

Local and Personal

The members of the local fire department in full regalia and with all the fire fighting apparatus, as well as most of the councilmen and the mayor, O. O. Alenderfer, assembled on the Southern Pacific grounds by the station this forenoon at 10:30 o'clock, and proceeded to pose while John Palmer took their pictures. No one was injured.

Valley Hide & Junk Co. will buy all your old rags and junk. Call 1176, Valley Hide & Junk Co., 221 No. Fir street.

Girls try our invigorating shampoo at Bowman & Barber's Beauty Shoppe, 12 South Central. Phone 362.

"Mrs. Alice Sargent has been very seriously ill, but we are pleased to report, she is recovering nicely," says the Jacksonville Post.

"A fine party." That's what they all say about the "Pavilion parties" and the Fair Grounds. Come out and judge for yourself tonight.

Homemade eats at Phoenix City Hall all day Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Welch and children of Eldorado, Kansas, were in Medford today en route to Seattle, where they will visit Mrs. Welch's sister and probably locate. They have made the trip in an auto and have been on the way four weeks today, taking their time. Mr. Welch was a city mail carrier in Eldorado for five years. They like the coast very much and are delighted with the good roads of Oregon.

Sewing machines, good condition. Drop heads $10. Singer Co., 10 South Fir.

R. L. H. eggs at DeVos's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Shearer, the eminent Scottish organist and soloist, who are to give a concert Sunday evening at the First Baptist church, arrived in Medford last night and are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Howard for several days. A rare treat is predicted to be in store for all who hear these well known artists.

Give your feet a treat, folks! Come out and "step" to the inspiring strains of "Ditty" Moore's all star Pavilion orchestra. You'll be surprised! Fair Ground Pavilion. Tonight.

Coal briquets, that clean fuel. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva J. Niles of Tulsa, Okla., and E. C. Hall of Chicago, are among the hotel guests in Medford from distant points, as were J. A. Litchell of Walnut Grove, Minn., and R. R. Alexander of Boise, Idaho.

Genuine abalone blister pearl dinner rings, sterling $1.45. Japanese Art Store.

Dance at Murphy tonight, music by the Melodians. For supper: hot roast beef, brown gravy, potatoes, baked beans, cottage cheese, hot rolls, peaches and cream. Dance tickets $1.10. Supper 50c plate.

Yreka Lions will receive their charter Saturday night at which time big state officers will be here as well as delegations from Salem, Medford and Cottage Grove, Oregon, and from all clubs of the county, with the Yreka Lions as hosts serving an eight o'clock banquet at Yreka Inn where the meeting follows.—Yreka Journal.

Get a real marcel at 113 E. Main street, Barber shop. Phone 544. Ruth Pickett.

Have you heard the new tuba? Don't miss it! Fair Grounds Pavilion. Tonight.

Rev. Lillian Gray will preach tonight at the local Salvation Army, 4th and Bartlett, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Gray, who is pastor of Eugene's Free Methodist church, was formerly an active worker in the Salvation Army. All are invited to hear her.

C. C. Cate recommends oil for control of coddling moth eggs. Order now to get in on next car load of Sherman Williams free emulsion. Guy W. Conner. Phone 64.

The best trap drummer in southern Oregon! Fair Grounds Pavilion. Tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. George Olin and daughter of Glendale, were among the Copco visitors who attended the Copco Forum entertainment last evening.

Ye Old Time dance, Saturday night, third floor, Medford building.

We are shipping in butter from a creamery that is paying Portland butter fat prices, because creameries make about one hundred and twenty-two pounds of butter from one hundred pounds of butter fat. This creamery is glad to sell butter for what they are paying for the butter fat or even less, as the over run in the butter fat gives them a nice take off. We are paying freight on this butter, selling it for less than local dealers and making money. Seems like the consumer is the goat for some of the local merchants, because they pledge themselves to handle nothing but Medford butter. We offer butter today, 40c per lb. Johnson Produce Co., 241 N. Fir street. Phone 97.

Visitors in the city from the state of California include: George L. Miller of Burlingame, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Simmons of Sacramento, S. E. Butler of Yreka, H. M. Edmonds of Dunsmuir, R. V. Dickason of Long Beach, M. E. Norton and W. E. Stevens of Los Angeles and the following from San Francisco: John J. Mook, R. H. Partridge, M. P. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Prater, F. Stolle, Mr. and Mrs. D. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Oakley, R. C. Deppen, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Zean, F. A. Auger and Tom Emerson.

