One of the special features of the demonstration of the commercial Fordson which will be held Friday by the C. E. Gates Auto company will be the showing of a seven reel film at the Medford high school building. This film will illustrate a lecture and will show views of the Ford plant, its method of production from raw materials to the finished Ford products.

The Gates Auto company has issued a cordial invitation to everyone interested in automobiles and tractors to attend this lecture and see this remarkable moving picture film. The program of pictures and lectures will commence at eight o'clock.

The Art of Light; What It Means

The Clavilux, an instrument invented by the artist-craftsman Thomas Wilfred, who will play it at the Hialto theatre Monday matinee and night, March 10th, has for the first time made possible the use of light as a fine art in that it has placed form, color and motion at the command of the artist seated at its keyboard.

In the art of sound—music—we have three principal factors: Melody, harmony and rhythm. Any one of these three without the others would not make music and so in dealing with light the mere use of color, projected in changing hues upon a screen without form and rhythmic motion, does not make possible an art of light. In fact, speaking from the point of view of the experimenter, color is the least important factor—the most easily produced. The all important thing is the harnessing of form, texture, depth and rhythmic motion in light and shade. These factors once mastered, the introduction of color in the composition means but the selection of a set of pure filters.

No instrument will make the use of light as a fine art possible unless it will yield a pleasing composition in black and white under skillful hands. The remarkable three dimensional projection principle of the Clavilux, through which an ordinary flat white screen can be made to look like a window into unlimited space in which light-forms float out, away from the spectator for miles and miles before they finally disappear, has thus opened the gate to a new world of beauty where nothing was before: the art of light.

AFRAID SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Operation Advised, But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made It Unnecessary

Glasgow, Kentucky. — "I was run-down, nervous, with no appetite. My side had given me trouble for five or six years. At times it was all I could do to live, and the doctor said I couldn't live but a short time longer without an operation. That was two years ago. My sister-in-law recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She had never used it herself, but she said one of her neighbors suffered just like I did, and it cured her. After I had taken four bottles the pain left my side. I had a fine appetite to eat anything that was put before me, and I began to do all my work and my washing, something I hadn't done for years. I am a dressmaker, and this last fall I began suffering with my side again, so I began taking the Vegetable Compound again. I am on my fourth bottle, which makes eight in all I have taken. I feel so much better when I take it and everybody tells me I look better. My appetite improves and I feel stronger in every way. I am a very nervous woman and it seems to help my nerves so much." — Mrs. MAUGIE WALLER, Glasgow, Ky.

EMIL MOHR BUYS MORE LAND FOR A NEW ADDITION

Announcement has just been made that Emil Mohr, proprietor and landlord of the Hotel Medford, has purchased from William F. Isaacs the two vacant lots on the north side of West Main street, immediately adjoining the hotel on the west and extending to Devore's store.

Mr. Mohr, it is said, made this purchase for two reasons, the chief of which is that in connection with the building of the new sixth floor of the hotel, which is rapidly progressing, he will now be able to equip the structure with a big fire escape on its west side. With the two present fire escapes, one on the east side and the other at the south end, the new escape to be built soon, together with the several inside stairways, will amply provide the big hotel with fire escapes.

Another reason for acquiring this property is that it will afford protection by preventing the erection of any undesirable building next to the hotel and provides ample ground for any extension of the hotel that might be needed in the future. Some time in the future Mr. Mohr plans to build on the rear of these lots a new kitchen for the hotel and to remodel the present kitchen into a new dining room for small banquets and dinner meetings.

MEDFORD TOSSERS LEAVE TOMORROW

The Medford high school basketball team will leave in the morning for Roseburg, where it will meet the Roseburg high school in the crucial game of the year for the basketball championship of southern Oregon, and the right to play in the state tournament at Salem, March 17, 18, and 19. While it has not been definitely decided, in the event of Roseburg winning, the deciding contest of the series will probably be played in the men's gym at the University of Oregon at Eugene.

The Medford line-up will probably be Chastain and Knips at forward, Reichstein and Williams at guards, and Allen at center with Hart, White, Glascock and Demmer as substitutes.

A large number of local fans will go to Roseburg by auto and a section has been reserved in the hall for them.

