

Local and Personal

The new board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce did not formally organize last night at its first meeting because three members, Messrs. Floyd H. Hart, Louis Ulrich and Vernon Waxter were absent, and it is preferred not to elect the new president until there is practically a full membership of the board present. A. L. Hill acted as temporary chairman of last night's meeting, at which the future work of the board was discussed informally. The board adjourned to meet next Friday night.

Mrs. Trowbridge, designer with a reputation behind her work, 905 W. 10th street.

A fire at the home of Dr. Wm. M. P. Holt on the east side at 8:10 o'clock last night resulted in calling out the fire department, which extinguished the danger. The damage was minor.

Cafeteria chicken supper. Talent club room, April 16.

Robert Gottlieb, of Chicago, with headquarters in Yokohama, Japan, and who is a tea buyer for an eastern firm, stopped off here yesterday to visit his brother, Chris Gottlieb. He is en route back to Japan from the east.

Lathe work and motor reconditioning. Riverside Garage.

Among the sojourners today in the city from the east are Mrs. Wm. O'Clare of Keamsburg, N. J. David Simon of Buffalo, N. Y., Emil Edmonds and Dave Manley of Boston, Mass., and the following from New York City: Mr. and Mrs. J. Bogard, Russell A. and Ernest F. Cowles, Herbert Crowley, J. S. Kaufman and Miss Mary Johnston. Also spending today in the city are Mr. and Mrs. John Oak of Billings, Mont.

300 silk dresses. Real $25 value, on sale for $15, at Mann's Thursday, Friday and Saturday. See display in windows.

Tom Vint, architect of the National Parks service, will be in Medford tomorrow in consultation on construction items at Crater lake. His headquarters are in Los Angeles.

Don't forget the road eats at Talent club room, April 18.

A man arrived here today from the north after having been robbed by the driver of a car in which he had been a passenger. He states that able Stephens automobile picked him up and was carrying him north. He was forced to give up from $25 to $40 to the three men in the car and then forced to walk back to Grants Pass, the robbery having occurred near Three Pines. He described the car as a blue Stephens. The robbery occurred at 11 o'clock.—Grants Pass Courier.

Fancy creamery butter 43c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

Colonel C. F. Andrews, who is in command of the U. S. army recruiting office in the Portland district, left for Portland this forenoon after having spent Monday in this city looking over the affairs of the local recruiting office.

R. I. R. eggs at DeVoe's.

Forty-three fires in Oregon outside of Portland during March resulted in losses aggregating $88,912. All losses were comparatively small, the largest being involved in destruction of a church at St. Helens, $14,000.

The M. E. Ladies Aid will serve a cafeteria chicken pie supper in the club room of City Hall Thursday, April 16, beginning to serve at 5:30 and will continue until all are served.

Rev. F. R. Leach, who has accepted a call to the First Baptist church of Bremerton, Wash., offers his fine residence, 16 S. Laurel street, opposite the Washington school, for sale.

If you want a furnished apartment with all the modern conveniences, see or phone Hotel Holland.

J. T. Little, department assessor, has returned after spending the past week visiting with his sister in Los Angeles.

Place your orders early with Mrs. Trowbridge, 905 W. 10th street.

Miss Ethel Howard underwent an operation this morning for the removal of her tonsils.

Enjoy Medford made potato chips. At your grocer.

Out of town Oregonians who arrived in the city Monday include Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bates of Salem, L. R. White and W. H. McGuinn of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Cary V. Looney and Ralph E. Brown of Klamath Falls and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Crandall, W. C. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morris, H. R. Douglas, Homer P. Rainey and H. D. Roe.

Sensational dress sale at Mann's. $25 silk dresses for $15. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 16th, 17th, 18th. See display in windows.

Mrs. Charles Hooper of the Dead Indian section has gone to Roseburg to visit her daughter, Mrs. Dale Gully.

Uncle Abe and Aunt Hanna are a "scream" in "Diamond and Hearts" at high school auditorium, April 16.

