MORE DIVORCES FILED, PROFANITY POPULAR CAUSE

The trial of the divorce suit of Alice I. Black vs. W. A. Black, both of Ashland, involving the custody of a boy, a house and lot, and auto, has been set for Monday, October 20. A decision on the same date is expected by Circuit Judge Charles M. Thomas. Black is 69 years old, and Mrs. Black is in the middle thirties.

Lillian Benson of Ashland Tuesday filed suit asking for divorce from Clarence Benson. The complaint alleges that Benson in April, 1923, joined the navy and returned in December, 1923, and again in July, 1924, leaving two months ago for California. Mrs. Benson charges that he was cruel and inhuman, used vile language, and associated with bad people. She requests a decree of divorce, and the right to use her maiden name, Lillian Snyder, and further says that she is earning her own living at the present time.

Neolin Mossman and Theodore Mossman were married at Vancouver, Wash., October 23, 1923. In a divorce complaint filed with the county clerk, Mossman is charged with non-support and vile language.

In an affidavit filed in the divorce suit of Mary Jean Close against Ruben V. Close, the plaintiff asks for $75 attorney's fee, on the grounds she has no money to prosecute the action. The affidavit sets forth that she is 17 years old and the defendant 31.

ASHLAND REAL ESTATE MAN LOSES LICENSE

In an opinion handed down Tuesday by Circuit Judge Charles M. Thomas, it is recommended that the real estate license of J. J. Deakins of Ashland "should be revoked," and the district attorney act accordingly.

It is further held in the opinion that the findings of the state real estate commission are correct, and that the stipulation entered into between J. B. and Norma Smith, the complainants last April is "res adjudicata," and is of "no force or effect, and does not bar prosecution." The action was originally based on the alleged actions of Deakins, in conducting negotiations relative to the sale of a house and lot in Ashland about a year ago.

Gloria Swanson In New Role

Gloria Swanson is receiving a hearty welcome from audiences at the Bialto theatre, where her new attraction, "A Society Scandal" is being shown.

This picture is in direct contrast to "The Humming Bird," in which she was garbed for the most part as a ragged boy, for in this she wears fourteen different costumes. The events take place within the inner circle of New York society, and it is not the film studio society that parades before the camera. The settings are authentic, one of the big scenes actually taking place in the real Ritz ballroom, and among the actresses is a sister of Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt. Miss Swanson's beautiful gowns do not in any way detract from the emotional power and fire that she throws into her big scenes.

Rod La Rocque, one of the most engaging leading men now extant, is the hero, and Ricardo Cortez and Allan Simpson are also in the cast.

In addition to this feature picture, the bill includes a Stan Laurel comedy, "Near Dublin," a Pathe News, and George Vlach and his popular musical program.

ASHLAND, Oct. 15.—Bids on the construction work for the new hotel are coming in rapidly. Already bids have been received from 31 firms. Two out of the state firms have entered the competition. Fred Homes discussed the winter fair which will be held during the first week of December. This year the fair will be essentially a poultry show.

J. W. McCoy gave an outline of the work on the new hotel and told how Ashland will compare with other cities of its size in hotel facilities. Professor G. A. Briscoe, Cleo Howell and V. O. N. Smith gave talks outlining the work of the Y. M. C. A. for the boys of Ashland.

Miss Frances Prater, English teacher at the Ashland high school, who has been ill for the past three weeks, returned to her home at Biddle, Ore., where she will remain until able to resume her work.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Rathbun of Fairview street have gone to California to reside. They will spend the winter months at Santa Cruz and may possibly remain there. Mr. and Mrs. Rathbun will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Carey left Ashland on Tuesday to spend the winter in California. They will go first to Santa Cruz and may possibly go to lower California as the winter advances. Mr. Carey has not been well and hopes to benefit by a lower altitude.

Word has been received that the W. H. McNair family are visiting at Kansas City, Mo. They expect to return to Ashland late in October.

The Upper Valley Community club will meet at the home of Mrs. A. C. Joy in the Bellview district on Wednesday afternoon. The event is planned as a reception to Miss Brewster, home demonstration agent for the county.

W. M. Rinehart and Miss Cella were called hurriedly to Klamath Falls Monday evening on account of the sickness of a relative.

J. H. Doran of Fairview street is in Weed for a short stay in connection with his insurance business.

Several school children are confined at home with the flu. There is not a large number however and it is thought that the situation is well in hand.

Mrs. Elwood Hedberg entertained most charmingly on Friday night with a Mah Jongg party. After a happy evening at the game, the hostess served delicious refreshments to her guests. Those who made up the guest list were Misses Aileen Walker, Virginia Jones, Esther Kleinhammer, Marjorie Gillette, Louise Gillette, Margaret Kleinhammer and the Mesdames Gerald Wenner, Milton Fraley, Dean Scott, Domino Provost and Herbert Bentley.

The mausoleum which is being erected in Mountain View cemetery is nearing completion. G. D. Mason, the contractor, announces that the structure will be dedicated with an appropriate program. I. E. Vining will be the main speaker. The marble for finishing the mausoleum is expected soon. Southern Oregon will soon have three mausoleums as one is already planned for the Klamath Agency and one for the Medford cemetery. Mr. Mason has arranged for the erection of the one at the agency and will also superintend the one for Medford.

A Glaring Error

Glare is always a trouble maker.

On the fields of sport it causes costly errors. In the home its effect is still more serious. It makes restless, inattentive pupils of children who do their home studies in light not properly shaded, and creates defective vision by sapping the reserve strength of the eyes.

To eliminate the evil effects of glare in the home, the entire electrical industry is united in a co-operative educational activity known as the Home Lighting Contest. This is being operated in the United States and Dominion of Canada and is designed to inform you and your family through the school children, in the proper use of electric light in the home so that in future years there shall be less eye trouble. In "Ourtown" the children are getting their primers at school and many are already busily engaged in writing their essays. All children over ten years of age who are attending private, parochial or public schools are eligible to enter the contest. Prizes will be awarded in this city and the winners will have a chance to win the first prize which is a $15,000 home or one of the ten scholarships.
