with my Wrigley's*

Wrigley's gives the penny a bigger value in delightful, long-lasting and beneficial refreshment.

Coming home on the train or in the car - It's so cool and sweet after smoking. And then when you get home how eager the little folks are for their Wrigley's! How good it is for them!

WRIGLEY'S
"after every meal"

The family picture is most interesting a couple of years later. Then, too, this time of year is the best time to take outdoor pictures. The Eastman Kodak is made for the beginner.

The Eastman film in the yellow boxes are made with wide latitude, which the amateur needs. Our films are fresh from the factory every week.

APPLEGATE SCHOOL TO GIVE PLAY AT APPLEGATE HALL

Juniors and seniors of the Applegate valley high school present "Cheer Up Chad," a comedy-drama in three acts at the Applegate Hall, April 18th.

The cast of characters:
Chad Barnett, owner of Barnett Co.—Kenneth Baldwin.
Ramsay Fullerton, Chad's friend—Harlan Conrall.
Sam Warren, influential farmer—Frank Rice.
Dexter, Chad's partner—Karl Herriott.
Lawyer Hunker, small town lawyer—Robert Head.
June Crawford, an employee of Chad's—Violet Loesch.
Sadie Jackson, June's friend—Rochester Clute.

Sadie, witty girl of sixteen—Gloria Krause.
Mrs. Burton, snappy young widow—Dora Stone.
Vivian Westerman, young aristocrat—Theresa Loesch.
Act I—Office in Barnett company.
Act II—Home of Sam Warren.
Act III—Same as Act II.

Arbor day was observed last Friday in the afternoon by all the school. A program was rendered and much interest was manifested by the children.

Francis Kraus and Katherine Offenhauer visited the school all day Friday.

Miss Irene Mann, the county nurse, sent a report to the principal stating the well water at the school had been examined and found to be pure.

The junior senior play "Cheer Up Chad," will be staged Saturday evening, April 18, at 8 p. m. The mumps have hindered somewhat in putting this play on any earlier. The play will be given at the Community hall.

The new library books have nearly all been received and will be catalogued soon.

The pupils are practicing for field meet under the supervision of Coach Hale.

Earl Woolridge while pole vaulting was seriously hurt one day last week. The pole broke while he was still up in the air and he struck on his neck and shoulders. Earl said that the doctor found three joints of his vertebra out of place.

Baseball practice is called off until after field meet, which will be April 25. These pretty days are not very conducive to school work.

OREGON DEAN IS CALLED EAST BY U. S. A. RED CROSS

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Ore., April 14.—(Special.)—

Earl Kirkpatrick, dean of the University of Oregon extension division will leave for the middle west immediately on a two months' leave of absence from the university to serve as a member of the American Red Cross executive staff for the rehabilitation of the great area swept by tornado on March 18. He was summoned by telegraph, and leave was granted by a committee of the board of regents this morning. James L. Fieser, vice chairman of the Red Cross in charge of domestic operations, wired Dean Kirkpatrick requesting him to report at St. Louis.

The Oregon man is an experienced relief worker, and has been on the staff of the Red Cross for emergency call since he served during the war as manager of the northwestern division of the organization. Dean Kirkpatrick was ordered to Astoria when the city was swept by fire two years ago, and he served as director of relief for the Red Cross, receiving and organizing his staff, drafting at that time a number of the faculty of the school of social work in Portland. In 1921, when the city of Pueblo, Colo., and nearby towns were visited by floods that caused $20,000,000 of property damage and caused thousands to desert their homes, Dean Kirkpatrick served as assistant director of disaster relief. He helped distribute a $500,000 relief fund and aided in reconstructing the communities that had been destroyed. When America entered the war, Kirkpatrick helped through the university extension division to organize the work of the Red Cross in Oregon. Later, he went to Seattle as director of organization for the northwest, and was promoted to manager of the division, which had charge of all operations in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Alaska.

A few months ago, Dean Kirkpatrick, was appointed on the commission of American experts for the study of the causes of calamities and of measures to be taken for their prevention. The appointment was made by Dr. Raoul Montandon, president of the Geographical Society of Geneva. The area which was swept by the tornado last month includes towns in Illinois, Indiana, Tennessee, Kentucky and Missouri. Approximately 1600 persons were killed, many injured and the property damaged ran into millions.

MORE OIL LAND IN ALASKA IS LEASED

SEATTLE, April 14.—A contract has been signed by the Superior Oil company for leasing 12,800 acres of land in Alaska on which development work is going to be started immediately, announced J. W. McCord who arrived yesterday en route to his home in Alaska.

"This makes the fifth company I have been able to get started in development work in Alaska," said McCord. "The other companies were the Standard Oil of California, the Associated Oil, the General Petroleum corporation and the Honolulu Consolidated Oil company."

"I believe that unprecedented development in Alaska will follow the passage of a bill to permit the leasing of government lands for grazing purposes. It will mean that reindeer can be driven close to the Alaskan railroad and may result in the establishment of a packing plant on the line."

CLAIM FARM RETURN IN 1924 BELOW NORMAL

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The Farmers' National Council estimated in a statement today that American farmers realized on the sale of their crops last year $5,144,000,000 less than a fair return for their labor would have given them.

Department of agriculture figures on the value of the crop and livestock production for the year were cited as showing that the average farm family received for its labor $671.23. The total "deficit" was figured on a basis of $1500 for a fair average return for such labor.

CORNS

Lift Off—No Pain!

Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every red corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calluses, without soreness or irritation.

BRITISH ARCHITECT IS AWARDED U. S. MEDAL

NEW YORK, April 14.—The gold medal of the American Institute of Architects will be given to Sir Edwin Landseer Lutyens, British architect, at the convention of the American Institute of Architects and the Architectural and Allied Arts exposition, both of which open here Monday.

The award will be for conspicuous service and only the sixth time it has been conferred in eighteen years. It was Sir Edwin Lutyens who designed the famous Queen's doll house, a miniature palace presented to Queen Mary of England. He has also designed many buildings in this country, including the chapel at West Point.
