LA FOLLETTE SEES | CAMPAIGN FUND STRONG SUPPORT IN MASSACHUSETTS

ALHANY, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Senator Robert M. LaFollette, independent candidate for president, was headed westward again today to challenge tonight the Coolidge administration in Pittsburg, home city of Secretary Mellon before invading Ohio once more to wind up his campaign with an address Saturday night in Cleveland.

The Wisconsin senator was on his way from Boston, wherein an address last night be attacked the foreign policy of the Harding-Coolidge and recent administrations.

Commenting on his stay in Massachusetts Mr. LaFollette in a statement today said that "the reception accorded the progressive issues and the reports from the managers of the campaign in Massachusetts convinceme that the progressive tide is rising in New England, as it is in other parts of the country."

"The breakdown of the transportation system in that section of the country," he added, "has aroused the people to a realization that the pro-

people to a realization that the pro-gressives offer the only hope in this campaign for a solution of this vital problem.

"The republican propaganda concerning prosperity falls on deaf ears in New England. The widespread unemployment which has prevailed there since Calvin Coolidge became president through the death of President Harding has convinced the workers in New England that they have nothing to gain by the election of the republican ticket.

"The cotton mills, the woolen mills, the shoe factories, in fact all the in-

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—With the presentation today of additional figures showing the republican mational campaign fund total to be approximately $3.750,000 to date, the Chicage end of the senate cumpaign fund inquiry was brought to a close.

In adjourning the hearings, Chairman Borah served notice that the inquiry would be pursued after the election with a view to getting at all the facts as a basis for recommendations for legislation by congress.

While members of the committee will make no official forecast in advance of the final session of the investigation, it is fairly certain that they will propose sharp curbs on both
