2 RESIDENTS OF ELECTED SHERIFF, BOASTS ONLY INDIAN MUSTACHE SARDINE CREEK BADLY INJURED

SARDINE CREEK, Nov. 20.-This has been rather an unlucky week for some of our neighbors, as two quite serious accidents happened. One day last week while Mrs. Eva Kimball was sharpenin ga butcher knife on a patent knife sharpener, in some way the sharpening a butcher knife on a pat-table bringing the knife down across the back of her left hand, cutting a ong gash to the bone and evidently severing an artery, resulting in large loss of blood. But with care the wound is healing nicely, although it will be some time before she will be while be some time before she will be able to use her hand much. On Mon-day of this week Rob Dusenberry re-turning shome from Medford in his Ford, stopped in front of the News office in Gold Hill, and when he went office in Gold Hill, and when he went to crank the Ford, that unruly animal kicked so hard it nearly threw him over the car, breaking both bones of his right arm just above the wrist. Lackily he found Dr. Chisholm at the Bowers drug store who soon set the broken arm. Now, who is next. We surely hope that the old saying, that when there is one accident, there will be three, will prove untrue in this case.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Fiene and Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Wait were Medford visitors one day this week.

Doc Vroman of Gold Hill was in this vicinity last Friday in quest of a calf which he purchased from George Smith some time ago.

Imagine a young man weighing 165 pounds in the course of a few months parked in bed, a weaking weighing 94 pounds. An elderly lady whom I knew since I was a kid paid me what she thought was a last visit. Upon being told of my plight she timmediately mentioned your product for such an allment. Maybe some of us didn't look upon her view very lightly, it was to laugh!

My dear friend, I am still laughing.

The hardships at-tendant, were related with a cheerful fidelity, that indicated the cheery optimism with which they were endur-ed. It was a story taht will not soon be forgotten by those privileged to ar it. The earlier evening was spent in Mrs. Applegate's home. The latter part with Mrs. Pell, where the hos-tesses awaited the guests at the artis-tically arranged table, and served the dainty refreshments. At this time Mrs. Fred Neil sang a group of songs, with Miss Eva Poley at the plano. Ap-preciative appliques greeted the pleas-ing rendition.
