

We Are As Old As Our Nerves Scientist Says

An Austrian scientist contends that aging is largely a matter of nerve failure. If nerve force ebbs, early in life, he says we begin to grow old, though still young in years; while a renewal of nerve functioning often banishes the most distressing symptoms of senility, even at an advanced age. Perhaps this helps to explain why so many old and prematurely aged persons say they feel refreshed and energetic after using the recently discovered kortex treatment.

The letters written in praise of kortex would fill a large book. Although the compound has been available to the public only a short time, thousands of men and women already have put it to the test, reporting results which, in many instances, are truly remarkable. If you are weak, rundown, nervous and dependent, you can now get a regular size, full strength treatment of kortex (3000) from Health's Drug Store, 109 E. Main St., Medford, Oregon. The compound is warranted to contain no dope or habit-forming drugs. Ask about it today. It may prove to be exactly what you have been looking for.

WINTER FAIR AT ASHLAND BREAKS EXHIBIT RECORDS

ASHLAND, Dec. 10.—(Special.)—Ashland's Winter Fair opened officially on Tuesday. Never before has the Winter Fair offered such a fine display of poultry including chickens, turkeys, ducks and geese, as have been placed on exhibit this year. Exhibitors have been attracted from up and down the coast and the substantial premiums have interested sixty-five poultry fanciers. As might be expected, southern Oregon is the best represented section, but entries have been made from Corvallis, Lebanon, Tacoma, and from as far south as San Jose. Some exhibitors responded from eastern Oregon. The success of the poultry sections of the Winter Fair of other years has placed the Ashland event among the important dates in the poultry industry. Work has gone forward in the most satisfactory way and the show is all in readiness.

One of the most interesting events of the fair is the egg laying contest. The fine display of Chinese pheasants is one of the attractive features and the exhibit of beavers arouses interest not only in the animals but also in the fur industry of Oregon.

Mr. Harry Collier of Tacoma is here and began judging poultry at ten o'clock on Tuesday.

Otto M. Jones, state game commissioner, will be in Ashland Thursday and Friday and will assist with the evening programs of the fair. Mr. Jones shows some very fine moving pictures of the wild game of the state. A basketball team has been recently organized in the Elks club. Jim Bowers has been elected manager and Millard Grubb, captain. The team has a full schedule of games and will start training immediately.

Mrs. Ellen C. Galey and Miss Mabel Galey have moved from the Putnam apartments on Vista street to the Plummer house on Oak street.

Mrs. Wilmer Foley, who has been ill for several days with the flu, is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Carter returned Sunday from a week's visit in Portland. They report a very pleasant trip.

Misses Dorothy Reid and Waive Withrow expect to leave Ashland soon to visit in California. Miss Reid will visit in Stockton and Miss Withrow will go to San Francisco. Both girls plan to return after the holidays.

Mrs. George F. McConnell of 92 Church street suffered a serious accident Monday night, which resulted in a broken hip bone. While sitting near the stove Mrs. McConnell was startled by a slight explosion of fine coal dust. She jumped up and fell to the floor in such a way that the hip bone was broken. Mrs. McConnell was taken to the Sacred Heart hospital at Medford.

The high school students have had a contest in the sale of Winter Fair tickets. The class that sells the greatest number will receive $10 as a prize; the second class winning second place will receive $5. All classes together will receive 20 per cent of the profit if the sale of tickets is over $500, but only 10 per cent if the sales are under $500.

Mr. D. Peruzzi drove to Eugene at the close of the week to take Miss Thelma Peruzzi, Vernon McGee and Henry Homes to the conference of student body officers and high school editors. Mr. McGee is editor of the Rogue News and Mr. Homes is the business manager. Miss Peruzzi is secretary of the student body.

Parent Teachers day is scheduled for Friday, December 12, at the Junior high school. Each mother who has a child attending school in the junior high building is especially invited to visit on that day. Visitors will be conducted through the rooms and be shown the work done by the pupils. The students and teachers at Junior High have prepared a splendid program and have prepared many interesting exhibits. A part of the day is to be devoted to social activities and during that time refreshments will be served.

The Ashland Study club met on Monday at the home of Mrs. P. S. Engle on the Boulevard. Mrs. Alice Peil gave a most interesting book report.

The regular meeting of the P. E. O. sisterhood was held at the home of the Misses Evangelina and Minnie Foley on Tuesday evening.

