

Dear Sirs

Please guard your hair
By Edna Wallace Hopper

I feel sorry to see men grow bald. It is easy to keep and to cultivate hair, and you owe it to yourself and to us.

For many years I have sought and consulted some of the world's greatest experts on hair. They all agree that hair health comes from a clean and healthy scalp. Combat the hard-to-get oil and dandruff which stiffen the hair roots. Tone and stimulate the scalp. Then hair grows just as flowers thrive in a well-kept garden.

These experts have always supplied me the best help known to science. Each new and better help discovered has come to me at once. Now I have had all of these combined in a product I call my Hair Youth. I have placed it on drug and toilet counters at every woman's call. But you need it more than women, so this is written to urge men to learn how much it does.

I am no longer young. For 35 years I have been a stage star. But my hair today is thicker and finer than 10 years ago. I have never had falling hair or dandruff and never a touch of gray. Now I offer you in my Hair Youth every help which brought those results to me. I am well assured that they combine the greatest hair helps in existence. Edna Wallace Hopper's Hair Youth is sold everywhere today. It costs 50c and $1 per bottle.

Write me for my Beauty Book and I'll send with it something else to please you. Edna Wallace Hopper, 336 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago.

BOTH TEAMS ARE READY FOR FIRST GAME OF SERIES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—(By the Associated Press)—Members of the Washington Senators and New York Giants, ignoring to all outward appearances the cloud of scandal that has been thruster over the scene today, were ready for the opening game of the series tomorrow between probably the most notable gathering that has ever witnessed a baseball blue ribbon event.

The Senators were slated for their final drill this morning with the Giants playing the finishing touches to their practice in the afternoon. And fervent fans were staging their 11th hour scramble for tickets that have been in unprecedented demand since the Senators became pennant winners for the first time since they entered the league half forty years ago.

Walter Johnson, idol of Washington fans, who shares with his young manager, "Bucky" Harris, the heroic roles in Washington's triumph, will pitch the opening game and attempt to gain the crown of glory he has been seeking for sixteen seasons. Opposed to him probably will be Hughie McQuillan, right handed ace of the Giant hurling corps, although Manager McGraw may switch to his southpaw sharpshooter, Art Nehf.

Washington will start its fight for the championship with the same lineup that carried the club to the American league top. With Johnson opposed to them, the Giants are expected to take the field with Terry, a youngster, and left-handed batter on first; Kelly, regular first sacker, in center field and Hack Wilson, another newcomer in left field in place of Irish Meusel.

Captain Frank Frisch's finger has recovered sufficiently to assure his return to the keyhole post, but Heinie Groh, third baseman, still is hobbling around on a cane as a result of a twisted knee, and Freddie Lindstrom, 18 year old schoolboy, will open the series at the hot corner. Except that Frisch will be back this makeup of the Giant machine corresponds with that which figured in the club's winning dash for the pennant.

Despite the efforts of internal revenue men ticket speculators over night continued to do a flourishing business. Three game ticket strips were sold in some cases for $50 as compared with the face value of $15.50, while a single pasteboard for the opening went as high as $20 and $25, depending on location.

—to have a good APPETITE!

"Yes! thank you."

A GOOD appetite means a cheerful disposition.

You may have a good appetite if the blood that goes constantly to your vital organs is pure. S.S.S. purifies the blood—a good appetite follows and you will have a clear complexion and will be strong, cheerful and healthy.

Don't go on feeling up one day and down the next—hardly sick but never well—losing "pep," punch and ambition. Hearty eaters are the red-blooded men and women. Enjoy your food! Get back your strength and energy! Reclaim yourself before it is too late! People in a physically run-down condition are an easy prey to disease.

S.S.S. is what is needed. Your blood needs purifying. Your blood-cells supply the energy which keeps your body well and fit. S.S.S. aids Nature in supplying new red-blood-cells—the spark that re-ignites your system. Carefully selected, scientifically proportioned and prepared herbs and barks make up S.S.S.—the great blood purifier which gives Nature a helping hand.

