AUTHOR PRAISES ESPEE SERVICE

Edison Marshall, the local author, who was on his way to Georgia on a visit, sent the Southern Pacific the following message of praise:

"On the Sunset Limited, Somewhere in Texas, Dec. 20, 1924."

"Dear Mr. Rosenbaum: I can easily see your good offices in the kind way I have been treated all along the line. An official met me in Los Angeles, arranged for my baggage, and assisted me in every way. I am sure you told him too."

"This is a crack train, and extremely comfortable. I have been spending my time sleeping, eating and cross word puzzling."

"Believe me, I appreciate your kindness in looking after me."

(Signed) "EDISON MARSHALL."