Hemstitching 8c a yard. The Vanity Shop, Bartlett and Main.

We daily offer a variety of pastries and bread found only in the best shops of the larger cities.

Have you visited us lately?

The COLONIAL

So Oregon's Finest Bakery

Six new families were brought to Oregon last week by the land settlement department of the Chamber of Commerce, three of them settling in Josephine county, two in Lane and one in Douglas county. All six families purchased farm lands, according to W. G. Ide, manager of the department.

Two dollars never bought as good a vacuum bottle as we are offering for $3c, as Wednesday special. Heath's Haskin's Drug Store.

The Coos county court has voted to expend $2000 toward the erection of an arch at the entrance of the Coos Bay highway six miles south of Roseburg. The arch will cost $3800.

We pay cash for used pianos. Palmer Piano House.

Rev. J. W. Angell of Glendale, Ore., who is enroute to Klamath Falls to attend the Presbytery meeting, stopped over in Medford today.

We pay for ashes and sell dirt cheap. Brown & White Agency, Inc.

Miss Livingston, who with her brother, recently leased the Charles R. Conner ranch, was a local caller today.

The best 9c you ever spent, if you buy our aluminum tip cork vacuum bottle. Wednesday special. Heath's Haskin's Drug Store.

The Josephine Hotel company, of Grants Pass, capitalized at $200,000, filed articles of incorporation with the state corporation department last week. The incorporators are Al J. Martineau, J. F. Reddy and Mrs. Al J. Martineau.

The chance of a life time! 300 all silk dresses on sale at Mann's Thursday, Friday and Saturday. $25 value for $15.

Among the visitors in the city from the state of California are R. V. Wood of San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Leavell of Carmel, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Gregg, two children and nurse of Berkeley, C. E. Westenhaver, and A. A. Horey of Huntington Beach, Maurice M. Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Pipes, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Denny and Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham of Los Angeles and William Kelet, Jr., C. P. Klaffke, A. W. Copley, C. D. Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. M. Gilbert and W. H. Hammett of San Francisco.

Washed sand and gravel for your concrete work. Medford Sand & Gravel Co. Phone 1075.

E. A. Welch, of the Medford Grocery, who has been ill at the Sacred Heart hospital, is expected to be able to return to his home the latter part of the week.

Chal Strange is now behind the counter at the Auto Supply and Parts Co.

W. H. Eustad of Copco, Calif., is spending a few days in the city on business.

Wanted—Feeder hogs and pigs. Johnson Produce Co.

"I was raised in Jacksonville, Oregon, when it was nothing but a little mining camp," said Roy L. Farmer, at the Imperial from Salem, "and in those days it was a rough little place, with drinking, gambling and every other vice running rampant. When I was 12 I left the town and went to Salem, where I've been since."

Mr. Farmer is owner of the Ray L. Farmer Hardware company of Salem and has three married sons working for the concern. "I began working with the R. M. Wade hardware store at Salem and have since devoted all my time to the business. I've lived in Salem since 1917 and have been in the hardware at Commercial and Court streets for 42 years."

Mr. Farmer bought out the R. M. Wade company at Salem when that concern came to Portland.—Portland Journal.

Columbia plaster wall board. Call for prices. Wallace Wood Lumber Yard.

Dr. Loomis, accompanied by his wife, left Monday for Klamath Falls to spend a few days on business.

A rent buy at Mann's next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. 300 plain and printed silks, $25 values, for $15. Now on display in window.

Harold Corliss was among the Medford business visitors yesterday from Phoenix.

Unity literature teaches people how to be healthy, efficient, prosperous, harmonious and happy. Free distribution. 718 West Main street.

Hugh B. Rankin, of the local forest service office, left this forenoon for the Pelican Bay Lumber camp for Kirkford, on business in connection with a timber sale there.

Crater Lake Temple Band (D. O. K. C.) will give a concert and dance Wednesday, April 15. Nobody should miss this wonderful opportunity to have a good time.

