

ENTIRE PRUNE GROWERS' CROP SOLD TO N. YORK

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 31.—The North Pacific Prune Growers exchange has announced the sale of their entire prune crop, amounting to approximately 400,000 pounds to New York buyers. The prunes were packed in 25 pound boxes and brought the following prices, f.o.b. dock:

- 30-40's 12 cents.
- 40-50's 9 1/2 cents.
- 50-60's 7 1/2 cents.
- 60-70's 6 1/2 cents.
- 70-80's 5 1/2 cents.
- 80-90's 5 cents.
- 90-100's 4 1/2 cents.
- 100-120's 4 cents.

The sale is particularly significant at this time, coming during the quiet period of the year when little activity is usually shown.

The deal was consummated by the exchange a few days ago when nearly 400,000 pounds of Italian prunes were sold at regular exchange prices and in some sizes above the quotations.

Rumors have been circulated that the exchange has been cutting prices. This is emphatically denied by local officials who declare that the exchange is standing pat on the prices agreed upon by the board and further they intend to remain firm on these prices.

Conditions are very favorable in the prune market with a strong undertone prevailing although the holiday season is usually the dull period. Officers of the exchange say they see no reason why the crop will not clear up by spring at current levels or even better prices.

M. J. Newhouse, manager of the exchange is in Liverpool looking to the foreign situation and endeavoring to develop the demand for Pacific north-west prunes.

CAPPER PROPOSES STANDARD WEIGHT FOR LOAF OF BREAD

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—A bill proposing standard weights for loaves of bread and to provide for their sanitary wrapping was introduced today by Senator Capper, Republican, Kansas.

Charges that consumers of bakers' bread pay $200,000 a day for bread they do not get were made by Senator Capper in an explanation of his bill.

"While not all bakers practice short weight selling," he said, "evidence is that the practice is general among the large baking corporations where state laws do not prohibit."

Senator Capper called attention that a "huge merger" of baking interests now was under the "scrutiny" of the department of justice and the federal trade commission.

"The miller and the farmer are justly concerned to discover whether such a combination constitutes a monopolistic control of wheat and flour marketing," he said. "The consumer is concerned as to what effect such combination may have upon the price of an indispensable necessity and the small baker is concerned for the very existence of his business."

FREE TOWING SERVICE FOR STATE MOTORISTS

EUGENE, Ore., Dec. 31.—Establishment early next summer of a free towing and emergency road service in Eugene for the members of the Oregon State Motor association is being planned by the organization as a part of a state-wide plan, according to George O. Brandenburg, manager of the association.

"This service for motorists will be planned geographically so that there will be stations at least every twenty miles along the heavily traveled roads," Mr. Brandenburg stated in announcing the plan which has already been started at Portland with the opening of the first station. The Portland service will be available after January 1, Mr. Brandenburg announces.

SALEM KIWANIS SIGN TO MARK 'EQUATOR'

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 31.—The Salem Kiwanis club today ordered the erection of a greeting sign at the point just north of Salem on the Pacific Highway where the 45th parallel of latitude crosses the highway, which is half way between the equator and the North Pole. On one side the sign will read, "Half way to the North Pole," and on the other, "Half Way to the Equator," and at the bottom a greeting to visiting Kiwanians and an announcement of their luncheon date here.

INCIDENT KEEPS HIS EYE ON PARIS DEBT SITUATION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—President Coolidge has drawn no hasty conclusions from the recent swiftness of developments, surrounding the French war debt and sees no occasion for action by the American government on the basis of present advice.

The president is watching the situation closely however, and should there be any indication of a move by the French government to repudiate its obligations, it might influence the White House strongly in its attitude toward the flotation of private French loans in this country.

While there is no legal restriction giving the federal government authority over loans which foreign governments seek to place with private interests in this country, the advice of Washington usually is sought by the prospective investors and usually is sufficient to determine the fate of any such venture.

There has been no indication that the president discredits the many French assurances of payment, reiterated yesterday by the French embassy, but at the same time he desires that all facts be known here beyond all doubt so that the American government can shape its course accordingly.

He realizes that remarks of foreign government officials and other isolated incidents do not invariably represent a deliberate determination as to the policy of the government. He is disposed, therefore, to await complete official information.

On the basis of the present situation the president apparently sees no reason to bring influence to bear against any private loan transactions the French government may have consideration with American banking houses.

No report has reached the state department from the American embassy in Paris to guide the administration in interpreting the finance minister's recent remarks, nor has the French embassy here made any engagement indicating that it has been instructed by its government to make any communication.

There is speculation, however, as to the possibility that recent developments may result in a clearer understanding all around.

Up to this time the most definite commitment regarding payment of the French war debt has been that voiced by Ambassador Jusserand. On the heels of this statement, however, the Paris government pointed out that he was acting on his own initiative and without instructions.

Some observers here believe the Paris foreign office may find it advisable to make clear in an unmistakable and official way the purpose of France to meet her loan obligations and also to clear up whatever misunderstanding there may be in this country of such questions of debt pooling, or discussion of war debts at any general finance conference of the allied and associated powers.

There was a recurrence of debate on the debt question in the senate today, during which Senator Dial, democrat, South Carolina, declared the United States should not confine its attention to the French debt but should notify all nations that the time had come for them to arrange for paying at least the interest on their obligations.
