THE SMALL PEAR ORCHARD

Especially when located near shipping station and with water available for irrigation, appeals to local men, and in this line we have four small tracts, pears in bearing and very nice homesites, right on the Pacific Highway, which we can recommend to the limit, at present asking price. No buildings. Build to suit your wife. Any one of these properly handled will repay the purchase price in two crops. They are that good. Orchards in same neighborhood have frequently yielded at rate of one thousand dollars per acre for single crop. See
