EBEN PRECINCT

By Mary O. Carey.

Mr. Hart of Talent was a Medford business visitor last Friday, and stopped at the Plant farm on his way home to see how the plants were progressing. Mr. Hart has only lately bought a fine little garden place near Talent.

Mrs. J. S. Bonar entertained the Poling family and Mrs. Vincent at her pleasant home west of Phoenix with a dinner on Easter Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Pruitt spent last Thursday at the home of Mrs. S. P. Barnburg.

Mrs. M. Rose has been quite ill with flu at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Cate, in Medford.

Mrs. J. E. Roberts was calling at the Louie Colver home last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Will High were business callers at the home of Mr. Bowles, near Phoenix. Mr. Bowles is doing a Herculean task of grubbing out a tract of pine and laurel stumps on his place.

Mrs. J. E. Fish received her 500 baby chicks this week and has them installed in the brooding house.

George Hartley of North Talent, made a flying trip to Albany last of the week, only staying a short time. George says this valley is much ahead of that country, in the growing of crops.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. N. Poling of East Eden were visiting at the home of Mr. Poling's sister, Mrs. Young, in North Talent Wednesday afternoon and took Mrs. Lydia Vincent to Medford to get the northbound train Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Kenan of Phoenix has been spending several days at Hill, where her husband has charge of the lumber mill. Mrs. Kenan returned home the first of the week.

Many of the farmers in these parts are considerably disappointed that the cheese factory did not materialize.

Many of them had ordered the equipment for cooling the milk, and other needed articles, for getting ready to deliver the new milk. The cheese factory is a much needed industry, and would bring thousands of dollars to both farmers and creamery men, if it were put through.

At this time of the year, one of the most beautiful of our native flowering trees are in bloom, namely the laurels, or materone. It is a close rival of the magnolia. Many of the trees are heavily covered with their white bell shaped flowers, and their fragrance is most pleasing. The glossy green of the leaves are identical with those of the magnolia, and are of the evergreen family. Phoenix and vicinity is famous for these natural beauties.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lester, on April 18th, a six and a half pound girl, at the Community hospital in Medford. Mother and baby are doing nicely. This being the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pruitt, they are feeling quite proud.

Another birth, which is of interest to many, is a girl baby born April 9th, to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hilton. Mrs. Hilton was formerly Miss Marion Barnum.

Mrs. Lydia Vincent of Phillipsburg, Kansas, left Wednesday evening for Warrenton, Oregon, to visit another of her daughters, after spending two weeks with her daughter here, Mrs. J. O. N. Poling of East Eden.

Mrs. S. P. Barnburg of East Eden entertained with a dinner Wednesday in honor of her friend, Mrs. Gladys Caffery of Montana, who is in the valley for a few days. Mrs. Caffery will go on to Long Beach, Calif., to visit a sister, before returning home.

H. H. Barnburg and his nephew, Harry Barnburg, have opened up a butcher shop in Medford, where they will continue in business for themselves. Harry has been in the shops in Medford for several years.

Mrs. M. F. Sheets of Phoenix entertained Mr. and Mrs. Poling and Mrs. Lydia Vincent at dinner last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Rankin of Medford, were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Chandler last Sunday evening.

C. Carey and A. S. Furry were Medford visitors last Friday, attending to business.

Jay Gore brought out a load of wheat to Talent merchants last Wednesday, and left a half ton at the Carey ranch.

Word has been received that the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jacobson of Rogue River, is still in a very critical condition. The parents having taken the little fellow to Portland again, but received no encouragement from the doctors there.

E. G. Lockwood has set his fine new tract of land out to pear trees, where he will have his colonial house among the trees. Mr. Lockwood also has a number of bee colonies, and the bees are fond of pear blossoms in their blooming season. Mr. Lockwood is raising several hundred chicks for his own use this spring.

Anderson creek was almost out of its banks Monday of this week, and it came near overflowing C. Carey's garden. It is not known if the flood was the overflow of the Talent ditch, or from melting snow.

The wet weather which has continued so long this spring, is causing the taxpayers in East Eden to cry mightily for work on their roads. Most of them are impassable.

RIVERSIDE RIPPLES

Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart of Bremerton, Wash., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Elliott a few days last week.

Miss Pauline Champlin was unable to attend school Friday on account of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Rayburn Hunt and Mrs. Beatrice Jones were Medford visitors Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Hall of the Pickett ranch was in Medford on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wahl of Medford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wahl, Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Jane McQuat of Medford spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul McQuat of Riverside.

The dance at the club house Saturday night was a very enjoyable affair. Another one will be given on May 2.

Miss Elsie Straus of Sams Valley

APPEGATE

The junior senior play was staged by the high school students at the community hall Saturday evening, April 18.

Notwithstanding the roads were bad and the rain was coming down in sheets, the attendance was good. The play was a success from start to finish. Miss Anderson played the piano between acts.

Arrangements have been made to give the play, "Cheer Up Chad" at Jacksonville Saturday evening, April 25, 8 p. m. A good many people who were not able to attend will have a chance to see the play at Jacksonville.

SPRING FEVER puts the brakes on many of us every year. Thoughtlessly we continue to eat the heavy foods of winter that clog the system and slow us up. In grandmother's day everybody took a spring tonic.

Today, in the best of families, they change the diet.

Try it this spring. Eat Tru-Blu Grahams and milk daily for a week.

They're chockful of the vitamins that build strength, the mineral salts that build bone—and of bran that helps nature purify the blood.