Get back the lost appetite, the missing vitality, the keen, sparkling eyes, that look of determination. S.S.S. will give you more energy, vitality and vigor and a more up and going appearance.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

SUZANNE LENGLEN CAN'T PLAY TENNIS, QUILTS IN DISGUST

PARIS, Oct. 2.—Suzanne Lenglen fears she will have to learn tennis all over again. When the mighty Suzanne returned from her enforced vacation near Bioppe, where she retired after her breakdown at Wimbledon, she found her drive had lost its speed and her placements their accuracy.

Playing two sets at St. Cloud she found the courts too small and the net too high. Her vaunted placements, the terror of her adversaries, either went over the sidelines or struck the net. After being one set down to Madame Vaussard—a player to whom Suzanne could generally give fifteen and a beating—the former champion of the world threw up her racket in disgust and announced that she would practice in secret and would not play in public again until December.

"Three months without taking a racket have just about done for me," she said. "I don't want again to make such a miserable showing before a gallery. The next time you see me on the courts I'll either be the old Suzanne or you won't see me at all."

Suzanne also has grown quite stout and will need hard work to get down to playing weight.

"I must get back into form before spring," said Suzanne, "because I am very anxious to play Miss Wills next summer. If I am to lose my titles there is no one in the world to whom I would rather pass them on than her."

DAVIS AND SMITH JOIN HANDS FOR BOURBON VICTORY

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—John W. Davis, presidential nominee and Governor Alfred E. Smith, gubernatorial candidate, speaking last night from the platform in Madison Square where more than two months ago they were rivals for their party's nomination, pledged mutual support while 13,000 persons cheered their arraignment of the republican party. A whimsically humorous note prevailed in Mr. Davis' speech, which brought cheers and applause from the audience, while Governor Smith cited his own record as proof of his fitness for re-election.

"Alibi" was the keynote of the address of Mr. Davis and Governor Smith stressed the importance of universal exercise of the voting privilege as a panacea for governmental problems.

First of the "alibis" mentioned by Mr. Davis was that of Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, which the presidential candidate said was the secretary's story of a $100,000 gift. Theodore Roosevelt, then assistant secretary of the navy also had an alibi, according to Mr. Davis, who said that Colonel Roosevelt said that he was only a messenger boy.

Then Mr. Davis continued his list of alibis among which he included that of Edward L. Doheny and Attorney General Daugherty.

Swept into office by an overwhelming majority in 1920, after making promises to return the country to normalcy, the republican party has done nothing to improve conditions, the governor asserted. Governor Smith pictured President Coolidge as "impotent in the hands of insurgent congress, which seized every opportunity to do Wall street's bidding. Instead of the strong leader, the republican press bureau was striving to present to the prospective voters, the president is weak, vacillating and incapable of leading his own party."

The audience gave Mr. Davis an enthusiastic greeting but reserved its greatest applause for "Al" Smith.

Folks of fine discrimination sponsored this great western coffee

IN AN atmosphere of starched linen and glistening silverware, of exotic perfumes and smart conversation, a tradition of wonderful coffee has arisen. It has unmistakably designated the West as the home of coffee excellence.

Upholding this tradition, to which it has so richly contributed, is Hills Bros. Red Can Coffee—the largest-selling brand and, without contradiction, The Recognized Standard. When you break the vacuum seal and inhale that marvelous aroma, you understand why.

And that rich, rare aroma is but the herald of a still-more-wonderful flavor to come. That none of this flavor should escape, Hills Bros. originated the vacuum-pack for coffee, which delivers it to you in all its freshness, whether you break the seal days, weeks or years later!

In the original Vacuum Pack which keeps the coffee fresh

With all its high quality, Hills Bros. Coffee is not high-priced. It is economical to buy—and economical to use. Hills Bros., San Francisco.
