

DE MOLAYS ATTEND BAPTIST CHURCH IN BODY SUNDAY

The DeMolay attend the evening service Sunday at the First Baptist church in a body. Seats were reserved for them. The choir rendered some fine musical selections, and Mr. Scott gave an organ recital. Rev. P. L. Leach had a special sermon for young men, but it was highly commended by the large audience present.

"Climbing the Ladder of Success" was the subject of the sermon of practical interest and value to young men, who listened with attention and profit. Among the elements of success mentioned by the speaker was grit. Grit, said Rev. Leach, is the ability to hold on; the power to overcome difficulties, and not to run away from them, to keep on when defeated or when others stop. Success as a rule does not arrive on time. Many a train misses before you arrive. The important thing is to hold on. No person knows what he can do till he tries. Many fail before finding one's real work in life.

Work is another essential. The world is not looking for men who want easy jobs. The man who is not afraid of hard work is seldom out of a job. An easy time in youth generally means a hard time in old age. Better than genius is the genius to work. It is not the brilliant man, but the hard worker who generally succeeds in life. A good motto is "if a thing can be done, I can do it."

Self-reliance is also an essential to success. There comes a time when every young person must assert himself; must rely upon his own thinking to take the initiative. You must believe in yourself, if you expect others to.

Good health is also an important factor in success. It is well to be a splendid animal, and to have a good brain in a sound body. Dissipation, late hours and bad habits do not tend to good health. A good digestion is an asset to any person who wants success.

Of still greater importance is a good character. All true success is based on character. Character is better than cash. The temptation of the young is to follow the crowd, have a good time and spend money freely. No lasting success is possible without a good character.

Lastly religion should be mentioned as an essential in the highest type of success. Our most successful business men have been members of some church. Religion is not a sign of weakness, but strength. The church is a safeguard. The ladder of success reaches from earth to Heaven. If it fails short of this it is not true success. Success has to do with not, not one world. Money is not the measure of a successful man. The elements which go to make success are found in the bible. There is not a better text book on success than the Bible. Quick and transitory success may come without a Christian character, but an enduring and worth while success is the outcome of genuine religion.

CLEAN HOUSE AND FEDERAL CONTROL 3RD PARTY PLANS

MADISON, Wis., Mar. 17.—The platform of the LaFollette progressive national delegates as made public today pledges "complete house cleaning in the department of justice, the department of the interior and other executive departments."

"We demand that the power of the federal government be used to crush private monopoly, not to foster it," concludes this plank.

Cognizance is also taken of recent developments in the Washington investigations.

"We pledge recovery of the navy's oil reserve and all other parts of the public domain which have been fraudulently or illegally leased or otherwise wrongfully transferred to the control of private interests; vigorous prosecution of all public officials, private citizens and corporations that participated in these transactions; complete revision of the water power act, and all other legislation relating to the public domain. We favor public ownership of the nation's water power and the creation and development of a national super-water power system and strict public control and permanent conservation of all the nation's resources—in the interest of the people."

The platform declares for the repeal of the Esch-Cummins railroad law and the fixing of railroad rates on the basis of "actual, prudent investment and cost of service."

It is declared that public ownership of railroads, "with definite safeguards against bureaucratic control," is the only final solution of the problem.

Reduction of federal taxes on incomes and legitimate business is proposed and it is suggested that the "eight hundred million dollars now annually expended for the army and navy in preparation for future wars," be curtailed.

It also proposed that "hundreds of millions stolen from the treasury through fraudulent war contracts and the corrupt leasing of the public resources," be recovered.

Diligent action to collect the accumulated interest upon eleven billion dollars owing by foreign governments is advocated.

"We denounce the Mellon plan," says the platform, "as a device to relieve multi-millionaires at the expense of other taxpayers and favor a taxation policy providing for immediate reductions upon moderate incomes, large increases in the inheritance tax rate on large estates to prevent the indefinite accumulation by inheritance of great fortunes in a few hands; taxes upon excess profits to penalize profiteering and complete publicity under proper safeguards of all federal tax returns."

GALES LASH NORTH PACIFIC, SHIPPING BADLY HAMPERED

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—Gales which have been lashing the waters of the north Pacific ocean off the California coast for 48 hours have disabled at least one large vessel, delayed trans-Pacific liners and caused apprehension in local marine circles for the safety of smaller craft.

The tug Sea Ranger is battling billowy seas or the teeth of fierce winds today, on route to the assistance of the Associated Oil company's steel tanker, Frank H. Buck, a vessel of 3550 net tons, disabled off the northern California coast. Heavy seas ripped away the vessel's rudderstock late yesterday and a radio appeal for aid was sent to this port. The ship carries a crew of 39 men. It left here March 14 with a cargo of oil for the Columbia river. Advice received here late last night stated the vessel was hoisted to while an emergency rudder was being attached.

Warning of a 72 mile an hour gale was received here from Point Reyes last night and the weather bureau ordered Northwest storm warnings displayed. Wireless reports from vessels in the north Pacific stated that strong winds were blowing off the California coast and as far north as Vancouver island.

Disruption of schedules of arrival of incoming vessels due here yesterday and today resulted from the storm. A sixty mile wind was reported directly west of San Francisco.

