

GAS CO. OFFICIALS GIVE INSTRUCTIONS TO ENLARGE PLANT

The officials of the Southern Oregon Gas company, who have been in this vicinity for several days, making their headquarters in Medford and visiting the plants south of Medford and at Grants Pass and Roseburg, in company with General Manager Petch, inspecting the properties and the improvements being made at the different plants, returned to San Francisco Tuesday afternoon.

All the visitors said they were greatly impressed with the splendid business conditions prevailing here and the prospects for increased building activities and all lines of business that they instructed Mr. Petch to purchase the necessary equipment to prepare all their plants for the increased business.

In the party were L. Sutter, president of the gas company and vice president of the Anglo Fruit company; Charlie O. Lege, a director, W. W. Jacks, of the Bank of Italy, representing stockholders, and H. S. Young, secretary.

What Does Hail Insurance Cost Per Acre?

There is every indication of a prosperous fruit year for the Rogue River Valley during 1925. The careful fruitgrower will not permit his chances of getting large returns from this year's crop to be endangered by uncontrollable hail storms in a year of freakish weather.

This office will insure your fruit crop against loss or damage by hail, in a standard well-known company, at the following rates per acre:

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS	hail insurance per acre costs	$ 4.00
TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS	hail insurance per acre costs	8.00
THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS	hail insurance per acre costs	10.00
FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS	hail insurance per acre costs	12.00
FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS	hail insurance per acre costs	16.00
	hail insurance per acre costs	20.00

(Other amounts written at proportionate rates)

It costs you no more to insure right now than it will six weeks from now, and you get more protection. In case of known crop failure prior to June 1, 1925, you may cancel your policy and get your total premium refunded.

Just one 50% loss by hail, any time in ten years, pays you more than your total premium expense over that period, if you carry hail insurance. THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS IN CASH HAVE BEEN PAID TO LOCAL FRUITGROWERS BY HAIL INSURANCE COMPANIES DURING THE PAST THREE YEARS.

Medford Rotary Club News

Election of officers was the program for the day. The newly elected officers were Carl Swigart, "Doc" Johnson, C. J. Seamon, Emil Mohr, Win Vinson, Walt Levever and Paul Scherer.

Paul Scherer made several attempts to be excused from serving further as a member of the new board of directors. However his nifty pleas failed to free him and he was sentenced to serve a new term. Rotary elections, while there was evidence of campaigning, seem to be good natured, serious, but not too serious, and rather pleasant.

Guests were Bill Weaver of Roseburg and Austin Brownell of Grants Pass. The Rotary are unanimously in favor of the voting of the bonds for a new high school, and while they are a sponsoring club, cannot go on record as endorsing any project.

The Rotary clubs of Roseburg, Grants Pass, Klamath Falls, and Medford were the guests of the Copco at their construction camps. A number of Rotarians and their ladies took the trip Sunday. All expressed surprise at the gigantic construction work in progress. The tunneling of two mountains is a huge affair in itself, and the connection of these two tunnels by a 14-foot wooden trestle is said to be the largest in the world. There were 1200 men at work. There was plenty of noise and the riveters clattered, and the compressed air exhaust always commanded your attention and the dinners roared. Dinner was served at three o'clock, and it was a most bounteous one, and will be well remembered for some time. All hope that this part may be repeated. The great number of men worked methodically and quietly, and this speaks loudly in praise of the methods of the master minds indicating this enterprise.

There were a few things that happened that should be told. Though Fred Heath said many wise and wonderful things on this trip one expression stands out and is easy to remember. It happened when dinner was called and Fred said "O, boy."

"When going through the tunnel someone was heard to whistle and shout loudly to hear his echo. This was finally traced to Monty Montgomery.

They told us that the tunnel was 16 feet high, and it is, because Carl Swigart did not stoop sufficiently when he walked through, and collected rock-dust on his hat as it brushed against the top.

Harry Walther, gallant shiek, escorted two of our most beautiful ladies through the upper tunnel. All the rest of us wanted to investigate the other tunnel too, but Harry did not ask us.

"If hate and greed and fear and ridicule could be supplanted by the Golden Rule.

"'Twould all the balms of Brotherhood release And prove the goal of international Peace."

Another Senator Will Fight Dawes Plan

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Vice President Dawes' program for reform of the senate rules was attacked today by Senator Fess, republican, Ohio, who declared a strict limitation on debate would aid rather than check the "mania for laws."

The Ohio senator who made his views public after a visit to the White House, said, however, the senate could amend its rules to limit speakers strictly to a discussion of the subject of the debate.

Business Man Sings Praises

"I suffered for years with stomach trouble and gas continually. Doctors thought I had stomach ulcers or cancer. After last attack they advised going to Rochester, Minn., for an operation. A friend advised trying Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which I did and I cannot sing its praises too highly, as I can now eat anything and everything." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists. Adv.

Daily Report on the Crime Wave

GARY, Ind., April 29.—A pair of eyeglasses for a middle aged man, a woman's gray suede left shoe and a chart of her teeth were the keys held today by authorities investigating the death of an unidentified girl whose dismembered, burned and bullet riddled body was found Sunday near Chesterton.

A possibility that solution of the mystery hinged entirely on the eyeglasses, like that of the slaying of Bobby Franks by Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb was considered by officials in a lengthy conference last night. The shoe with one strap burned off was found by a police dog about 200 feet from the spot where the body was found.

The dog followed a trail to a small swampy lake a short distance away where authorities believe the missing legs and right arm of the girl might be found when the lake is pumped dry.

Tracing of any dental work done on her teeth was started when the chart of the girl's mouth was made.

A partial identification of the body as that of the wife of a Gary railroad employe was upset when it was learned that a letter was received from her from Farina, Ill. Monday. Her husband, who had been held for questioning was released.

CHICAGO, April 29.—Threats attributed to Frank Kocurek, former army butcher that he intended to kill his wife, have led to his detention in connection with the finding a week ago of the dismembered and headless body of a woman on a golf course.

He was taken into custody after William Littleton, an acquaintance, told the police Kocurek said:

"I am going to kill her and when I do I'll use my army experience as a butcher and kill her in such a way that should she be found no one will be able to tell who she was."

Kocurek made vehement denial of his guilt but admitted the body might be that of his wife, who, he said, was kidnaped by two men May 1, 1924.

Later, confronted with Littleton he