MEDFORD-ASHLAND DEBATE TONIGHT

The final debate in the district between Medford and Ashland will take place this evening at 7:30 at the high schools in Medford and Ashland. The question will be, Resolved, that Oregon should adopt a cabinet system of government.

The Medford negative team, Ned Wold and Paul Anderson, coached by L. J. Knox, will debate here. The judges are M. E. Wright, principal of the Gold Hill high school; R. S. Langworthy, principal of the Rogue River high school and the Rev. E. P. Lawrence. The affirmative team, Edson Randall and Edwin Morris, go to Ashland.

Medford in Circuit for Big Artists; Paderewski Mar. 18

Medford and the Rogue River valley has gained a reputation for being a community of unusual discernment. We are in a circuit for the big artists which includes Seattle, Portland, Medford, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Paderewski, who is to appear here March 18, is an artist with a drawing power equalled only by two or three living artists—Galli-Curci, John McCormack and Heletz. These performers have more demands for their time than they are capable of filling and Medford may consider herself lucky in getting a Paderewski night.

This artist is not only a wonderful musician but a great personality. No one brought in contact with him can resist the charm of this personality and his sincerity. His life is a composite of simplicity, nobility, frankness and cordiality. He is known to be hopelessly honest. He would have been still more successful in politics had he been able to compromise with his conscience. His attitude in this was clearly defined in an address made in New York before a musical gathering in his honor. He declared that "instead of being falsely modest, I am most sincerely humble, conscious of enjoying great privileges beyond my value, conscious of the duty to guard the high character, the noble purpose and, above all, the dignity of my profession. I try to hold high the character of my art, to hold pure. Success does not last. Public favor is easily lost, soon forgotten. The only thing that does last with man, especially in public life, is the respect he has gained of his peers."

ERRORS IN TRIBUNE REPORT CORRECTED

In the report of the audit of the county books by E. M. Wilson, published in The Mail Tribune Tuesday, there were errors, as follows:

The total prohibition expenses for 1923 were $11,741.54, not $11,068.27, as printed by this paper, as the sum drawn from the current expense fund in this work was $763.16, and not $89.61.

The amount of fines collected by Justices of the peace for all offenses was $8,272.20.

Defunct Bank of Jacksonville checks carried as cash amount to 2,130.67, instead of 130.17.

The report is exhaustive and consists largely of figures, arranged in charts. Particular attention is paid to the road tax and prohibition enforcement phases of county government.

The report also compliments all the county officers upon their willingness to assist in securing an arranting data.

LOTS NOT SOLD BY SATURDAY, WILL BE WITHDRAWN, 6 MO.

The home building lot sale which the Medford Chamber of Commerce has been conducting will close at five o'clock on Saturday afternoon and the committee in charge recommends to the city council that all lots remaining unsold be withdrawn from the market for six months or possibly a year at which time they will be able to get from one to two hundred dollars above present quotations. If any residents of Medford believe that there are no citizens interested in lots with the intention of building a home thereon, they should have been in the office of the chamber during the past few days. Most of them seem to have difficulty in deciding on which side of town they would prefer to live and because they have heard of some poor individual who has been forced to sell a lot at a ridiculously low price, they are of the opinion that every lot in Medford should be priced on a similar valuation.

There always will be bargains in lots in Medford because there will always be people who will be forced to sell through unfortunate investments in stocks and business ventures, but the day is past when the market price of lots in this city will be below the cost of paving, sewer, water and sidewalk improvements.

The lot sale will continue until next Saturday afternoon at five o'clock.

Clear YOUR Stump Land at Lower Cost

BEFORE explosives were used on the farm, clearing land was heavy, costly work. Today, stumping can be done at a much lower cost.

Many ranchers in this section are using Pacific Stumping, the du Pont explosive, for clearing their stump land for profitable crops. Pacific Stumping does the job at lower expense and does it right. Pacific Stumping gives you one-half more sticks per dollar—about the same strength, stick for stick, as any standard stumping powder. It is non-freezing and won't give you a headache from handling.

We carry complete stocks of Pacific Stumping and other du Pont dynamites—recognized as standard wherever explosives are used. Let us estimate on the cost of clearing some of your stump land.
