ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE ROGUE RIVER VALLEY

WOMEN AT ROGUE RIVER ENTERTAIN AT CIVIC CLUB

ROGUE RIVER, Feb. 28.—The first gathering of the Civic Improvement club at which the husbands and gentlemen friends of the members were invited took place at the home of Mrs. A. R. Brashear last Friday evening. The hostesses were Mesdames A. R. Brashear, James Martin and F. W. Clark. As this was Washington's birthday, the house was prettily and appropriately decorated, the proverbial hatchet, cherries and flags festooning the walls and curtains. An entertaining impromptu program, consisting of music, speaking and reading, was given, after which the party spent an enjoyable time playing games. After this the hostesses served a tasty lunch consisting of sandwiches, coffee, prune whip with cream, and cake. All present were unanimous in expressing their desire that such gatherings as these come more often.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cary of Ohio are visiting Dr. W. S. Cary of this city. Frank Cary is a brother of Dr. Cary, and before coming here, spent some time in California. He says he much prefers this section of the country to that of California. Mr. Cary is engaged in the monument business in Ohio and is much interested in some of the specimens of our native granite here.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Wright, who have been spending several months in this city, returned to the state of Washington last Thursday.

The last meeting of the 5 o'clock community basket lunch gatherings will be held at the Community hall next Sunday night. All persons, organizations or community clubs that took part in the previous gatherings are expected to be present that evening. It is expected that the Camp Fire girls will give a demonstration of their work as an organization, and this feature in itself will be very interesting.

Last Saturday an all-day Sunday School Institute was held in this city. The following speakers, namely: Rev. W. L. Van Nuy of Portland, Rev. D. D. Randall, assistant Sunday school missionary, Walter Fraiser Brown of Phoenix, W. W. Robinson of Ashland, Dr. B. Webster, and Rev. Mayfield of Central Point, each gave very helpful and inspiring talks. Regrets were expressed by those who had the privilege of listening to these splendid addresses, that so few were present to enjoy the good time spent.

Our high school boys' basketball team, under the direction of Prof. Langworthy, left here last Wednesday morning for Arcata, Calif., where they will take part in an eight-team tournament. It is hoped that success will attend the efforts of our boys and that they will bring back the silver cup won by them last year in a similar tournament at the same place.

SERVICE STATION CENTRAL POINT IS CHRISTENED

CENTRAL POINT, Feb. 28.—The new service station erected just recently has been named. The name chosen is very suitable and appropriate for the location of the station. So from now on it will be known as the Gateway Service station. Perhaps one of the best reasons for such a title is the fact that at that point, Main Street is the gateway to the natural wonder, Crater Lake. That is, it is the closest to Crater Lake for those coming from the north, while Medford is the closest for those coming from the south. The management of the new establishment will soon put in a free crank-case flushing department as they have in their older station on West Main. A fence of attractive design will be placed around the back of the lot along with this to help beautify the surroundings. A lawn will be planted as well as flowers of many hues. The Gateway Service station has been doing business for over a month, but not till just now has a name been decided upon. Among their tires they will feature the new balloon tires, fast becoming popular.

The high school basketball team will play the Gold Hill team tonight at Gold Hill, tomorrow evening they will play the Phoenix team at Phoenix, a return game to one played here about a month ago in the gymnasium now destroyed by fire. Wednesday the boys and girls teams played Rogue River at that city, the locals won two of the three games played, the first boys' team losing while the girls and the second boys' team defeated their opponents.

The Southern Oregon Clay Products factory located in this city is eliciting much interest among the town-folk. At present they are putting on a stock selling campaign, which is surely interesting even the conservative buyers. The brick which were turned out last fall are now being sold all over the country, carloads sent even over into Josephine county, while at the present the new annex on the Medford Hotel is using the home product. A test kiln has been completed to test the various clays as to the pottery qualities contained therein. The factory will make no brick for the present time. Those on hand will be used to build the buildings to be erected to house the other units of the factory.

The Central Point Horseshoe club will hold a tournament with the Medford club next Saturday at Medford, so far the local club has played two tournaments with that city and the result of each one was a victory for Central Point and a tie. There are about seventeen members in the club at present. It includes the best horseshoe pitchers in the city if not in the valley. It is a general plan to have a league in the valley of the different towns and then playing for the undisputed championship. The club wishes to announce that they will meet any or all comers and if that should happen to interest any expert pitchers, they can communicate with Guy Tex, local postmaster, and one of the "crack" players.

Many Central Pointers attended the funeral of the late C. C. Daniels recently deceased, and for several months a resident of the city, where he made a great many friends.

Ernest Ingram made a motor trip to Gold Hill and vicinity Sunday in his Ford runabout.

