trials the men who will compose the team will be chosen.

Dates for two of the sectional tournaments have been selected—that for the eastern section at the Yankee stadium on June 7 and for the Pacific coast at Stanford university on May 17. Other preliminary trials to be held, probably either on May 30 or June 7, follow:

Central, at Chicago, or Detroit.

Mid-Western, at Kansas university stadium, Lawrence, Kas.

Pacific Northwest, at Portland, Ore.

Southern Pacific, at Los Angeles.

CHANCE IMPROVED BY COMISKEY'S TELEGRAM

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 18.—Frank Chance, whose resignation as manager of the Chicago Americans was refused by Charles Comiskey, owner of the team, early today declared that he was feeling "much better" and attributed the cause of his improvement to Mr. Comiskey's telegram refusing to accept his resignation.

"I am daily getting stronger," said Chance. "If I continue to feel as well as I do today, I think I might be able to join the club in a few weeks. However, that will rest with my doctor."

Aerial Policeman to Be Used at Beverley Hills

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 18.—An aerial policeman will patrol the air over the Beverly Hills speedway next Sunday during the running of the 250-mile automobile classic and prevent aviators from flying low over the bowl. This action is being taken at the request of the drivers who said that low flying with the shadows of the planes darting across the boards cause them extreme nervousness.

Boils

THERE is a reason for everything that happens. Common-sense kills misery. Common-sense also stops boils! S. S. S. is the common-sense remedy for boils, because it is built on reason. Scientific authorities admit its power! S. S. S. builds blood-power, it builds red-blood-cells. That is what makes fighting-blood. Fighting-blood destroys impurities. It fights boils. It fights pimples! It fights skin eruptions! It always wins! Mr. V. D. Schaff, 557 15th street, Washington, D. C., writes:

"I tried for years to get relief from a bad case of boils. Everything failed until I took S. S. S. I am now absolutely cured, and it was S. S. S. that did it."

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

ASHLAND SPRINGS BIG SURPRISE OF BASKET B. SEASON

The Ashland high school basketball team, rated as the weak sister of the southern Oregon high school basketball circuit, surprised itself and everybody else Saturday night by coming to the front and center, and handing the University of Oregon Freshmen team the worst defeat of its career, winning 33 to 21. Three new men, heretofore ineligible to play graced the Ashland team, and were largely instrumental in the victory.

The Fresh coach and his star forward, Westerman had some kind of a disagreement, and the latter was yanked out after playing three minutes in the first half. Other second team men were sent in, and at the end of the first half the score was 15 to 15 in favor of Ashland.

In the second half Ashland started to walk all over the visitors, and Westerman, who had been ordered to dress, was rushed from the sidelines to dress and back to the front in an effort to save the game. He played the last ten minutes, but could not stave off defeat.

Medford fans who saw the game, say the Ashland team is a far different aggregation from the one so sadly whipped by Roseburg two weeks ago.

The first of the annual two game series with Medford will be played this week-end, and the contents promise to be hard fought and brilliant affairs with S. T. O. signs out early.
