

Local and Personal

The Pacific highway south from Yreka is not closed to travel because of deep snow, according to Lee Garlock, in charge of the local state bureau of registration here for out of the state cars, as was telegraphed from Yreka yesterday afternoon in news dispatches. While the going is somewhat rough because of the snow, Mr. Garlock says that motorists from California who arrived in the city late last night, this morning and forenoon, state that the highway is open. They also say that the worst going and the only place where traveling is difficult, is between Weed and Dunsmuir.

Judge C. M. Thomas of Medford, who is presiding here during the several murder trials, is probably the only judge in Oregon who has given a penitentiary sentence to an intoxicated automobile driver. In a case in Josephine county about a month ago the defendant was convicted of injuring another when driving an automobile while drunk, and Judge Thomas gave him a sentence of one year in the penitentiary. It is not generally understood that the present law in Oregon permits a penitentiary or jail sentence or fine if the party driving while intoxicated injures another. A bill is now before the legislature which permits prison sentence in case one drives an automobile while drunk, whether another is injured or not.—Klamath News.
