"On December 10th the voters of school district number 4 are to vote upon a proposition to issue $145,000 in school bonds, for the purpose of constructing a school building to relieve the present congested condition," says the Roseburg News Review. "The school board, following their regular meeting last night, have issued a statement to the voters of the district, placing the matter fairly and squarely before them. The school board in acting upon this matter is determined that the voters shall fully understand the situation, believing that the progressive spirit of this community, and the desire that the children of Roseburg and vicinity be given the very best possible in the way of education, will demand that the plans, formulated after the most careful study, be put into action."