C. C. Cate recommends oil for control of coddling moth eggs. Order now to get in on next car load of Sherman Williams free emulsion. Guy W. Conner. Phone 64.

Ye Old Time dance, Saturday night, third floor, Medford building.

A message of special interest at the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. will be on the theme "Where are those who die with a Christian's faith?" The girls' chorus which leads the singing and furnishes special music is receiving many words of commendation for the fine music which they are supplying at the evening service. The announcement is made that George Maddox will sing for the last time with the quartet at the morning service, as he intends to leave soon for his engagement with the Ellison White Chautauque for the summer season. The theme at that service will be "Faith and Works" following on "The Triumph of Faith" as given last Sabbath morning.

Fancy creamery butter 40c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

Princess slips for girls from 2 to 16 years, trimmed with lace and embroidery, made of nice fine material. Special for Friday and Saturday, 95c. Handicraft Shop.

Wanted—Feeder hogs and pigs. Johnson Produce Co.

The Copco baseball team will meet the Ruth team at Ruth, Sunday at 2:30 p. m. All players and fans are requested to meet at the home office building at 1 p. m., where there will be transportation for all not having same. A good game is expected and a good attendance is desired.

Demand the best! It costs no more! Fair Grounds Pavilion, tonight.

Its the cut of the garment that tells the story. Mrs. Trowbridge will cut and fit at a surprisingly low figure.

Mrs. W. M. Elmendorf of Los Angeles and Mrs. J. B. Threlkeld of San Francisco are visiting their mother, Mrs. T. W. Petch.

Dance Eagle Point, Saturday night.

Have your brakes relined today. We speed up brake relining jobs with special equipment. Riverside Garage, 132 S. Riverside.

State, county and city authorities are today searching for A. W. Featherkille, Conaling, California man, who disappeared sometime Wednesday night or Thursday morning. Featherkille was being held here by State Traffic Officer J. J. McMahon, following an automobile accident on the Skagit county several days ago, in which Featherkille's car was badly damaged, and a car driven by J. B. Zetmiller of Siltom Springs, Arkansas, was nearly driven over the bank. Mrs. Zetmiller was painfully injured when she was thrown through the windshield, but escaped serious injury.—Ashland Tidings.

A well dressed appearance at all times because Mrs. Trowbridge does her cutting and fitting.

The new wide lace handings and laces for trimming dresses have arrived at the Handicraft Shop. Call and see the beautiful patterns.

O. C. Brink of Rogue River was fined $10 in Judge Taylor's court in this city yesterday for driving a car without an operator's license, following his arrest on that charge by State Traffic Officer McMahon.

A dance "worth while" Fair Grounds Pavilion! Tonight.

We pay for ashes and sell dirt cheap. Brown & White Agency, Inc.

J. F. Kennedy of Albany, W. L. Eyster of Eugene, Thomas H. News and P. C. Ockelman of Roseburg and J. R. Buck and George E. Emery are among the out of town Oregonians in the city.

Wade DeRyck Sewing school, 331 E. Main. Phone 110, has added to regular program the opportunity of finishing garments under instructive guidance or doing any kind of sewing at school at 25c an hour, every afternoon from one to five, except Thursdays.

Fancy creamery butter 40c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

Sylvia Isaacson and Gladys Cobbs of the Applegate are guests at the Hotel Medford who arrived in the city Friday.

For sale, beautiful red and white red cocker spaniel puppies, 4 months old at peak, from ten generations of champions. Mrs. Bert Anderson, 1501 West Main street.

Before you plan any wash dresses for yourself and your children come in and examine our display of Everfast wash fabrics. You will find here a full range of beautiful fabrics in a fascinating array of colors which give you new inspiration for your spring sewing. Handicraft Shop.

Evangelist Mrs. J. M. Robison of Portland will be asked to conduct an evangelistic campaign in Medford if a suitable building can be obtained. Mrs. Robison is said to be a woman of ability who has conducted many successful revivals on the coast.

Everfast materials are guaranteed. If any Everfast fabric fades for any reason we will refund to you not only the purchase price of the material but the making cost of the garment as well. Call and see our many beautiful fabrics and colors, at the Handicraft Shop.

