An alarm of fire was blown at 11:45 clock last night summoning the fire spartment to South Central ave., but excited user of the phone neglect-to state the exact location. Hence firemen with their apparatus went entire length of South Central it entire length of South Central ith eyes scanning both sides of the reet in an endeavor to locate the rebrted blaze. No fire was seen on the way out and on the return trip to e engine house, so the firemen went bed again, and only ascertained is morning the cause of the alarm rened in.

It seems that a young man on arking his car in front of the home f Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buckingham, 236 buth Central ave, left a lighted gar stub lying on the front seat, hich set fire to the seat and badly urned the front cushions before it as discovered and extinguished. In the meantime the fire department had hen the blaze was put out.

IOLB AND DILL PLAY TO A LARGE AUDIENCE

That the comedians, Kolb & Dill, re still popular favorites among edford and valley theater goers, was gain demonstrated last night when large audience assembled at the mory to witness their latest fun ve-cle, "A Big Reward," styled a clev-ly concocted crook comedy, which, hile it furnished good entertainment id many laughs, and was full of haracteristic Kolbdillisms, was gene-ily deemed hardly equal to their revious plays.
