Sports STRANGLER LEWIS' VICTORY CAUSES A ZBYSZKO RIOT

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Ed (Strangler) Lewis, world's champion heavyweight wrestler, and Referee Pat Magill were escorted from the ring by policemen last night after Magill awarded the deciding fall to Lewis in a match with Stanislaus Zbyszko, veteran Pole, who was struck and knocked unconscious by Lewis.

Admirers of Zbyszko, who took the second fall after Lewis had taken the first, expressed loud disapproval and surged about the ring. After the bout Lewis and Zbyszko shook hands, but later followers of the Pole credited him with an assertion that Lewis struck him on the jaw with his closed fist. Referee Magill explained that the Pole had been holed with Lewis' open hand and that such tactics were permissible under the rules.

Lewis won the first fall in 24.25 with a headlock. Zbyszko employing armlocks continually, took the second in 7:30 with a short arm scissors. In the third and deciding fall, Zbyszko brought Lewis to the mat numerous times with the armlock, but the champion each time managed to break the holds. While down the last time, Lewis reached up his right hand and the Pole's head struck the canvas with a thud. The champion quickly applied a front headlock and was awarded the fall and the match by Magill.

Tolley Makes Great Drive LONDON, Feb. 27.—Golfers here claim for Cyril Tolley, former amateur champion, the honor of making the greatest tee shot on record. Tolley drove from a covered tee on the practice ground at Kensington over a fence five feet high with stands on ground 200 yards above the level of the tee and 240 yards distant.

Oregon Plays W. S. C. EUGENE, Ore., Feb. 27.—Tonight the University of Oregon basketball team will play the team of Washington State college in the last home game of the year. Although out of the pennant race the Oregon quintet still plays a prominent role in the percentage column of the northern division of the coast conference.
