BRINGING UP FATHER

U. S. DIRECTOR OF NOT DISCOURAGED

ST. PAUL. Minn., Feb. 22.—Public support of the "facts as they are," is necessary to defeat the efforts in certain quarters to "create the im-pression that prohibition law en-forcement has broken down," Prohi-bition Commissioner Haynes declared in an address here today before

"Wild Bill" Screened

William S. Hart returns to the screen and is at the Rialto theatre in his new western picture, "Wild Bill Hickok."

The story deals with James Hick known thruout the west as "Wild Bill", who was for many years one of the most conspicuous figures of the frontier. It tells how "Bill" got his name, how he battled against lawlessness and became a terror to all who violated the moral code that prevailed along the western fringe of civili-

Calamity Jane, another celebrated frontier character, loves Bill, but in vain; for the gunfighter secretly loves vain; for the guittigner series jealousy is aroused, and when Bill becomes partly blind, she serves as his shield against his enemies. When McQueen, a ruffian, hears of this, he sees a chance for revenge, but Bill beats him to it in one of the most spectacular gun battles ever thrown on the screen.

The supporting cast includes Ethel
Grey Terry, Kathleen O'Connor, Jack
Gardner, Carl Gerald, James Farley and Nalda Carle.

This delightful program includes Fighting Blood, and Movie Chats.

"The Covered Wagon" which will be disclosed at the Rialto theatre, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 29 and March 1st, and two performances, will be given each day, is a story of Dixie folk treking to the great northwest with "Oh Susanna" shimmering on the banjo and sung lustily by everybody, from the small boy to the grave and bearded elders.

That was probably only a side rea on why the Famous Players-Lasky orporation chose Lois Wilson to play corporation chose Lois Wilson to play the role of Molly Wingate, the fair driver of a prairie schooner and hero-ine of "The Covered Wagon." She was an Alabama girl when she went on the stage, tho it would be quite too much to attribute her whole artistic excellence to the town of her birth. Indeed, Pittsburg deserves a share, for in her early childhood she learned to scamper up and down the hills of the Iron City with an agility that shamed Iron City with an agility that shamed the nimble goat.

in an address here today before a citizenship conference.

Lack of strong public sentiment in some localities in favor of enforcement, said Mr. Haynes, has resulted in almost complete demobolization of citizenship forces until officers, courts, prosecutors and juries have but little, if any, sense of public support.

Such a condition, he added, is a "crying shame and where enforcement is lenst satisfactory this situation is always found."

Commissioner Haynes declared, however, he did not believe the "friends of enforcement are discouraged," but, "on the other hand, it seems to be the enemies of prohibition very largely that are so concerned over the 'failure' as they see it," of enforcement, after a three or four year trial. "It was not expected that enforcement would closely approximate 100 per cent success in three, four ten or twelve years after the adoption of the law. We expected reasonable progress through persistent, calm patient, sincere, application to that of 19,916 cases made by federal agents against violators since last july with 14,731 convictions and nearly three million dollars in fines as indicating progress in enforcement.
