

BRINGING UP FATHER

NEW SERVICE STATION TO BE ERECTED NEAR THE HOTEL MEDFORD

Medford is to have another service station on the west side of the city, as the city council last night granted a permit to E. Schuler and Ted Fish to construct such an establishment at the corner of West Main and Ivy streets, just east of the Hotel Medford on the narrow strip of ground purchased by Dr. R. J. Conroy last winter from Ray Tott, a part of his Fountain Lodge property. This ground has been purchased by the new service station owners.

The work of building the new establishment, which will be a modern concrete structure of handsome design, with a 35 foot front on Main street and 140 feet on North Ivy street, will be begun in the very near future. Inasmuch as this location is in the zone which permits service stations, the permit matter was not referred to the City Planning commission, but was handled direct by the city council, as were all the other down town permits for service stations.

INJUNCTION ISSUED IN JENNINGS CASE

A temporary injunction was issued Tuesday by County Judge Hartzell, upon the application of Kenneth Forbes, April 27th was set as the date of the hearing to make the injunction permanent.

Forbes secured the injunction against Sheriff Ralph Jennings, and his divorced wife, Hazel Elsie Raymond. The sheriff is restrained from filing any legal action against a parcel of land owned by Forbes near Gold Hill, that his former wife may take, to force payment on alleged divorce expenses due.

BONDS FILED IN VON DER HELLEN-OLDS CASE

In the appeal to the state supreme court of William von der Hellen and Eugene Dietz, from the judgment in favor of M. D. Olds, capitalist and former owner of the P. & E. railroad, bonds of undertaking were filed and approved Tuesday, C. B. Peterson and J. P. Brown of Eagle Point are the bondsmen. Olds sued the defendants for $4000 damages, as a result of alleged negligence resulting in the burning of the Eagle Point depot in August, 1922, on the part of the appellants. A jury decided in favor of Olds.
