"Flaming Youth" is attracting large nuclences to the Rialto theatre where it closes its run tonight. Colleen Moore is seen as the young-est and most capricious of the daughters-Pat Fentriss-and the unfoldment of the many romances on which she embarks offers one of the most startling exposes of twentieth century character development over depicted on the screen. Myrtle Stedman interprets Monn Fentrias, the gay and over-indulgent mother. Milton Sills portrays Carey Scott, the man who brings common sense into the life of little Pat. The two other Fentriss sisters, Dec and Connie, are played by Sylvia Breamer and Betty Francisco cease. Rheumatism, gout, neuralgia and neuritis are due to internal infections which throw off poisons. These poi-sons are carried by the blood to the nerve tissue where they infame and irritate the nerve sheath. The new German Oil is designed to neutralize these outprocessing poisons.

these pain-causing poisons, bringing almost instant southing relief. So astonishing have been the re-sults from the use of this oil that the American distributors have atthorized local druggists to dispense it fo rheumatic, gout, neuralgia and neu-riths sufferers in this city with a pos-tive written guarantee, signed by themselves, to return the full pur-cluse price of the first bottle if the pains are not wonderfully relieved. All sufferers should take advantage of this liberal offer. Unless you get re-lier from the very first bottle, your drugglist will return your money. It is called Buhler Oil and can be had most good druggists, such as hige Strang's Drug Store, Medford Phar-macy, Heath's Drug Store and West Side Pharmacy. Adv. 5141
