

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

Theatre

It would be difficult to overpraise the production of "Blossom Time" at the Craterian last night, before a large and appreciative audience. One of the best light operas of this generation, was given by one of the best companies ever seen in southern Oregon. From the rise of the curtain to the finale, there wasn't a flaw, and if the same company ever comes to Medford again, it should play to a capacity house.

The Screen

A James Cruze production, with Betty Compson as star, is to be the attraction at Hunt's Craterian theater beginning tomorrow. It is an eight-reel special attraction. In "The Enemy Sex," Mrs. Compson who is soon to become Mrs. Cruze, is supported by a cast including Percy Marmont, Huntley Gordon, Sheldon Lewis, Kathryn Williams and others. "Sinners in Silk" closes tonight. It is a decidedly sophisticated trend, dealing for the most part with an ultra-fashionable set of debutantes and youths. One of the features of this picture is a bevy of beautiful girls who appear as the different types of New York's smart set. Balancing this feature offering is a mirth provoking comedy, "Detained," featuring Stan Laurel. Another short reel and "Betty" Brown at the mighty Wulitzer. At the Rialto. "K—the Unknown" closes at the Rialto tonight. The picture as a whole is a fine vehicle for the star, and for the others in the cast as well. For it is a story that does not tax the credulity of the spectator in any manner; quite to the contrary, in fact, it makes the spectator quite certain of acquaintanceship with men and women who might well have been the characters. "The Cyclone Rider" is coming to the Rialto theater tomorrow and Monday. It is a Hunt Fox special and is billed as the best melodrama that Lincoln Center ever conceived. It is said to be one continuous string of thrilling scenes and contains one of the greatest automobile wrecks ever shown upon the screen.
