

SHEPHERD'S FATE REGARDING BAIL DECIDED TONIGHT

CHICAGO, Mar. 25.—(By Associated Press.) Prospects at noon today were that the arguments on the question of bail for William D. Shepherd, charged with the murder of his foster son, William N. McClintock, by typhoid inoculation, would require the remainder of the day.

Judge Jacob M. Hopkins, chief justice of the criminal court, hearing the application for freedom for Shepherd on bond, was prepared to deliver an oral decision if the arguments were not prolonged too late. Assistant State's Attorney Thomas Marshall resumed his argument against bail, contending that nothing had been shown to support any reason why bail should be granted. He insisted yesterday that the testimony of the state's witnesses—who were called by the defense to show what they had testified before the grand jury which indicted Shepherd and C. C. Falman on the murder charge—had not been controverted but on the contrary had been shown the proof to be evident and the presumption great as required by Illinois law in a case where bail is not permissible.

Mr. Marshall's argument was confined to the law in such a case. He was to be followed by First Assistant State's Attorney George E. Gorman, who was to speak on the facts in the case. Counsel for Shepherd was to have the final word in rebuttal argument.

M'PHERSON'S SALE AT EAGLE POINT ATTRACTS

The closing out sale which is being conducted in Eagle Point by F. J. McPherson has been attracting people from all parts of southern Oregon. This week marks the third week of this sale which, according to Mr. McPherson, has been a decided success. "It is a closing out sale in earnest," says McPherson. "I have definitely decided to close out my Eagle Point store and, in order to clean up my unusually large stock I have offered some mighty attractive bargains. Southern Oregon people have recognized the value I am offering and turning out in large numbers. Mr. McPherson also has offered a word of warning that the sale would not last many days longer as his stock is rapidly diminishing. McPherson's store will be open evenings this week.

Tickert and Justin Judy, and expect to continue along work of this line for a short time, as they have several other projects in view. The widow asks $10,000 for her husband's death and $750 for loss of the automobile.

Medford Rotary Club News
A number of Rotarians are attending the District Number one convention at Portland, this week. There are upward of two thousand in attendance. In Monday's program, E. P. Flynn of St. Paul, Minn., who is governor of Rotary District Number Nine delivered an address. Among the things he said in a sentence which we quote: "Service is a language all nations speak. If this idea was given its due consideration there would be less misunderstanding and less commercial hatred." Also we quote a few sentences from B. F. Irving, who delivered an address on "Service": "Had the Rotary idea been abroad and subscribed to in 1914, there would have been no world war. And had it been abroad in this country in 1890, there would have been no Civil war." Both these quotations were taken from the Portland Oregonian. After luncheon, the club immediately adjourned and drove in a body to the home of Bill Gore, as a token of friendship and Rotary esteem, to wish him a speedy recovery from a recent illness. At this week's meeting in the absence of Chairman Bob Clancy, Paul Scherer acted as chairman. E. C. ROOT

FALL CLAIMS HE HELD BACK PLAN FOR BIG SURPRISE

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Mar. 25.—(By Associated Press.) Former Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall kept the news of the leasing of the Teapot Dome a secret "for the time being," because he wished to first execute the contract for the construction of all storage tanks at Pearl Harbor and then present the news of both projects to the public "as a great achievement," George P. Hoover, defense counsel, said in his argument in the case here today.

Mr. Hoover declared that this was shown by an analysis of the evidence and pointed to testimony showing that bids on the Pearl Harbor project which eventually was let to the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport company, were not submitted to Fall before April 13, 1922. The Teapot lease was executed on April 7 of that year.

COLORADO HAS 2 MOUNTAINS THAT ARE RUNNING AWAY

DENVER, March 25.—The antics of Meeker's moving mountain in Rio Blanco county in western Colorado has led to the revelation that the state has a rival "runaway peak" in the foothills near Golden, according to Charles W. Henderson, mineral geographer of the United States geological survey. Golden is 75 miles west of Denver. The condition is a common one, Henderson said. He reported that the Golden foothill has been marching steadily eastward for several years, interfering both with a highway and a branch line of the Denver Tramway company. Every few weeks, according to Henderson, crews of workmen are required to shovel off tons of dirt.

The Golden disturbance apparently is caused by the same thing as Meeker's phenomena, mainly the soft clay base for a heavy sandstone has become waterlogged through seepage and cannot longer hold the mountain up.

GERMAN SECURITY PACT IS FAVORED BY GREAT BRITAIN

LONDON, Mar. 25.—(By Associated Press.) Germany's proposals for a security pact, as outlined before the house of commons last evening, by Austen Chamberlain, the foreign secretary, are received favorably by several of the chief London morning papers. In his speech the foreign secretary made known to the world that Great Britain would seek to build a permanent European peace on the foundation of a mutual pact between Germany and her late enemies and would have nothing further to do with the wreckage of the security protocol framed at the last league assembly when the McDonald labor government was in power. The pact he said, would guarantee the present frontiers of western Europe against any change and Germany would renounce all ideas of resorting to arms at any time in an effort to change her eastern boundaries as fixed after the World war.

ANTI-KLANSMEN FINED AND TOLD TO LET K. K. ALONE

WARREN, Ohio, Mar. 25.—Twenty-nine Niles citizens, all reputed anti-Ku Klux Klansmen, indicted in connection with riots here last November incident to a tri-state klan klonkave, pleaded guilty to charges of rioting in common pleas court here today and drew sentences of fines, partly suspended on good behavior. Each man was sentenced to pay a fine of $300 and costs, of which $250 is suspended on good behavior if paid by Friday. Judge James Thomas of Portsmouth, in pronouncing sentence on the twenty-nine said: "You men should go back to Niles and live as American citizens should live. If the Ku Klux Klan wants to parade let them do so and it will wear itself out. Niles has suffered greatly in property values and in state and national reputation. Don't try to take the law into your own hands to treat those whom you accuse of religious or class bigotry. Let them go and this thing will die out."