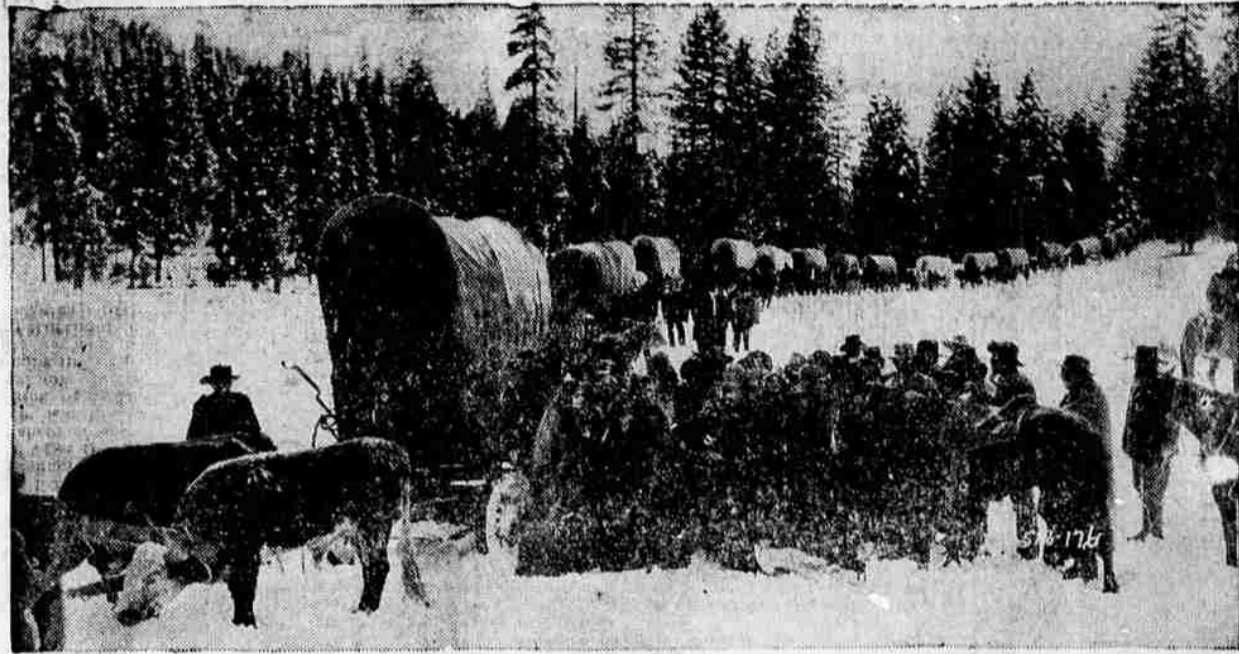

Mr. and Mrs. Miller, en route from Portland to San Francisco stopped in the city for two or three days visiting relatives residing here.

Miss Myrna Bus local high school student who has been confined at her country home for the past week on account of a severe case of measles, is now steadily improving and soon she will be entirely recovered.

Mrs. F. Cummings was an afternoon caller at the home of Mrs. Elliot upon the afternoon of Wednesday.

"The Covered Wagon" at the Rialto Theater Tonight

Arrival of the Pioneers on Oregon Soil

The first showing of "The Covered Wagon" at the Rialto theatre this afternoon was greeted by a crowded house and was in keeping with the reputation this wonderful screen spectacle gained wherever shown. The showing commences at 8:30 tonight. Also at 2:30 and 8:30 p. m. tomorrow.

In the photoplay you will find all the gripping interest of the book by Emerson Hough, and you will see the pictorial beauty of landscape, the hardy argonauts as they trudged beside the ox teams on the 2000 mile journey from Westport to Oregon. You will share with them their grief, joys, pains, homesickness and the pleasures around the campfire at night, and you will thrill and cheer at their heroic defense of their women and children from the attacks of the Indians. You will sit entranced when you see 500 "covered wagons" fording a swollen river with hundreds of oxen and horses swimming vigorously for the distant shore.

Aside from its magnitude as shown upon the screen there is a symphony orchestra of 15, and a musical score which charms the ear, adding to, and enhancing the pictorial beauty of the offering.

are planning to present a play before the public in the near future. As yet no definite arrangements have been made.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowman of San Francisco have been visiting with relatives in the city, namely, Mr. Bowman's brother, Homer Bowman.

The Mesdames Rose Kindle and Hugh Porter, hostesses of a birthday party given at the home of the former. A good time was had by all present.

Duke Schafer and Altony Morris of Gold Hill were Wednesday evening visitors in Central Point.

A surprise was given Mrs. Mayfield and Mrs. Ed Vincent Tuesday at the home of the latter by the Rebekah lodge. A large number were present to enjoy the afternoon and entertain each other. Refreshments were served to all those who had the good fortune to be present.

On February fourteenth there was born to Mrs. A. R. Parker an eight and one-half pound boy, named in honor of the day he arrived, Ernest Valentino Parker. Mother and son are now quite well, while the father, Archie Parker, is quite proud over the new arrival into his family circle.

The junior class of the Gold Hill high school presented the play, "The Kleptomaniac" in the city Wednesday evening. The talented young ladies were appreciated by a large audience who declared the presentation very good.

The delegates from the local high school, Misses Nicholson, Scott, Heckman and the Messrs. Brenner and Brown, to the educational exposition held at the Oregon Agricultural college, returned Sunday. They reported a very good time while there. They made the trip by auto, in the Durant, driven by Mr. Carl Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Pickett returned from southern California after sojourning in those regions for several weeks.

Mr. Donald Ross re-entered school after being absent for the past six weeks on account of appendicitis.

Miss Kathleen Piele is confined at her home on account of a siege of measles which she contracted a short time ago, but at this time she is on the road to recovery.

Doris Hubbard, who has been confined to her home the past week on account of measles is now quite recovered.

Mrs. C. B. Rostel spent several days in Sams Valley this week, visiting relatives.

No plans have been given out or formulated concerning the rebuilding of the gymnasium destroyed by fire last Friday. Undoubtedly it will be rebuilt sooner or later in the year.

Mrs. Elliot is now the proud owner of a new radio receiving apparatus which she reports to be exceptionally good, receiving all the coast stations, as well as the stations further east.

TALENT TALK

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brown returned Sunday from a trip to San Francisco and southern points. They were gone about a week and made the trip via automobile.

Does the Jewett Stand Up?

HERE IS THE ANSWER

The latest "National Used Car Market Report" shows that the 1922 Jewett, taken from the United States average, is worth more today in dollars and cents than any other six-cylinder car of the same year costing at retail not to exceed $250.00 more than the Jewett. These figures represent the answer of the buying public all over the United States to the above question, and it is emphatically and convincingly in the affirmative. Come in and let us show you the figures.