Lou Kennedy, of the Portland Telegram, accompanied by his wife and two sons, stopped in the city a short time today while enroute from southern California to their home at Portland.

All roads will lead to Mann's next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. They will sell 300 new silk dresses, $25 values, for $15. See display in windows.

Mrs. Mary D. Moss, president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon, spent the week end in Ashland transacting official business in connection with the grand lodge session to be held in Ashland late next month. She left Monday morning for Lakeview where she will continue her work.

We cut and fit when you prefer to have us. Mrs. Trowbridge.

This year's daily record for registration of out of the state cars at the local registration bureau was broken yesterday when forty such cars registered, the majority from the south on route north, although auto travel has been heavy north and south for the past week.

The event of the season Wednesday, April 15. Concert and dance at the Armory Crater Lake Temple band (D. O. K. C.).

Keva Hutchinson left this morning to return to Copco, Calif., after a short call in the city with his parents.

Fancy creamery butter 43c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

Lawrence Lay of Wellen was in the city yesterday transacting business.

$2.40 bush No. 1 Yakima Netted. Gems at our ware house free from frost damage and no black spots which appear in most potatoes shipped from Idaho points. A few c's is nothing to compare with quality in buying potatoes. Johnson Produce Co. Phone 241 N. 1st St.

Cecil Clements of the Western orchards was in the city yesterday transacting business.

Call off all engagements for April 15 and go to the concert and dance at the Armory. Crater Lake Temple band (D. O. K. C.).

Howard A. (Tim) Fallon, who has been ticket clerk at the Southern Pacific station here, has been promoted to the position of chief clerk to A. S. Rosenbaum, district freight and passenger agent, with offices at Medford.—Grants Pass Courier.

Coal briquets, that clean fuel. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 329.

The following from Seattle are among the visitors in the city from the state of Washington: F. V. Gildner and family, B. W. Weger, H. Bronard, William J. Rhodes, J. C. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Morse, Dorothy Bosworth, Mrs. M. W. Spill and J. Snapp.

Columbia plaster wall board. Call for prices. Wallace Wood Lumber Yard.

Dr. B. P. Elliott has sold his four acres on the Jacksonville highway, through the Wing Agency, to E. L. Redpath, who intends to build a new bungalow there, construction of which will be begun at once.

Mrs. Hicks, the new marceller at the Medford Beauty Shop has had four years experience in marcelling. Third floor Medford building. Phone 191 for appointment.

Mr. and Mrs. George Whitman, for many years missionaries in China for the Baptist denomination, will arrive in Medford Wednesday and will speak at the prayer meeting of the First Baptist church tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Whitman is a member of the Baptist church of this city, having lived here for a short time. Mr. Ayard Whitman has been engaged as superintendent of the schools at Phoenix for next year. He is now teaching at Klamath Falls in the high school.

Girls, try an invigorator shampoo at Bowman and Barber's Beauty Shop, 12 So. Central avenue. Phone 362. 22c.

Mrs. R. M. McGee and Norine Perrine are among the Medford visitors having arrived in the city Monday from Ashland.

Washed sand for your stucco work. Medford Sand & Gravel Co. Phone 1075.

Among the Medford visitors in Grants Pass Sunday were J. W. Wakefield and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jaqua and George Eads and family.

Clean pea gravel for your roof work. Medford Sand & Gravel Co. Phone 1075.

F. J. McQuinn, a representative of the Pacific Fruit Express company, is a Medford visitor today from Portland, looking over the fruit situation in the valley in connection with the shipping of the fruit.

We pay for ashes and sell dirt cheap. Brown & White Agency, Inc.

Mrs. J. Frank Carson is a visitor in the city from Butte Falls, who arrived Monday.

Don't miss the big sale of plain and printed dresses at Mann's, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. $25 values for $15. See display in windows.

The Roosevelt Parent Teachers circle will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Following the annual election of officers there will be a program, the subject being "The Children's Leisure Hours During the Long Vacation." There will also be an exhibit of classified wild flowers.