The engagement of Miss Myra Gunter, a teacher in the Corvallis schools, to Merle P. Bailey, 1924 graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college was announced at the Thanksgiving dinner at the Acadia fraternity house. Mr. Bailey works for the General Electric company in Pittsfield, Massachusetts. Miss Gunter is a 1918 graduate of the Ashland high school and has many friends in this city who wish her every happiness.

A lovely social event of the week was a card party at the home of Mrs. D. Peruzzi on Granite street Saturday. Sixteen guests were bidden and the evening was spent playing bridge. Mrs. F. G. Swendsen won high honors and Mrs. Jordan was given the consolation.

After a number of very pleasant hours had been spent in card playing, the gracious hostess served delicious refreshments.

The guest list included Mesdames Jordan, McNair, T. Sanford, George Gillette, Allen Tomlinson, Will Dodge, Louis Dodge, F. D. Wagner, J. M. Wagner, F. W. Swendsen, V. V. Mills, Gordon MacCracken, Emil Peil, L. N. Woodside, Emma Oeder and the hostess, Mrs. Peruzzi.

BOTTLES BURSTING IN BLAZING SALOON SOUND LIKE GUNS

BISBEE, Ariz., Dec. 10.—Fire, caused by an overheated stove in the Eighteenth Amendment saloon spread quickly to adjoining buildings and one entire block in Naco, Sonora, Mexico, nine miles south of here, was destroyed last night.

The block razed was composed entirely of saloons and cabarets and included five buildings, all of them ramshackle affairs and the property loss does not amount to more than $10,000.

The report that a fusillade of shots followed the outbreak of flames was unequivocally denied by Mexican customs officials, who said the bursting of bottles in the Eighteenth Amendment saloon possibly could have been mistaken for gunshots.

FORCED TO LEAP FROM BURNING EUGENE HOME

EUGENE, Ore., Dec. 10.—Forced to leap from second story windows in order to escape the flames which threatened to destroy their home, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Buehler of this city narrowly missed serious injury last night. Mrs. Buehler was slightly burned about the hands and head when she attempted to save some clothing from the fire. Two children, also sleeping on the second floor of the home when the flames broke out, made their escape.

At the same time an unoccupied frame dwelling in another part of the city caught fire and burned to the ground. Hoboes are blamed for the fire.

NATIONAL UNIVERSITY CLUB IS PROPOSED

SEATTLE, Dec. 10.—A committee has been appointed to investigate a proposal to form a national organization of university students, similar to organizations in Europe. Robert Keefe, president of the Associated Students of the University of Washington, announced today. The plan seeks the formation of a Pacific coast section, including universities and colleges in Oregon, Washington, California, Utah, Nevada, Montana, Idaho and Wyoming.

DRIVE 8000 DEER ACROSS THE GRAND CANYON DEC. 15TH

OGDEN, Utah, Dec. 10.—Arrangements for the driving of from 3000 to 8000 head of deer across the Grand Canyon from the Kaibab national forest, as part of the general scheme to alleviate stringent grazing conditions on the Grand Canyon game preserve, have been completed and the drive is expected to begin December 15. It was announced yesterday by R. H. Rutledge, district forester, upon receipt of a telegram from G. M. Willard, state game commissioner of Arizona.

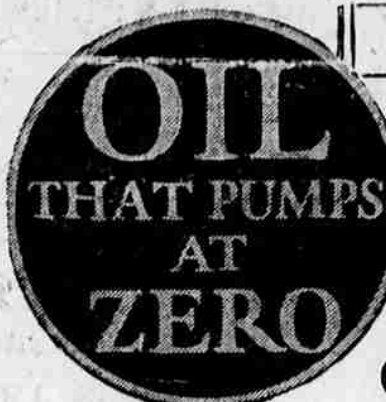

The task is a huge one which has no parallel in the west and many have expressed doubt as to the feasibility of the plan. It is understood that motion picture rights to film the drive have been granted. Navajo Indians are to be used in the drive, Mr. Rutledge said.

24 CHINESE STUDENTS ESCAPE FROM BANDITS

CANTON, China, Dec. 10.—(By the Associated Press.)—Twenty-two of the students captured Saturday by bandits while en route from Canton to the Christian college in a launch were returned to the college today. The bandits have been routed by General Li Puh-Lin's troops after a short fight. The rescuers found two other of the students today. Eight still remain in captivity.
