

HARVARD LAMPOON EXPURGATED, BUT ADVOCATE BARRED

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 25.—While an expurgated edition of the Harvard Lampoon, student humorous publication recently barred from the mails because of alleged indecent pictures, went on sale today, copies of the Harvard Advocate, were being detained by Cambridge postal authorities pending a decision from Washington on one picture in the issue which they believed may be ruled indecent.

The current issue of the Advocate is a burlesque of The Dial. The picture to which the postal authorities' attention is drawn is entitled "Neo-Platonic Love," depicting an embracing couple.

In the Lampoon issue which was withheld from the mails the American flag in comic cover design showing Washington crossing the Delaware and to a picture of nude woman.

Now the flag on the cover is white, and a white space has been ruled off on the body of the woman in which the following appears under the caption: "Puris omnia pura; part of this picture is omitted in this edition in deference to the tastes and prejudices of sundry nasty minded Torquemadas and dogberries. Art lovers may see the original of the painting by Manet excellently reproduced among the university prints which are on sale at the Fogg art museum and the Harvard Cooperative society."

LONDON BOOTLEGGER CLAIMS HE'S RUINED, 32,000 CASES SEIZED

LONDON, April 25.—The Daily Mail which recently told of Sir Broderick Hartwell's misadventure in whiskey running off the American coast, now says he has circularized his supporters to the effect that he lost everything in the debacle.

Of the 61,000 cases in the shipment, the American authorities are declared to have seized more than 32,000. About 6000 were sold and the proceeds spent on vessels, coal and other things. Thirty-two thousand cases remain available for sale, the circular says, but it is problematic whether they can be disposed of, the risk of seizure being great.

"It is obvious," Sir Broderick continues, "that a big loss of capital is inevitable and every contributor has the right to sue me for non-fulfillment of my guarantee but I have lost everything, and any such action would only result in hampering my endeavors to save something from the wreck. And I am the only person who can do so."

Nightshirt Returning, Says Paris
PARIS, April 25.—Nightshirts for men are replacing pajamas, say the arbiters of fashion in Paris. They base their assertion upon the fact that more nightshirts have been sold during the past winter than at any time since the vogue of pajamas became worldwide.

HONOR STUDENTS NEED NOT GO TO COLLEGE CLASSES

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 28.—"Wesleyan intends to stop keeping books on the comings and goings of her honor students," said Dr. James Lukens McConaughy, the new president of the university in an address before the New Haven Alumni Association of that college here last night.

"In the very near future," he said, "all juniors and seniors who rank above the average, will be told that they need not attend classes except when they believe it will be the most beneficial thing for them to do. It is ridiculous to treat men of proven ability and maturity as though they are children."

"I believe the day is not far distant when certain students will be told if they can find better references in the libraries of New York City to go there and study for a week or so. After that it will be a short step to the practice of sending men to Europe for independent study of modern languages."

AMERICAN FIRE PREVENTION WEEK
April 27 to May 3—will be observed by Scouts all over the country in various ways, in Medford—window displays, talks in schools, and special fire prevention meetings will be featured.

On May 8, 9, 10, twenty picked Scouts will be on an exploring hike by Mr. Lee P. Brown. Many new trails will be followed and an adventure of real interest is promised.

Last Saturday Scouts from all troops gave the judges in the bicycle meet a real job in selecting the neatest appearing Scout. Honors were awarded to Morse Williams, gold medal as first prize; Estell Rhines, silver medal as second prize; Lewis Cate, bronze medal as third prize. Any one of the three were entitled to highest honors.

Troop 7, of the First Baptist church, held a reorganization meeting Saturday night in their troop room. They expect to have some very fine meetings in the future.

Troop 7, of the Catholic church, will meet on Friday evening at 7:15, under the leadership of Scoutmaster Charles Hensleman and Assistant Scoutmaster Ruddy Singler. They are planning to have a fire prevention display in one of the store windows on Main street, this week.

Scouts will be happy to know that headquarters has a supply of merit badges and merit badge pamphlets. If there are enough Scouts ready to attend court of honor, one will be arranged before the regular date of May 28. Be prepared.