Medford-Klamath freight line, nothing too large, nothing too small. Five trucks in operation to and from Klamath Falls. Daily service. We do long distance hauling anywhere. Office 40 N. Front street. Phone 1633.

Sergeant Grover Owen, who is in charge of the local U. S. army recruiting office, is back from having spent several days at Roseburg looking after recruiting in that city.

We keep you looking your best. Try Mrs. Hicks, Medford Beauty Shop, Phone 191 for appointment.

Generally clear weather is the prediction for Wednesday, following the weather of today which was of much cloudiness, alternating with periods of sunshine, and with a very warm temperature for this time of year. The maximum of yesterday was 77, and today's minimum was 54.

Have you tried that big milk shake at DeVoe's?

The Grants Pass high school basketball team suffered their second defeat of the season last Saturday when they went up against the strong Yreka aggregation for the second time. The Californians proved too much for the locals and took them down the line to a 16-5 defeat. The local boys found some of their weak spots and spread the remainder of the time before the league series opens getting in shape for the southern Oregon schools. Bilderback and Kincaid pitched for Grants Pass.—Grants Pass Courier.

Columbia plaster wall board. Call for prices. Wallace Wood Lumber Yard.

Fred L. Hopkin, well known local rancher, who has been critically ill at a local hospital the past week, died this afternoon just as this paper was going to press, which rendered impossible a more extended notice.

It pays to use washed sand for your plastering job. Medford Sand & Gravel Co. Phone 1075.

George Corum left Monday morning to return to Copco, Calif., after spending a short Easter vacation here with his family.

Clean washed sand for the kiddies to play in. Medford Sand & Gravel Co. Phone 1075.

Charles Klaffke of San Francisco arrived in the city yesterday and plans to spend several days in the valley on business and pleasure.

Why send to the city to get your furs cleaned, repaired or remodeled? We can do it cheaper and as good. Bartlett Fur Shop. New Theater building.

New camera not familiar with our repairing. Ask your neighbors. Bartlett Fur Shop. New Theater building.

A baby daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McGray today.

Coal briquets, that clean fuel. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 329.

Fancy creamery butter 43c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

Temporary sojourners in the city include the following from Portland: C. F. Andrews, E. N. Albrecht, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sleeman, G. R. Stevenson, Thomas de V. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Littler, Mrs. Charles F. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Bloom and child, H. L. Niles, J. B. Stam, Miss A. C. Javell, W. A. Coryen, C. W. Mott, Miss Edith Priebe, Harry A. Buch, F. G. Corso, F. Hickson, C. E. Clodfelter, Carl A. Kupper, E. S. Nelson, R. A. Jerauld, H. P. Harmer, M. F. Brownson, H. M. Wood, L. S. Coffin, R. A. Gray, L. T. Russell, D. E. Lee, L. A. Means and B. G. Manheimer.

Hemstitching, buttons covered at the Handicraft Shop.

Dry factory mill blocks. Valley Fuel Co.

Wiley Hemphill, sales manager of the Pacific Coast Coal company of Seattle, stopped in Medford for the first time Sunday, at the guest of Jerry Jerome, who took him to various points of interest in the valley. Mr. Hemphill was quite favorably impressed with the valley and plans to return in the summer with his family, visiting here a short time and motoring to Crater lake.

Dry factory mill blocks. Valley Fuel Co.

There was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bickertstaff of Mill Valley, Calif., this morning, an 8-pound daughter, Mrs. Bickertstaff was formerly Miss Patricia Miksch of this city.

Summer rates on all fur repairing. Bartlett Fur Shop. New Theater building.

G. W. Woodward of Havre, Montana, and W. R. Worthington, of Glendale, Montana, have been at Medford and Grants Pass visiting the Golden Rule stores. Mr. Woodward and Mr. Worthington are managers of Golden Rule stores in Montana and are visiting the Golden Rule stores in southern Oregon. They came here yesterday from Grants Pass.

