

DAVIS IS GIVEN ANOTHER BOOST BY N. Y. LABOR

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Another labor endorsement was given John W. Davis, democratic candidate for president here last night. It came from the New York City and State Allied Printing Councils through an announcement made public by eastern democratic headquarters and followed that announced in a statement issued by members of the executive council of the Central Trades and Labor Council of Greater New York.

Officials at the democratic headquarters declared the action of the printing councils "to be typical of the action being or would be taken by organized labor bodies throughout the country."

In announcing its endorsement of Mr. Davis, the New York City printing council said in the statement issued by the democratic headquarters: "The enemies of organized labor are well known. No member of organized labor in his right sense would think of voting for Coolidge and Davis. By this time it is plainly evident that a vote for LaFollette means a half vote for Hoover, the arch-enemy of organized labor and his running mate, Coolidge."

The Screen

Rialto.
It is rather difficult to think of fast riding, hard shooting Tom Mix as a comedian, but he accomplished the metamorphosis at the Rialto today and gives a very amusing performance of a cowboy turned citizen. The picture is called "Soft Boiled," and it shows Tom doing a bit of his great riding at first, then as an applicant of the job of soda water clerk, which he doesn't get "because he is not the type," and finally landing as a shoe clerk.

How Tom is put to a severe test and comes out quite gloriously and how he wins the love of pretty Billie Dove, make the rest of the story.

George Vlach is heard at the organ and there are a number of short subjects.

Hunt's Craterian.
A local dramatic critic witnessing last night's premier of "A Self Made Failure" at the Hunt's Craterian, has referred to it as a "congress of comedians."

In the casting of this seven-reel farce the producer secured the services of comedians whose names are known wherever pictures are flashed upon the screen.

Lloyd Hamilton, Patsy Ruth Miller, Ben Alexander and "Chuck" Reiser are in the cast.

Barbara La Marr Sunday.
"The White Moth," co-starring Barbara La Marr and Conway Tearle, will be the picture at Hunt's Craterian Sunday and Monday.

"The White Moth" originally appeared in Alfred's Magazine, being the work of Izola Forrester, author of "The Gray Path," "The Feast of Lights" and other stories.

Miss La Marr has the title role, while Ben Lyon plays Douglas Vantine and Conway Tearle is seen as Robert.

PERL'S POLITICAL RECORD

For years John Perl has held the office of coroner of Jackson county. In all the primaries and general elections during that time he has used the machinery of the republican party as a vehicle to carry him into office.

The Republicans have honored him with their franchise and their support for a long terms of years; they have kept him in a position where he could enjoy the financial accretions and other emoluments of office.

In the May primary, his competitor in business, Mr. Conger, a good citizen of Medford and a fine loyal republican, entered the race against him for the republican nomination for coroner. In a fair, clean contest Mr. Conger won the nomination.

The next we hear of Mr. Perl's activities it is rumored that he is trying to find some way to run for coroner as an independent, but the framers of our election laws understood perfectly that not all men who run for office have political honor, and so provided in the statutes that a defeated candidate cannot file as an independent.

Mr. Perl, evidently obsessed with the idea that this job was his for life by right of long and peaceable possession, and in his determination to hold on to public office at any cost, put his wife up and filed her as an independent candidate for coroner.

Since losing out in the May primaries the whole course of this defeated candidate has been disloyal to his party in the extreme. The publicity committee of the Jackson County Republican Central Committee is going to turn the case of John Perl, Medford undertaker and chronic office seeker, over to the voters of Jackson county. The committee has no doubt of their decision.

The Nigger in the Woodpile

Everyone knows that Mr. Fehl and his supporters have been engaged for several years past in attempting to destroy the city assessment liens and to escape the amount due the city on account of their assessments, and to this end they have fought some ten or a dozen cases in the courts in an unsuccessful attempt to prevent the city from collecting its assessments.

However not everyone knows that Mr. Fehl claims to be interested in an alleged water right on Big Butte Creek and that he made an unsuccessful attempt a year ago to sell this alleged water right to the city of Medford.

That investigation convinced the mayor and city council that this water right was absolutely worthless, wholly illegal and valueless and the council therefore refused to purchase same.

That thereupon, ignoring the alleged water right of Mr. Fehl on Big Butte Creek the city made its own filings upon waters in Big Butte Creek, whereupon suit was brought by the owners of this alleged water right to keep the city of Medford from getting this new source of water.

That when this suit was tried in the Circuit Court this summer, Judge Leavitt of Klamath Falls, sitting for Judge Thomas, decided that this alleged water right which Mr. Fehl was trying to sell to the city of Medford did not exist and refused to enjoin the city and dismissed the suit.

Mr. Fehl knows that he can never hope to get any of the city's money for this worthless water right from the Businessmen's administration as they have opposed it all along and the city already has made its own filings on Big Butte Springs.

Is this why Mr. Fehl wants to be mayor?

He Served His Country— Now Let Friends Serve Him!

Back in the dark days of 1918, when the world was war-mad and the fields of Flanders, the Argonne and Belleau Wood were soaked in the blood of the world's finest manhood; when democracy and civilization were trembling under the assaults of the well drilled forces of aristocracy and the war-lords of Europe, it was America, who stepped into the breach of the wavering allies and saved a world from destruction.

RALPH JENNINGS

THEN SHERIFF OF JACKSON COUNTY, AND EXEMPT FROM MILITARY DUTY, HEARD THE CALL OF HIS COUNTRY, VOLUNTEERED HIS SERVICES AND OFFERED HIS LIFE IN THE DEFENSE OF HUMANITY, PAYING A WONDERFUL TRIBUTE TO THE MANHOOD AND PATRIOTISM OF JACKSON COUNTY.

RALPH JENNINGS ASKS TO BE RETURNED TO THE OFFICE WHICH HE FORSOOK TO SERVE HIS COUNTRY AND YOU. IT IS ONLY SLIGHT REWARD FOR THE SACRIFICE HE SO FREELY MADE, AND SURELY THE PATRIOTISM AND GRATEFULNESS OF THE FATHERS AND MOTHERS OF JACKSON COUNTY, AND ITS YOUNG MANHOOD AND WOMANHOOD WILL NOT DENY HIM.

He Served His Country Well; He Can Serve His County Well!

JENNINGS And Law Enforcement

Ralph Jennings pledges the office to the strict enforcement of all laws. With respect to the liquor law, he practices that which he advocates, being a total abstainer.

HIS FORMER EXPERIENCE will permit him to take up the duties of the office of sheriff without any economic loss to the taxpayers of the county and the machinery of that department will go forward without any delays, so common when inexperienced men are compelled to spend days, even weeks, in picking up the details of their official positions.

Vote 64 X RALPH JENNINGS

and return an ex-service man to a position which he volunteered to resign that he might serve his country.