Just arrived—a new shipment of laces that will sell for 5c to 8c per yard. Just what you want for trimming your spring dresses and undies. Handicraft Shop.

Mrs. E. C. Brown and baby, Edwin, came home Monday from Yreka hospital. Both mother and son are doing nicely. Mrs. Arthur Grubb of Medford, Mrs. Browne's sister, has been special nurse for Mrs. Browne.—Yreka Journal.

Unity literature teaches people how to be healthy, efficient, prosperous, harmonious and happy. Free distribution. 718 West Main street.

Everfast materials make attractive porch cushions, window drapes, luncheon sets, guest towels, table runners, and bed sets, is guaranteed sunfast and wash fast. A complete line at the Handicraft Shop.

Another heavy frost is predicted by the San Francisco weather bureau for tonight, following the frost here of this morning, with a minimum of 31.2. Fair weather is predicted for tonight and warmer weather for Sunday.

Medford-Klamath freight line, nothing too large, nothing too small. Five trucks in operation to and from Klamath Falls. Daily service. We do long distance hauling anywhere. Office 40 N. Front street. Phone 1032.

A nice line of Princess slips neatly made of good quality nainsook, trimmed with lace and embroidery. Sizes 2 to 16 years. Sale Friday and Saturday, 95c. Handicraft Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Trowbridge and J. W. Wakefield were among the Medford people motoring to Grants Pass last evening.

Special for Friday and Saturday. Sale of white Princess slips for girls, 2 to 16 years, 95c. Handicraft Shop.

Columbia plaster wall board. Call for prices. Wallace Wood Lumber Yard.

Dr. and Mrs. Ottedal of Riddle were calling on friends in this city Monday, the doctor having come to visit a patient in a Medford hospital.—Jacksonville Post.

Have you tried that big milk shake at DeVos's?

Coal briquets, that clean fuel. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239.

Mr. Lee Straub, engineer in charge of construction of the new gas plant at Grants Pass gave a most informal talk to the Men's club of St. Mark's parish Wednesday evening on the history and development of the gas industry.

Princess slips for girls from 2 to 16 years, trimmed with lace and embroidery, made of nice fine material. Special for Friday and Saturday, 95c. Handicraft Shop.

Greenwich Village Follies will come direct to Medford from Santa Barbara, Calif., on a special train and will only play three cities in Oregon, going from Portland to Seattle and then leave for the east. This is quite an honor to the theater going public of Medford and vicinity and to the Geo. A. Hunt company.

Hear Bobby Neilson, that clever violinist. Fair Grounds Pavilion. Tonight.

Columbia plaster wall board. Call for prices. Wallace Wood Lumber yard.

"A Thought of Him," a sacred duet for tenor and alto or soprano and alto, has lately been issued by D. E. Millard of Woodland, Calif., and has been quite a popular seller. The Root Music company of Medford have the songs for sale.

Everfast materials are excellent for children's frocks. The hottest sunshine and repeated washing will not fade them. Comes in a wide range of gay and attractive colors. Handicraft Shop.

Hemstitching, buttons covered at the Handicraft Shop.

The following from Portland are among Friday's arrivals in the city: W. L. Duncan, M. Friedenthal, Howard Word, O. B. Edgett, M. L. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Bloom, E. H. Porter, R. E. Worrell, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Woodward, E. V. Knox, J. H. Dunn, W. J. MacKenzie, E. T. Albert, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McKinley, Mrs. Stella Hume, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Martin, Clara F. Fleming, B. R. Allquist, Harvey Jones, W. D. Craddock, C. L. Andrews, W. O. Lutz, M. H. Nichols, Truman Northrup and W. A. Willis.

Fancy creamery butter 40c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

H. M. Edmonds of Dunsmuir returned to his home today after attending the monthly "progress meeting" of the Copco organization.

$2.40 buys No. 1 Yakima Netted Gems at our ware house free from frost damage and no black spots which appears in most potatoes shipped from Idaho points. A few cents is nothing to compare with quality in buying potatoes. Johnson Produce Co. Phone 241 N. J. St.

The increasing popularity of the "Pavilion parties" at the Fair grounds is said to be due in no small measure to the excellent dance music supplied by the new Pavilion orchestra.