Another big purchase by Mann's Dept. store enables them to sell 300 all silk dresses, $25 values for $15 next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Graded rock for driveway. Medford Sand & Gravel Co. Phone 1075.

Charles Klaffke of San Francisco arrived in the city yesterday and plans to spend several days in the valley on business and pleasure.

Why send to the city to get your furs cleaned, repaired or remodeled? We can do it cheaper and as good. Bartlett Fur Shop. New Theater building.

New camera not familiar with our repairing. Ask your neighbors. Bartlett Fur Shop. New Theater building.

A baby daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McGray today.

Coal briquets, that clean fuel. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 329.

Fancy creamery butter 43c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

Temporary sojourners in the city include the following from Portland: C. F. Andrews, E. N. Albrecht, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sleeman, G. R. Stevenson, Thomas de V. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Littler, Mrs. Charles F. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Bloom and child, H. L. Niles, J. B. Stam, Miss A. C. Javell, W. A. Coryen, C. W. Mott, Miss Edith Priebe, Harry A. Buch, F. G. Corso, F. Hickson, C. E. Clodfelter, Carl A. Kupper, E. S. Nelson, R. A. Jerauld, H. P. Harmer, M. F. Brownson, H. M. Wood, L. S. Coffin, R. A. Gray, L. T. Russell, D. E. Lee, L. A. Means and B. G. Manheimer.

Hemstitching, buttons covered at the Handicraft Shop.

Dry factory mill blocks. Valley Fuel Co.

Wiley Hemphill, sales manager of the Pacific Coast Coal company of Seattle, stopped in Medford for the first time Sunday, at the guest of Jerry Jerome, who took him to various points of interest in the valley. Mr. Hemphill was quite favorably impressed with the valley and plans to return in the summer with his family, visiting here a short time and motoring to Crater lake.

Dry factory mill blocks. Valley Fuel Co.

There was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bickertstaff of Mill Valley, Calif., this morning, an 8-pound daughter, Mrs. Bickertstaff was formerly Miss Patricia Miksch of this city.

Summer rates on all fur repairing. Bartlett Fur Shop. New Theater building.

G. W. Woodward of Havre, Montana, and W. R. Worthington, of Glendale, Montana, have been at Medford and Grants Pass visiting the Golden Rule stores. Mr. Woodward and Mr. Worthington are managers of Golden Rule stores in Montana and are visiting the Golden Rule stores in southern Oregon. They came here yesterday from Grants Pass.

Another big purchase by Mann's Dept. store enables them to sell 300 all silk dresses, $25 values for $15 next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Graded rock for driveway. Medford Sand & Gravel Co. Phone 1075.

Charles Klaffke of San Francisco arrived in the city yesterday and plans to spend several days in the valley on business and pleasure.

Why send to the city to get your furs cleaned, repaired or remodeled? We can do it cheaper and as good. Bartlett Fur Shop. New Theater building.

New camera not familiar with our repairing. Ask your neighbors. Bartlett Fur Shop. New Theater building.

A baby daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McGray today.

Coal briquets, that clean fuel. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 329.

Fancy creamery butter 43c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

Temporary sojourners in the city include the following from Portland: C. F. Andrews, E. N. Albrecht, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sleeman, G. R. Stevenson, Thomas de V. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Littler, Mrs. Charles F. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Bloom and child, H. L. Niles, J. B. Stam, Miss A. C. Javell, W. A. Coryen, C. W. Mott, Miss Edith Priebe, Harry A. Buch, F. G. Corso, F. Hickson, C. E. Clodfelter, Carl A. Kupper, E. S. Nelson, R. A. Jerauld, H. P. Harmer, M. F. Brownson, H. M. Wood, L. S. Coffin, R. A. Gray, L. T. Russell, D. E. Lee, L. A. Means and B. G. Manheimer.

Hemstitching, buttons covered at the Handicraft Shop.

Dry factory mill blocks. Valley Fuel Co.

