INTEREST AT WHITE HEAT OVER GAME WITH ASHLAND HI

Southern Oregon basketball fans are paying no more attention this season to that illusive little fellow called "dope." After the game at Ashland last Saturday when the Granite City boys tied the can to the Oregon Frosh, more here cannot rely upon him any more. He's upset for good and all. Just when "dope" announced that the Medford squad had clear sailing for the southern Oregon hoop title and conceded that Ashland didn't have a chance, the Ashland squad defeated a team that had won from Medford high the night before, Ashland now has a strong bid for that title and is coming here Friday night to try to open the Medford-Ashland series with an Ashland victory.

The Medford boys, however, say it can't be done. Not that they're over-confident, but just determined to clinch their claim on basketball laurels for the 1924 season. "Prink" Callison's speedy little proteges have been having some mighty hard practice work lately so that an even more formidable aggregation will face Ashland than the team that battled the Oregon Frosh and Roseburg teams.

Captain Jimmy Allen, speedy little Chastain, Knips, Richstein and the old standby, Clarence Williams are all in fine shape. They are all certain that they can show Ashland's recently much talked of team some of the finer points of basketball and are determined that their southern neighbors will not have an easy game here Friday. Word from Ashland indicates a similar spirit in that city so when the two teams tangle the "fur will fly."

Interest throughout southern Oregon is at the white hot point over the coming series. It is believed that Friday night's crowd at the Medford armory will eclipse any basketball gathering here for many years and the Medford HI student managers are making arrangements for handling a record crowd. Tickets went on sale at Crowns this morning at nine o'clock. A few tickets have been sent from Ashland for the Saturday game in that city and they will also be available.

Although a crowd of people were on hand this morning when the ticket sale opened, there are still seats left, according to Mike Jacobs.

In Memoriam

The Harvard, Ill. Herald in a column and a half eulogy of the late Judge O. H. Gilmore, formerly of Rogue River, Oregon, who died at the home of his son in Chicago recently, says in part:

"Orson Harris Gilmore was born at Norfolk, N. Y., June 17, 1848, and had reached the age of 75 years. At the age of six his parents moved to McHenry county, Ill. He received a common school education and graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor with high honors in 1873. Located in Woodstock, Ill., practiced law, advanced rapidly and in 1876 was elected city attorney, which position he filled four years. In 1882 he was elected judge of the probate and county courts of McHenry county.

"He was called to Washington by President Benjamin Harrison, serving for five and one-half years as an attorney in the pension department. In 1887 he was again elected judge of the county court and served two more terms.

"Further advancement in the courts was prevented because of his personal independence that rendered him out of grace with the political managers, who at that time had much to do with designating who should be supported for the various offices to be filled. Later he moved to Oregon, making his home near Medford until a short time ago when, his wife having departed this life and his own health having become seriously impaired, he returned to Chicago to spend his declining days in the home of his only son, Robert.

"Clean as was his record as a judge, bright as was his record as an attorney-at-law, faithful as was his record as a public servant, it was as an orator that he shone. No political campaign from 1876 up to the time of his departure for the west was complete without his masterful presentation of the issues of the day.

"But his oratorical abilities were not circumscribed by politics, but in his later years he was frequently called upon for addresses, many of them classics, on many occasions and on varied subjects into which he injected the same zeal, the same intelligence and the same oratorical powers that had marked his political utterances."

The late judge was a member of the Presbyterian church, Masons, Odd Fellows and the Veteran Union League. Funeral services were held at Marengo, Ill., February 4. Surviving him is one daughter, Mrs. Harriet E. Thomas of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and one son, Robert H., of Chicago.

Judge Gilmore was active as a member of the republican county central committee from Rogue River, where he lived on a ranch and handled some cases in court but did not practice law actively. Judge and Mrs. Gilmore had a large circle of friends in this county.

$28,751 IN FINES COLLECTED IN 1923 BY TRAFFIC COPS

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 21.—A total of $247,996 patrol miles were covered by the operatives of the state traffic department during 1923, according to the annual report filed today by T. A. Rafferty, chief state traffic inspector, and total activities for the year numbered 25,927.

