

TOM SWEM WILL HAVE CHARGE OF STAGING H. S. PLAY

Work on the scenery for the high school senior play, "All of a Sudden Peggy," has been begun under the direction of Tom Swem. Because of the nature of the play, the staging will be more elaborate than that made for any preceding high school production. A special set of scenery will be made for the country home of the Crankenthorpes in the first and third acts. Besides the walls and old-fashioned bow windows, a staircase with two landings as well as a balcony extending across the stage is being constructed. Another special scene is being prepared for Jimmy Keppel's bachelor apartment in the second act. An interesting fireplaces is one of the outstanding features. Mr. Swem, of the manual training department, and a committee of senior boys are devoting every spare minute to this undertaking. The members of the stage committee who are working with Harold Sander, the chairman, are Lester Bennett, Charles Wakefield, Ernest Hurt, Gilbert Knips and Vernon Turpin.

Tickets for the play will be in the hands of all seniors Friday, April 24. These tickets can be exchanged for reserved seats at the box office of the Craterian, Wednesday, April 22 at 12 o'clock. The prices are $1.25 for the first 18 rows downstairs; $1.00 for the remaining downstairs seats and the first two rows in the balcony; 75 cents for all other seats.

Dick Posey Recital Presbyterian Church Tomorrow Evening

All who have enjoyed the original poems of R. P. Campbell, otherwise known as Dick Posey, at the Lincoln club lunquets and that are appearing each week as a feature of the woman's page of the Sun are urged to attend the recital of Mr. Campbell at the Presbyterian church tomorrow, Friday evening.

"Dick" has some new numbers, as well as several of the former popular selections.

The price of admission is only 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

The Screen

Miss Talmadge Stars.
The northwest premiere showing of the screen version of Martin Brown's sensational melodramatic comedy, "The Lady," at the Hunt's Craterian is another evidence that Norma Talmadge is undoubtedly the greatest "silent drama" actress in the world today. As Polly Peary in "The Lady," Norma has staged a come back (if indeed she was ever actually away).

Added by a great story, some truly marvelous photography, and what amounts to super-direction, "Queen Norma" fairly sweeps her audiences off their chairs by the variety and virility of the many emotions for which her role calls.

Altogether, the new Hunt's Craterian bill is a splendid one from start to finish—and those of you who miss "Queen Norma" in "The Lady" are not going to qualify for an "agony" on your tombstones to the effect that you "got the heat out of life."

At the Rialto.
Lavish staging and unusually fine acting characterize "A Thief the Paradise," which closes at the Rialto theatre tonight. The play places on the psychological reaction of a man who has tasted the bitter drops of life and takes what is not rightfully his own property in an effort to gain position such as he held before his descent into the depths.

"Wine of Youth," begins an engagement of two days at the Rialto theatre tomorrow matinee. It is adapted to the screen from Rachel Crothers' stage success, "Mary the Third," is a whimsical story of modern youth, treated for the most part in a light, humorous vein. It will introduce again to the screen here Eleanor Boardman.

Colleen Moore Off for Europe

You Can Depend upon GENERAL

TEST records show that as between the quality of the first shipment of GENERAL Gasoline for motor car use, which arrived here more than a year ago, and the shipment which is being distributed by our Independent Dealers today, there is no difference!

In other words, GENERAL remains unchanged. It is the same peppy, clean-burning, power-giving, old-fashioned gas that first sold itself, on its merits alone, to thousands of motorists in this territory.

Most drivers appreciate this great dependability of GENERAL. They like to know that the GENERAL that goes into their tanks today will be the same superior fuel they got six months ago. Spring, Summer—any season—you can depend upon GENERAL. It is planned for the purpose for which it is sold.