If you want to learn to play the saxophone, see Carl Loveland, at The George Andrews' Studios, Sparta building. Phone 323-J.

J. L. Lind was among the local business visitors yesterday from Eagle Point.

Columbia plaster wall board. Call for prices. Wallace Wood Lumber Yard.

One hundred members, assuring the establishment of a golf club near Klamath Falls, will be met on today, according to local boosters for the game, who met in the chamber of commerce rooms last night. Incorporation papers will be drawn up today and forwarded to the secretary of state, and the name of the organization will be known as the "Klamath Golf and Country club." Four prospective sites for the club are under consideration, but more are not barred, according to the leaders in the move, the four places being located from three to nine miles from town. The whole membership will have a voice in the final choosing, according to the present plans.—Klamath News.

We pay cash for used pianos. Palmer Piano House.

Mrs. Howard Hill of the Central Point district is reported as recovering from a recent attack of the flu.

We pay for ashes and sell dirt cheap. Brown & White Agency, Inc.

Rev. and Mrs. DeVos and son Paul are attending the Epworth League convention at Grants Pass today. The other delegates from here are Peter Bateman and sister Lauretta, Miss Marion Johnson, Miss Pauline Shewey, George Bateman and Lloyd Whitlock.

Carl Loveland is now teaching the saxophone at the George Andrews' Studios in the Sparta building. Phone 323-J.

Harry Davis returned yesterday from Marshfield where he has been transacting business for the past week. Have your piano tuned by Carl Loveland, work guaranteed. George Andrews' Studios, Sparta building. Phone 323-J.

R. R. Alexander, who has a book business and teachers' agency at Boise, Idaho, was a Medford caller today, en route to San Francisco, where he intends to move his business this summer.

The new Everfast materials are arriving daily at the Handicraft Shop. Some of the different weaves are pebble, silverglaze, kindergarten, fine weave, daintyweave, shantone, cameo voile, royal rib and broadcloth. We also have a complete line of linens, suitings and gingham.

The local D. O. K. K. band and a number of the Medford D. O. K. K. temple, motored to Grants Pass last night to help stage a ceremonial there. The band was an important feature of the evening, having a prominent place in the parade, the band concert and the initiation ceremony. At this meeting H. C. Wortman was elected as the supreme representative to the Imperial Palace at Providence, R. I., this summer, with Wilson Walte and C. M. Thomas as alternates.

Chinese parasols, sun proof and shower proof, 95c. Japanese Art and Curio Store.

J. H. Jackson of Copco, Calif., was a business visitor in the city Friday. Hemstitching at a yard. The Vanity Shop, Bartlett and Main.

A new schedule of fees for the use of grazing lands, averaging an advance of 75 per cent over the present charges, has been drawn up by the forestry service and submitted to the secretary of agriculture, Colonel William B. Greeley, head of the forest service told the senate public lands committee this week. Colonel Greeley said that in Arizona, the fee is less under the new schedule than is charged now, because of drought conditions, while in California, Oregon, Idaho and Nevada the fee is nearly double the present rate.

Dance Eagle Point, Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Antle, Mrs. J. S. Antle and Mrs. M. E. Schuchard returned Thursday from a four month's sojourn in Pasadena, Calif.

Pretty new patterns in dainty laces selling for 5 to 8c per yard. Handicraft Shop.

J. R. Dickinson, president of the Grinnell automotive sprinkler company, was a Medford visitor Friday from Los Angeles.

Dance Eagle Point, Saturday night.

Have you tried that big milk shake at DeVos's?

Coal briquets, that clean fuel. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239.

Princess slips for girls from 2 to 16 years, trimmed with lace and embroidery, made of nice fine material. Special for Friday and Saturday, 95c. Handicraft Shop.

Linn W. Smith, who was in a hurry to get home the other day, speeded his car at 40 miles an hour on the Pacific highway, until Traffic Officer J. J. McMahon interfered, and on his plea of guilty in Judge Taylor's court yesterday was fined $10.

Dance Eagle Point, Saturday night.

Among the persons arriving in the city Friday from Klamath county were: Mrs. F. A. Baker of the Klamath agency, Mrs. J. F. Kimball, Miss Eola Hawkins, K. G. Klahn, Mrs. H. R. Harrison, Matt Kohn and Mrs. H. Kohn of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. J. S. Prime, Mrs. Harold Brandenburg, Mrs. A. R. Tenbrook, Mrs. J. J. Vallie, Mrs. P. S. Fish and Mrs. Virginia Neyalle of Chiloquin.