Wiley Hemphill, sales manager of the Pacific Coast Coal company of Seattle, stopped in Medford for the first time Sunday, at the guest of Jerry Jerome, who took him to various points of interest in the valley. Mr. Hemphill was quite favorably impressed with the valley and plans to return in the summer with his family, visiting here a short time and motoring to Crater lake.

Dry factory mill blocks. Valley Fuel Co.

There was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bickertstaff of Mill Valley, Calif., this morning, an 8-pound daughter, Mrs. Bickertstaff was formerly Miss Patricia Miksch of this city.

Summer rates on all fur repairing. Bartlett Fur Shop. New Theater building.

G. W. Woodward of Havre, Montana, and W. R. Worthington, of Glendale, Montana, have been at Medford and Grants Pass visiting the Golden Rule stores. Mr. Woodward and Mr. Worthington are managers of Golden Rule stores in Montana and are visiting the Golden Rule stores in southern Oregon. They came here yesterday from Grants Pass.

Another big purchase by Mann's Dept. store enables them to sell 300 all silk dresses, $25 values for $15 next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Graded rock for driveway. Medford Sand & Gravel Co. Phone 1075.

Charles Klaffke of San Francisco arrived in the city yesterday and plans to spend several days in the valley on business and pleasure.

Why send to the city to get your furs cleaned, repaired or remodeled? We can do it cheaper and as good. Bartlett Fur Shop. New Theater building.

New camera not familiar with our repairing. Ask your neighbors. Bartlett Fur Shop. New Theater building.

A baby daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McGray today.

Coal briquets, that clean fuel. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 329.

Fancy creamery butter 43c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

Temporary sojourners in the city include the following from Portland: C. F. Andrews, E. N. Albrecht, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sleeman, G. R. Stevenson, Thomas de V. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Littler, Mrs. Charles F. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Bloom and child, H. L. Niles, J. B. Stam, Miss A. C. Javell, W. A. Coryen, C. W. Mott, Miss Edith Priebe, Harry A. Buch, F. G. Corso, F. Hickson, C. E. Clodfelter, Carl A. Kupper, E. S. Nelson, R. A. Jerauld, H. P. Harmer, M. F. Brownson, H. M. Wood, L. S. Coffin, R. A. Gray, L. T. Russell, D. E. Lee, L. A. Means and B. G. Manheimer.

Hemstitching, buttons covered at the Handicraft Shop.

Dry factory mill blocks. Valley Fuel Co.

Wiley Hemphill, sales manager of the Pacific Coast Coal company of Seattle, stopped in Medford for the first time Sunday, at the guest of Jerry Jerome, who took him to various points of interest in the valley. Mr. Hemphill was quite favorably impressed with the valley and plans to return in the summer with his family, visiting here a short time and motoring to Crater lake.

Dry factory mill blocks. Valley Fuel Co.

There was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bickertstaff of Mill Valley, Calif., this morning, an 8-pound daughter, Mrs. Bickertstaff was formerly Miss Patricia Miksch of this city.

Summer rates on all fur repairing. Bartlett Fur Shop. New Theater building.

G. W. Woodward of Havre, Montana, and W. R. Worthington, of Glendale, Montana, have been at Medford and Grants Pass visiting the Golden Rule stores. Mr. Woodward and Mr. Worthington are managers of Golden Rule stores in Montana and are visiting the Golden Rule stores in southern Oregon. They came here yesterday from Grants Pass.

Another big purchase by Mann's Dept. store enables them to sell 300 all silk dresses, $25 values for $15 next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Graded rock for driveway. Medford Sand & Gravel Co. Phone 1075.

If It's Insurance Ask

Let
HOLMES HELP
When
HAIL HITS

R. A. Holmes
The Insurance Man Since 1909
Phone-444

Vaudeville
(N. V. A. Week)

TONIGHT
7:00 and 9:00
General Admission, 50c
Children, 25c

HERBERT CROWLEY
Presents
"The Different Revue"
With 7—