

PADEREWSKI TO PLAY IN MEDFORD ON MARCH 18TH

Owing to the large patronage given Pavlowa it has been possible to induce Steers and Coman, the western agents for most of the big attractions, to give Medford one date of Paderewski, March 18th.

Paderewski has not only won a reputation of being the world's greatest living pianist but has made for himself a place in history as a statesman, sitting with Lloyd George, Woodrow Wilson, Clemenceau and others at the Peace table, where the Versailles treaty was signed at the close of the great war.

The end of hostilities found his native country, Poland, a land divided between neighboring nations, freed from the Russian rule, Poland was anybody's country. Paderewski welded the people together, established a government of which he was made prime minister, and all this work was prompted by patriotic motives.

The Screen

William S. Hart Back to Screen Returning to the screen after an absence of two years, William S. Hart, scored a personal triumph in his new western production, "Wild Bill Hickok" at the Rialto theatre yesterday.

"Wild Bill" Hickok was the quickest "draw" in the west, and in the discharge of his duties as a peace officer in the reconstruction days following the Civil War, he was forced to bring to a premature close the lives of some sixty persons who were foolish enough to want to be bad men.

The Stage

Special Orchestra Tuesday Those ever popular comedians, Kolb and Dill, without whom no theatrical year would be complete, will be the attraction at the Armory on next Tuesday night, February 26th, in a new comedy, "A Big Reward."

Its extreme timeliness of subject naturally has a wide appeal and the screamingly funny manner in which Aaron Hoffman, the author has treated his theme is said to leave a trail of unthought laughter.

Kolk and Dill carry the usual high class company, numbering such well known names in the cast as May Cloy, Ivan Miller, Rose Ludwig, Richard Allan, George Clark and many others.

As usual, Kolb and Dill carry with them their own special orchestra, a symphonic organization under the leadership of Leo Flanders.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hinman of Medford, who came out last week to the Sunnyside to spend a few days, returned to their home Tuesday afternoon.

Among the business callers Monday were Ed Cowdon, one of our prosperous farmers and stock men, who came in to bring in his week's supply of eggs and while he was coming also brought in a ditching machine and large plow they have been using to dig the ditches to be used in distributing the water from the Eagle Point-Butte Falls canal that is now about completed, so far as the digging is concerned, but it will be some time before it will be made ready to be used regularly, as it will have to be "puddled" all along so as to have it hold the water and keep it from wasting. I met William von der Helten the same day, Monday, and he told me that his part of the contract was about filled, and just then F. J. McPherson in whose store I met him, took him away and I did not see him any more. But I was talking with one of the civil engineers employed on the job and in the course of conversation, asked what Mr. von der Helten was going to do with all his machinery that he had had, for he has two steam shovels and a large rock crusher, beside a quantity of other tools, and he said that he was going to move his rock crusher down to near Gold Hill to crush rock for the Southern Pacific railroad company, as he has a contract to supply them with a large lot to use on the track.

Mrs. William Smith, one of the pioneers of this neighborhood, who formerly lived in our town, but now is living with her husband on their farm just outside of Medford on the Crater Lake highway, had an old-fashioned quilting party and invited the following persons, the most of them her old neighbors of Eagle Point: Mrs. F. J. Ayres, Mrs. William Taylor, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Mary Taylor, Mrs. S. E. Howlett and Mrs. Gus Nichols, all of Eagle Point and Mrs. Phipps of Medford and Mrs. John Norris, formerly of Eagle Point, but now of Medford. At noon a bountiful dinner was served, and the day was spent in quilting, interspersed with interesting conversation, and some of those whom I have met since then report that they had the time of their lives, and why shouldn't they, for all of them, with one or two exceptions, are grandmothers and some are great mothers so they would hardly spend their precious time otherwise. The dinner served was fully up-to-date, and it will be a long time before a more agreeable time will be spent by a like number of aged ladies, who have lived as neighbors and warm friends as they, at least, the most of them, have been.

Tuesday morning I met one of our early pioneers of this section, Mr. J. S. Vestal and his son, Artie Vestal of Reese Creek, at the W. L. Childreth blacksmith shop, who was there having some work done, but the job was about completed so they hurried off for home without my spending much time with them. It seems as though, since almost every farmer has an automobile that they have acquired the habit of rushing to town, rushing through their business and leaving for home without taking a thought of the pleasure we used to have in spending a few minutes in social life, and after we have rushed through life, look back and see how foolishly we have spent it.

Earl Ulrich of Prospect, one of our successful farmers and stock raisers, was also in town Tuesday, and so was W. P. Moran of near Trail. Among the guests at the Sunnyside Tuesday for dinner were Miss Lillian M. Roberts, secretary of the Red Cross and Mrs. H. L. Nobilt on business for that organization.

Bert Peachy and family drove in from their home in Ashland, accompanied by his father-in-law, dislikes to have his name put in the papers, but he is one of our prominent business men, a merchant, and is interested in some of the gold mining interests in California, where he has been looking for them for the past several weeks and his friends are glad to see him looking so healthy and happy.

