Phil Moteschenbacher, deputy state fish and game warden in charge of the famous Diamond Lake trout hatchery, was a visitor in Klamath Falls yesterday from the snow bound resort. "The lake trout are just starting to run and I will be forced to rush back to take care of the hatchery work," Moteschenbacher said. Last year he hatched over ten million fish, earning the title of the greatest trout hatchery in the United States. There is no reason why the coming season should not exceed last year's record. The trip down was made in one day, but it requires two days to go over the snow according to the warden. The roads will not be open for automobiles before June 1.—Klamath News.

The Covenants of Grants Pass, the famed booster organization of Josephine county, which heretofore has been very particular in maintaining its high class membership, is growing up of the weather, and hence has just made J. J. Bucher an honorary member of this high to honorable body. It seems that this was done because the before mentioned Medford man, when he was the Big Expansion of the Crater club, helped the neighboring organization to organize and suggested its name and uniform, and a lot of other ideas, which the live wires of Grants Pass had the good sense to ignore.

Social club of Reames chapter are giving a birthday party and card party at the Masonic hall, this evening, April 29th, at 8 p. m. Admission 35c.