If you want a furnished apartment with all the modern conveniences, see or phone Hotel Holland.

The Rotarians of Medford, Roseburg, Grants Pass, etc., will visit the new Copco project work tomorrow as guests of the California Oregon Power company. Departure from here by auto will be at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning from the Chamber of Commerce building, and the excursionists will arrive back in the city about 7:30 Sunday night.

Dry factory mill blocks. Valley Fuel Co.

Mrs. George Barker of Butte Falls, who has been quite ill at the Sacred Heart hospital for some time past with an attack of the flu, returned to her home yesterday, having sufficiently recovered.

Ye Old Time dance, Saturday night, third floor, Medford building.

T. H. Ness and F. C. Ockelman of Roseburg were among the Copco representatives in attendance at the monthly conference in this city yesterday.

Mrs. Trowbridge, creator of dresses, 905 W. 10th street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Foster of Chiloquin and Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Whitcomb, P. B. Bartlett, A. A. Gardner, V. A. Berli, P. C. Cole and Leon Hewlett of Seattle are among the temporary Medford sojourners from the state of Washington.

Fire place screens at the Japanese Art Store.

Rev. D. D. Dodge of Grants Pass will occupy the pulpit of the Free Methodist church tonight and Sunday in place of Rev. Jerome as announced in the regular church notices. Last night Captain and Mrs. Pitt sang two duets very acceptable. The meetings will continue one more week.

Dry factory mill blocks. Valley Fuel Co.

Three lumbermen were arrested by Roy Parr yesterday for allowing sawdust to be cast into the waters of the state of Oregon. George Carter, who operates a sawmill on Cottonwood creek was fined $20 by Judge Gowdy. Theodore Andorga, operator of a mill near there and A. W. Moon, also a lumberman, were both arrested but have not yet reported to Judge Gowdy.—Ashland Tidings.

Dance Eagle Point, Saturday night.

Thirty out of the state cars were registered at the local state registration bureau yesterday, again about equally divided between those going north and south. Up to 11 a. m. today, 23 more such cars had been registered here.

A good bargain. Dainty lace trimmed Princess slips, made of good quality white nainsook. For girls from 2 to 16 years, 95c. Friday and Saturday. Handicraft Shop.

PRINCE OF WALES HAS A GAY TIME AT ALL-STAG BALL

H. M. S. REPULSE, OFF SOUTH-WEST AFRICA, April 25.—(By Wireless via Walvis, to the Associated Press.)—The ceremonies of initiating into Neptune's realm being concluded and the 900 novices aboard the Repulse fully recovered from the ordeal of crossing the equator, the ship's company yesterday gave themselves over to festivities which continued throughout the night.

A fancy dress affair was held and proved most successful with the Prince of Wales taking an active part in the proceedings. The charms of the "ladies" present were irresistible, and the prince had many a hearty laugh over the antics of the befuddled sailors. Wales had several dances with these charmers and then awarded the prizes for the best costumes. Later he took charge of the drums in the band.

Wall Street Report

NEW YORK, April 25.—With the exception of some violent declines in high priced specialties and the bidding up of a few selected public utilities, rails and industrials prices drifted rather aimlessly in today's brief and quiet session of the stock market.

Nash motors broke sixteen points to 350 and Commercial Solvents "A" and "B" each broke ten points to 95 and 115, respectively, or about one-half of the year's high. Reading led a rally in the rails by moving up 1.5-3 points. Radio corporation, Philadelphia company, Ludlum Steel, Air Reduction and United States Cast Iron Pipe moved up a point or so. The closing was irregular. Total sales approximated 475,000 shares.

Notice to Elks.

The funeral services of our late brother, Frank R. Roberts, will be held at the Conger Funeral parlors at 2:30 p. m. Sunday, April 26th. All Elks are requested to be present. By order of the Exalted Ruler.

L. L. JACOBS, Sec.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR SALE—Barren, large Oriental rug. Call 915.

FOR RENT—Furnished apartment, 245 S. Central.

WANTED—Couple want work on ranch or camp. H. A. Kuth, Route 3, Box 108, Medford.

