SYLVANITE MINE MANAGER GIVES BOOSTERS DINNER

GOLD HILL, Feb. 26.—(Special).—Victor W. Brown, the general manager of the Sylvanite mine at Gold Hill, owned by the Pittsburg-Oregon Mining company, who is financing the mine and smelter project at Gold Hill, gave a banquet to the boosters who have been the principals in bringing the smelter project to its present stage. Mr. Brown, due to illness, was unable to attend the Gold Hill Commercial club meeting and banquet last week and now that he is on the eve of his departure to Pittsburg, Pa., to meet with the board of directors of the mine company in completing the final in the project, he took this means of banqueting and meeting with his supporters to show his appreciation of their efforts.

The spread was prepared by Tom Gillespie of the Gold Hill hotel, who has been instrumental in making so many of the Gold Hill business men's meetings a success. Tom does a little better each time, and he keeps them guessing what is coming next. Those present were Victor W. Brown, M. S. Johnson, P. H. Bell, Wm. H. Miller, H. C. Diers, A. E. Kellogg, Percy M. Johnson, A. S. Rosenbaum, C. L. Swormstedt, O. S. Blanchard, E. G. Trowbridge, Edw. Miller, H. D. Mills, H. L. Walther, Nathan J. Est, P. X. Johnson, Thad P. Wagner, Geo. W. Finch, J. E. Johnson, H. E. Werton, E. Derwent, F. W. Streets, S. E. Heberling, Robt. Lightbody and George F. Hayes.

The dining room flourished with floral decorations and among the decorations were mottoes entitled "Hold your mining claims," "The smelter is coming," and "Boost for Gold Hill and everything." The menu recited: "Macdoine de Fruits, celery, ripe olives, potage aux tomates, potes d'Asniges aux Petit Pois, baked Rogue River capon with oyster dressing au Denigasse; pommes de Gerre Francis a la Creole; creme glacee au Ananas; Wilment Jait, and Cafe Nori du Coco.

After extended discussions of the mine and smelter projects by Edw. Miller and O. S. Blanchard of Grants Pass, H. L. Walther, E. G. Trowbridge and A. S. Rosenbaum of Medford, Percy M. Johnson and H. C. Diers of the West Coast Finance company, and P. X. Johnson and other local men, Victor W. Brown, the host, gave an interesting talk on the history of the mine and smelter and his plans on his trip east in consummating the mine and smelter project.

SUPPLY BARN ON N. FIR SCORCHED

The frame barn near the corner of 3rd and North Fir sts., which the Farm Bureau used to keep some baled straw in storage, and in one corner of which Chester Barr had some fruit supplies of Dennis, Kimball & Pope, caught fire late yesterday afternoon from an unknown cause and before the flames were extinguished had badly burned one end of the structure and consumed some of the straw.

The blaze caused some lively work on the part of the firemen and was hard to put out because of the burning straw. It is presumed that it started from a cigarette or cigar stub left by hoboes, who it is said sometimes slept in the barn, which is owned by Edgar Hafer. No estimate could be learned as to the loss.

This fire was the first one of the month to be combatted by the fire department, although a scare caused by some burning ashes at the Korinek building late last week called out the department.

OREGON CITY FEUD LEADS TO SHOOTING

OREGON CITY, Ore., Feb. 26.—Sheriff Wilson and a posse is out in the Marquam section this afternoon seeking an assailant alleged to have shot Daniel Edwards, 40, this morning in a line-fence feud. Edwards is in the Oregon City hospital and surgeons have not yet determined the seriousness of his wounds. According to meager information at the courthouse the shooting is the outgrowth of a feud of long standing between pioneer families in the Marquam section which came to a head today when construction on the fence was started. The name of Edwards' assailant was not made public.