Wm. Cameron of Derby, was a business caller also last Tuesday, and so was Pete Betts and wife, Robert Clarno, C. R. Facy and wife of Trail and W. R. Boyd. Mr. Boyd is one of our new comers who has purchased a tract of land off of the Luke Ryan tract along the Crater Lake highway. They are reported as trading with the Brown Brothers.

Mr. Monia and wife of Brownsboro were also here on business Tuesday. J. E. Reid, representing a wholesale house in Portland and Charles W. Gilbert, representing Marshall Wells Hardware Co., Portland, were here for dinner Wednesday.

I also met L. G. Irwin of Brownsboro, in the McPherson store the same day. Mr. Irwin is the man who now owns one of the old Henry Brown farms that has been improved, cleared up and is now one of the best farms in the section of the county.

W. A. Stewart, one of the early settlers in the valley, but now a resident of Medford, came in and spent the night at the Sunnyside Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Mrs. C. E. Hoyt, our daughter from Fort Klamath, Tuesday and Wednesday, went in to visit Dr. J. J. Emmens and had a surgical operation performed on her nose Wednesday, returning here Thursday, and is getting along nicely.

W. L. Childreth, our blacksmith, as just built a brush burner for John Greb. Sam Courtney, who has been spending a good part of the fall and winter in California, has returned and is engaged painting a house in Medford for Luke Ryan.

TALENT TALK

Saturday evening the Butte Falls boys' and girls' basketball teams were entertained at a 6 o'clock banquet at the school house. Covers were laid for about thirty members of Butte Falls and Talent basketball teams and their coaches. Speeches followed by captains of the teams and their coaches. The tables were beautifully decorated and the banquet ably served by Miss Sabin and her class of girls in domestic science. Immediately following, all went to Phoenix in cars for the Butte Falls-Talent game which was played in the new Phoenix gymnasium.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Golf and Mr. and Mrs. Mayer of the block signal crew are living in apartments in the Boleo home. They recently came from Central Point.

M. E. Ladies' Aid will serve a chicken pie supper in Ames Hall, Feb. 22 from 5 o'clock on at 25c a plate. Mission Circle will hold a sale of baked goods at the Collins store Saturday afternoon. The Community club met yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Collins was rated into membership.

Mrs. Will McIntyre and daughter, Rowena of Grants Pass are spending a few days here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Long. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brown left Monday in their car for a trip to San Francisco and points south. Expect to be gone about a week. Washington's birthday was observed fittingly in our schools Friday. A program will be given in the morning. School dismissed in afternoon.

Miss Betty Brown entertained a company of friends last Monday evening. All enjoyed themselves, candy making and games made the time pass swiftly. Last Friday was visiting day for the teachers of the Talent schools. Misses Ina and Blanche Hubbs, Edith Kubl and Alta Edmiston visited the Washington school in Medford and Miss Sabin, Mrs. Wedding and Principal Evans visited classes in Medford high.

The order for the curtain of the Stage in the auditorium has been placed with the Medford Tent and Awning company and will be in place about the middle of March. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jay Terrill, an infant daughter, Tuesday. A party of students, consisting of Gladys Barton, Ethel Keith, Wayne Holtridge and Willie Oatman, accompanied by Miss Marion Sabin, faculty member, left this morning to attend the O. A. C. conference at Corvallis, Ore., over the week-end. They made the trip in the Holtridge car.

Miss Lucille Holtridge, who is a sophomore at O. A. C., will demonstrate "child care" at the conference of high school students held at O. A. C. this week. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Holtridge.

The degree that a town uses electricity—like the size of its banks—is pretty apt to tell how "live" a town is. It's interesting to note then that the communities we serve have advanced further in the use of electric ranges, washing machines, and other labor-saving equipment—than many of the largest and presumably most advanced cities in the country!

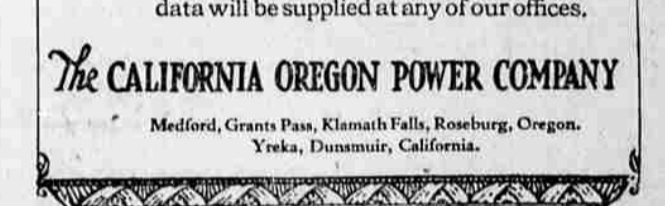

It is a region of "live wires" and of unlimited natural resources and wealth—an up-and-coming one in which to live and grow.

In helping to develop the region this Company sees a real opportunity for service and to that end has created its New Industries Department. The Department is supplying a supplementary Chamber of Commerce type of service to the one California and five Oregon counties within our territory. If you know of anyone whom you believe might come here either to live or take part in our industrial growth, the Department will be glad to help you bring them here.

Or if you are ready to let electricity do the work in your own household, or business—cost information and other data will be supplied at any of our offices.