Man convicted half hour after offense.

Portland, Ore., April 25.—Circuit Judge McCulloch of Baker, set a court precedent here when he sentenced a man at three o'clock this morning. The prisoner, Jesse W. Collins, was convicted half an hour earlier of an attack upon Mrs. Bessie Weiser, a neighbor.

Man convicted half hour after offense.

Portland, Ore., April 25.—Circuit Judge McCulloch of Baker, set a court precedent here when he sentenced a man at three o'clock this morning. The prisoner, Jesse W. Collins, was convicted half an hour earlier of an attack upon Mrs. Bessie Weiser, a neighbor.

Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean, who are now being received, and the manner in which the public is responding indicates capacity audiences will rule during the engagement. The regular rest sale will open Thursday, April 30th.

Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean have always been associated with the revue type of shows, the advanced style of musical revue, with a big beauty chorus and all the trimmings of a "folies." Last season A. L. Jones and Morris Green featured Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean in their Greenwich Village Follies, and their success and popularity was so pronounced, that this season they are given a wider field for their peculiar comedies and are starred in the largest and most spectacular musical revue offered this season.

The cast to be seen here in support of Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean include with radiant personalities and the thirty famous artists' models are "absolutely and positively" the most charming bits of femininity seen on tour in many a day.

Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean have always been associated with the revue type of shows, the advanced style of musical revue, with a big beauty chorus and all the trimmings of a "folies." Last season A. L. Jones and Morris Green featured Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean in their Greenwich Village Follies, and their success and popularity was so pronounced, that this season they are given a wider field for their peculiar comedies and are starred in the largest and most spectacular musical revue offered this season.

The cast to be seen here in support of Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean include with radiant personalities and the thirty famous artists' models are "absolutely and positively" the most charming bits of femininity seen on tour in many a day.

Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean have always been associated with the revue type of shows, the advanced style of musical revue, with a big beauty chorus and all the trimmings of a "folies." Last season A. L. Jones and Morris Green featured Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean in their Greenwich Village Follies, and their success and popularity was so pronounced, that this season they are given a wider field for their peculiar comedies and are starred in the largest and most spectacular musical revue offered this season.

The cast to be seen here in support of Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean include with radiant personalities and the thirty famous artists' models are "absolutely and positively" the most charming bits of femininity seen on tour in many a day.

Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean have always been associated with the revue type of shows, the advanced style of musical revue, with a big beauty chorus and all the trimmings of a "folies." Last season A. L. Jones and Morris Green featured Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean in their Greenwich Village Follies, and their success and popularity was so pronounced, that this season they are given a wider field for their peculiar comedies and are starred in the largest and most spectacular musical revue offered this season.

The cast to be seen here in support of Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean include with radiant personalities and the thirty famous artists' models are "absolutely and positively" the most charming bits of femininity seen on tour in many a day.

Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean have always been associated with the revue type of shows, the advanced style of musical revue, with a big beauty chorus and all the trimmings of a "folies." Last season A. L. Jones and Morris Green featured Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean in their Greenwich Village Follies, and their success and popularity was so pronounced, that this season they are given a wider field for their peculiar comedies and are starred in the largest and most spectacular musical revue offered this season.

The cast to be seen here in support of Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean include with radiant personalities and the thirty famous artists' models are "absolutely and positively" the most charming bits of femininity seen on tour in many a day.

Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean have always been associated with the revue type of shows, the advanced style of musical revue, with a big beauty chorus and all the trimmings of a "folies." Last season A. L. Jones and Morris Green featured Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean in their Greenwich Village Follies, and their success and popularity was so pronounced, that this season they are given a wider field for their peculiar comedies and are starred in the largest and most spectacular musical revue offered this season.

The cast to be seen here in support of Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean include with radiant personalities and the thirty famous artists' models are "absolutely and positively" the most charming bits of femininity seen on tour in many a day.

Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean have always been associated with the revue type of shows, the advanced style of musical revue, with a big beauty chorus and all the trimmings of a "folies." Last season A. L. Jones and Morris Green featured Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean in their Greenwich Village Follies, and their success and popularity was so pronounced, that this season they are given a wider field for their peculiar comedies and are starred in the largest and most spectacular musical revue offered this season.

The cast to be seen here in