

EX-CASHER IN STATE TREASURY ARRESTED AGAIN

SALEM, Ore., April 9.—Clarence W. Thompson, former cashier in the state treasury office who Monday evening pleaded guilty to larceny of $241 of public funds and was sentenced two years in the state penitentiary and then paroled by Judge Percy R. Kelly at a special evening session of the court, is under arrest here again today charged with the further larceny of $3000 from the treasury upon a complaint sworn out by John H. Carson, district attorney.

ARSON CONVICT IS GIVEN A PAROLE BUT GIRL IS NOT

GREEN BAY, Wis., April 9.—Edward J. Sallstad of Eau Claire, who with Dorothy Anderson was convicted on a charge of arson on December 29, 1923 and sentenced to four years at the Green Bay reformatory, was granted a parole by the state board of control. It was announced today by Earl H. Ecklund, superintendent.

ROBBER CAUGHT IN SALEM TODAY MAKES GETAWAY

SALEM, Ore., April 9.—Ray Hill who was held at the Salem city jail for the alleged theft of a payroll of more than $700 from the Coos Bay Stevedoring company at North Bend, made his escape from the jail just before noon today, and without hat or shoes is in hiding somewhere in Salem or environs. Just how Hill made his escape is something of a mystery, though it is known he went out through the barred door of the jail and boldly walked across the lower floor of the city hall, where are located the offices of the police department and city recorder, and passed out into the street.

WILL PURDY IN LIMELIGHT AGAIN SUES ATTORNEYS

SALEM, Ore., April 9.—Will E. Purdy, democratic politician, evangelist, attorney and former candidate for governor and congressman, today filed an action for $10,000 damages and $1600 a year against Walter C. Window and S. M. Endicott, local attorneys and Chris and Mary Lachele. He charges he has been damaged by allegations made by Window that he was a forger and that as a result he has been injured in mind and body, and deprived of a salary of $1600 a year which he otherwise would receive.

2000 DEGREES HOTTEST TEMPERATURE IN FIRE

WASHINGTON, April 9.—A temperature of 2,000 degrees Fahrenheit, is probably the maximum heat that can be generated in a fire disaster, bureau of standards scientists concluded as the result of recent experiments. In order to test fire-resistant building materials the bureau conducted a series of imitation inflammations. The highest temperature resulted from a hypothetical "library room" carrying 55 pounds of combustible material per square foot of floor by stacking up old records from the navy. The temperature, 2000 degrees, warped walls and flooring and the structure did not cool for 24 hours.

Students Strike When Supt. Gets Fired

BESSEMER, Ala., April 9.—Nine hundred high school students walked out of classes here today and declared they "would remain out" until the board of education rescinded its action in electing a new superintendent of schools to replace Dr. L. L. Vann. The students later marched in a body to the office of Norman B. Parker, chairman of the board of education who is said to have voted to oust Dr. Vann, where a leader shouted: "Come on out here and we will ride you on a rail." No one emerged.

MUSH WHEAT FLAKES. Many mothers have learned this "better breakfast" secret—have you? Carnation MUSH is all energy because it is all wheat. We take white Sonora wheat—specially selected. We wash it. We clean it. We remove only the outer husk of the wheat—nothing else. We keep all the bran, all the minerals, all the health-value. Then we steam and roll the golden grains into crisp, wafer-thin flakes. Mr. James H. Allen of 26 Forbes St., Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of ALLENBHU, who for many years suffered the tortments of acute rheumatism, writes all sufferers to know that it does not want a cent of anyone's money unless ALLENBHU decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed Heath's Drug Store and druggists everywhere to guarantee it as above in every instance.—Adv.