The regular number of traffic officers for the year was 13, though at times as many as 17 were employed. Other important statistics in the report covering the year's work are: Delinquent automobile license fees collected, $33,429.64; fines imposed as a result of arrests by operatives of the department $28,751.15; value of stolen cars recovered, $16,300; motor vehicle license fees collected from cars registered in other states, and whose owners have established residence in Oregon, $9667.75; total amount of revenue for which credit is claimed by the department, $88,155.52.

Warnings or notice of violation slips to the number of 9586 were issued to motor vehicle operators who were believed violating the law in some minor degree. The total arrests for the year numbered 1576, fewer in number by almost 200 than during the previous year.

During the period from August 1, 1920, when the department became operative, a period of three years and five months, 4135 arrests have been made, 26,322 warnings issued 496,112 patrol miles covered, stolen cars recovered to the value of $38,770, and delinquent license fees collected and fines imposed totaling $179,855.98. It is believed a profit in excess of $50,000 can be shown.

MEDFORDITE GETS N. Y. PAPER DESCRIBING LINCOLN'S DEATH

J. W. Jacobs has received from his mother, Mrs. M. D. Adams, of Gilroy, Calif., a copy of the New York Herald under date of April 15, 1865 containing an account of the assassination of President Lincoln on the evening of the 14th. It also contains a bulletin issued at 7:30 a. m. of the 15th telling of the president's death at 7:22.

The same paper gives detailed accounts of the operation of Grant's and Sherman's armies and of the surrender of Robt. E. Lee.

The paper consists of four pages, 6 columns and is yellow with age. The few advertisements are set in the same type as the news with no display lines at all.

Mr. Jacobs prizes this paper very highly.

HUSBAND SAID WHY NOT TRY IT

Wife Said She Would. Result, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well and Strong

East Hardwick, Vt.—"Last winter I was not able to do any work at all. I had backache, headache, side ache, and was sick all the time for six months. We read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers, and my husband said to me, 'Why don't you try it?' So I said I would, and he went and got me a dozen bottles. It has done me more good than I can ever tell, and my friends say, 'What have you done to yourself? You look so well.' I tell them it is the Vegetable Compound that makes me so well and strong. There is no use to suffer with backache and pains. I will tell every one what it has done for me."

—Mrs. FRED. PRIMO, Route No. 2, East Hardwick, Vermont.

Housewives make a great mistake in allowing themselves to become so ill that it is well-nigh impossible for them to attend to their household duties.

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, 95 out of every 100 report they were benefited by its use. For sale by druggists everywhere.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. Heath's Drug Store and West Side Pharmacy will supply you. Mail orders accepted. Adv.

Avoid "Carbon" Troubles this easy way

DEPOSITS of a carbonaceous residue are made by all motor oils. But they differ vitally in type.

Many oils leave a "carbon" that becomes hard and flinty. It may score cylinders.

It attaches to spark plugs, short circuits the spark and thus causes the motor to "miss."

It accumulates under valves and prevents proper seating. So power is lost.

When it becomes incandescent, it pre-ignites the gas and results in "knocking."

Thus it constantly threatens trouble and because it accumulates rapidly should be removed every 2000 to 4000 miles, which may mean a motor lay-up every two or three months.

But such "carbon" troubles may be eliminated by the use of another kind of motor oil.

For the residue from Aristo Motor Oil is different. It is soft and fluffy, most of it being blown out with the exhaust.

It can not scratch or score cylinders, because it is softer than the metals of which they are made.

Power leaks are prevented by the fact that this soft residue does not lodge under valves.

And you'll almost never find a fouled spark plug where Aristo Oil is used.

Thus the residue itself is of a harmless type. Hard "carbon" accumulates four times faster than does this residue.

So a "carbon"-free motor is yours for thousands of extra miles if you merely select more carefully the motor oil you use.

Thousands of motorists now save the cost of "carbon" removal, more completely protect their cars and enjoy the extra months of uninterrupted use which Aristo Motor Oils permit.

You, too, may obtain these results. Simply drain your crank case, fill with Aristo, and use it un-mixed with any other kind of oil.

Aristo is sold at all first class garages and service stations.

Avoid Motor Oils containing paraffin or asphalt or any other non-lubricating substance. Aristo Motor Oil is refined by the most advanced processes designed to eliminate everything in the crude which has no lubricating value.