BUTTE FALLS

Your correspondent has neither been down with measles nor passing through a Rip Van Winkle sleep, but has been suffering with a malady that is common to men getting near to the limit of four score years which our friends call by the euphonious name of general debility, but which a cold unfeeling world calls general laziness.

Two things, however are serving to rouse us to rub our eyes, set up and take notice. The first is the Ruch road. It appears that the legitimate fund is exhausted and that the travel is not sufficient to justify a paved road. A meeting is called for Monday evening at Medford to consider the matter and to take action. The other is the county unit system of school government. Very little has been said through the papers and yet it is a matter that concerns everyone and should be understood before voting on it in the fall.

Mrs. J. R. Soller of Central Point was passing through last week and made a hasty call. Her genial good nature is an open sesame at all times everywhere.

E. C. Faber was here last week and was seen in his accustomed role behind the counter.

R. L. Owen from Takilma was here on a visit to his father, T. J. Owen, last week. He is well acquainted with Owens, the wealthy timber owner, who is largely interested here.

Inquiries for property indicate a rising tide of expectancy on the part of the general public that Butte Falls is destined to play a part in the future.

A large mill and its effect on the business of the town is one of the prominent points. Another important matter is the determination of the California and Oregon Power Co. to put in a plant at the gorge, which will be on the Butte Falls-Prospect road to be built this summer. When this road is completed, Butte Falls will be a delightfully half-way house for summer visitors to Crater Lake.

Mrs. W. G. Palmer is out on the street again after a protracted sickness.

Many of those who have come here for a short time in the past twelve years have regretted the necessity of moving away because of the improvement of their physical health. The time is near, however, when it will be just as well adapted to their financial as well as their physical health. Butte Falls is adapted to be a natural sanitarium.

John E. Day is about to open an office for information to all comers. Correspondence is invited and all questions will be answered and free information given.

Births, marriages and deaths are omitted from this correspondence. Births are too numerous. Marriages occur at the county seat and deaths seldom occur. It has become a saying that people have to go away from Butte Falls to die.

The examination of candidates for the post office was held two months ago, but the postoffice is still at the old stand. Is this a hint to let well enough alone.

TAG DAY IN MANILA FOR FREEDOM

MANILA, Mar. 17.—(By Associated Press.) Members of the Philippine legislature, members of labor unions and other organizations and school children marched yesterday in a parade staged as a part of the campaign to raise funds to continue the fight for Philippine independence.

Virtually every marcher wore a tag, each tag signifying a contribution to the independence fund. The committee in charge estimated late today that $20,000 had been raised in the past two days in Manila alone by the sale of the tags. No reports have been received from the provinces.

All contributions to the fund are voluntary, the constitutionality of the appropriation of public funds having been questioned.

TRAFFIC OFFICER TELLS INTIMATE DETAILS

Officer Hinkle Says It's Easy to Smile When One's Health Is Good—Gives Tanlac Credit for Recovery.

Few cities can boast of a more wide awake and efficient traffic officer than Clarence D. Hinkle, 4345 Fleming St., Philadelphia, Pa., who has been a member of the Philadelphia Police Department for ten years and who handles the traffic at Fourth and Market streets, one of the city's busiest corners.

"It is no easy thing," said Officer Hinkle, recently, "to serve the public with a smile when you are suffering the pangs of indigestion as I have done during the past year. Not only that, my appetite was lagging, I had frequent spells of nervousness and couldn't sleep right, and it kept me on my P's and Q's to look after my duties around the traffic zone."

"But since I have taken Tanlac, my stomach and nerves are strong and normal, and I eat, sleep and feel so good that my work is a genuine pleasure."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

Take Tanlac Vegetable Pills.

Comedy Drama "The Fool" Vining Ashland Tonight

"The Fool," which appears at the Vining theatre, Ashland, tonight at 8:15, is a dramatic play of the intense strife of modern every-day life between capital and labor, ignorance and shrewdness; between those trying to rise and the others scheming to keep them down.

Thrust from the pulpit because of his liberal views and his contempt for mere lip-service in religion, he casts his lot with manual workers; nor does he lose faith even when they turn against him after he has helped them win a strike. At this crisis in the intensely modern drama, the stalwart idealist appears as a wonder man. As the crowd rages around him, a crippled girl casts aside her crutches and walks as in a trance to his side. Instantly the mob and threats against him cease. The young woman to whom he had been engaged lifts him for a society snob; his old friends refer to him as a fool and a failure; but in his service for those in need he finds himself rich and happy, and the possibility of contentment so purchased is his message as the final curtain falls.

"The Fool" is one of the most powerful dramas that has been seen in many years.

A large number of people from Medford and vicinity will attend this play.

"Thank You"

This acknowledgment of a courtesy or service is somehow the satisfactory end of a transaction. Both parties are pleased and the relations of the moment, however unimportant, are more happily closed.

There is no occasion when an effort made for the comfort or convenience of others is not worth a "thank you."

In the daily routine of telephone operations, where the saving of time is the great consideration, the opportunity of expressing an appreciation of a service rendered seldom arises.

But remember that the telephone operator is human. Courtesy to her means more cheerfulness in her work. It will be reflected in your own self-satisfaction.
