

Local and Personal

The Medford public schools will close for the summer vacation on Friday, May 29th, and when they open again in September, will be under the new superintendent of schools, E. H. Hedrick.

Before you buy that piano see Launspach. He can save you money. He knows pianos and is reliable.

Final sale Scott 2nd Hand store starts Saturday.

Mrs. Fred H. Hopkins and son, Frederick, returned today to their home in Portland, after visiting Mr. Hopkins over the week end.

Jackson Hot Springs. Beautiful May pole dance Saturday night, May 2nd. White silk sport suit given to most popular lady dancer. Handsome silk shirt given to best gentleman dancer. Our price always, $1.10. Ladies free.

The County Court will pay $10 for information which will lead to a conviction for dumping garbage on county roads or in streams.

An art exhibit will be held at the Washington school Friday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30. At this time art work done throughout the year will be on display in the different rooms. This is the first time for several years that an exhibit of this kind has been made and patrons of the school and all others interested are cordially invited.

More new hats at Lottie Howards.

Final sale Scott 2nd Hand store starts Saturday.

There was born today to Mr. and Mrs. Anna Turnbow, a six pound girl at the Purucker Home. Mrs. Turnbow was formerly Miss Paula Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Marshall.

If a trained nurse opened a large, comfortable home for elderly ladies in Medford or Ashland, how many would like accommodations? Rates quoted, to cover all care except for serious illness. Answer at once. Box 37, Mail Tribune.

Imported pure silk pongee, 69c, 95c and $1.25. Japanese Art Store.

The dog poisoner is again busy in Grants Pass. Tuesday he succeeded in poisoning four dogs within a radius of a few blocks, poisoned meat being thrown in the yards where the dogs were kept. An investigation is under way of recent purchasers of strychnine, which was found on the meat scraps picked up in the yards. It is believed that sufficient information can be obtained to check up on the person who is responsible. Dog owners are urged to take action if they are successful in running down the guilty party.—Grants Pass Courier.

Final sale Scott 2nd Hand store starts Saturday.

Sewing machines, good condition. Drop heads $10. Singer Co. 10 South Fir.

Mrs. N. A. McKinnon and George A. McKinnon of Vancouver, B. C., and Mrs. Robert Moody of Milwaukee, Wis., are among the hotel guests here from a distance, which yesterday and this forenoon were few compared with the usual large number of daily distant visitors in the city.

Bunzlau water, jugs, $1.00 and $1.25. Japanese Art Store.

Mrs. C. Kamikawa is in the isolation department of the Sacred Heart hospital with scarlet fever, but is improving rapidly.

Jackson Hot Springs. Beautiful May pole dance Saturday night, May 2nd. White silk sport suit given to most popular lady dancer. Handsome silk shirt given to best gentleman dancer. Our price always, $1.10. Ladies free.

Final sale Scott 2nd Hand store starts Saturday.

The Shearer organ and vocal concert will be held this evening, 8 p. m., at the First Baptist church. The program includes a number of fine selections on the organ and some pleasing numbers by Mrs. Shearer. Both artists have many admirers in Medford, who will be glad to hear them again.

Pianos! See Launspach.

After May 1, we will deliver morning's milk, morning, and evening's milk. Patronize the producer and get good fresh milk. Phone 589-R-3. Gilman's Dairy.

Mrs. J. D. Russell returned today from a several weeks' visit with her mother and other relatives and friends in Los Angeles.

R. B. eggs at DeVoe's.

C. A. Meeker left this morning for Portland on a short business trip.

Ed M. White, of the Brown and White real estate agency, left last night on a short business trip to Portland.

The Theosophical Lodge will hold an open meeting in their lodge room at 8 o'clock tonight, to which all are invited.

Swimming! Helman's sulphur baths at Ashland, will be open for the season Saturday, May 2nd.

Thomas Moe was among the business visitors in the city today from Applegate.

Coal briquets, that clean fuel. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239.

Merriek's plunge opens Saturday at one o'clock.

John C. Still was among the Medford visitors yesterday from Eugene Point.

Medford-Klamath freight line, nothing too large, nothing too small. Five trucks in operation to and from Klamath Falls. Daily service. We do long distance hauling anywhere. Office 40 N. Front street. Phone 1033.

Fancy creamery butter 40c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

The local high school baseball team left this afternoon for Grants Pass where they will meet the Grants Pass high school baseball team in the second game of the season, the first having been won by the Medford team on the local diamond.

Infant's maderia dresses, specially priced at $1.50. Natwick, Inc.

Swimming! Helman's sulphur baths at Ashland, will be open for the season Saturday, May 2nd.

A branch office of the Pacific Fruit & Produce company, together with a warehouse, was established yesterday by the Pacific Fruit & Produce company. It was learned from J. E. Matzger, Medford district manager of the company, who has been in Klamath Falls for the past week making arrangements for the location. Charles Whitlock, formerly of Klamath Falls, but more recently of the Medford office of the company will be the Klamath Falls branch manager. The company up until yesterday, has been operating into Klamath Falls by truck from Medford. "Our Klamath Falls business became so heavy," Mr. Matzger said yesterday, "that establishment of the branch office here became a necessity."—Klamath News.

Wade DeLyette Sewing school, 331 E. Main. Phone 119, has added to regular program the opportunity of finishing garments under instructive guidance or doing any kind of sewing at school at 25c an hour, every afternoon from one to five, except Thursdays.

New paint; new everything. That's Merriek's plunge. It opens Saturday afternoon, one o'clock.

News comes from Hood River that the most unique apple bloom ever seen here was brought by T. W. Berry of the west side of that city. Sprung from a cluster of nine normal blooms, the petals of which had already shed, the blossom was four inches across. It had three layers of petals. The stem was 4 1/2 inches long, while the average apple stem is only 1 1/2 inches. The jumbo bloom was picked from a Siberian crab tree.

Merriek's plunge opens Saturday afternoon. Water will be kept at 90 degrees.

We pay for ashes and sell dirt cheap. Brown & White Agency, Inc.

Among Wednesday's arrivals in the city from out of town points in Oregon were, M. Utzinger of Astoria, Edward Egil of Bend, George A. White of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Irvine and Elliott of Lebanon, Della M. Lofgren and Elsie E. Reynolds of Corvallis, C. M. Fender and W. L. Byers and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Weaver and family and Miss Pauline Bagley of Roseburg.

A well dressed appearance at all times because Mrs. Trowbridge does her cutting and fitting.

Fancy creamery butter 40c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

The meetings which are being conducted at the Free Methodist church, corner of Tenth and Ivy, are continuing with increased interest. Tonight Rev. W. W. Vinson of Chicago, will conduct the service at the usual hour.

The Rev. E. Ashcraft and wife, returned missionaries from China, will sing in the Chinese language.

It is the cut of the garment that tells the story. Mrs. Trowbridge will cut and fit at a surprisingly low figure.

Jackson Hot Springs. Beautiful May pole dance Saturday night, May 2nd. White silk sport suit given to most popular lady dancer. Handsome silk shirt given to best gentleman dancer. Our price always, $1.10. Ladies free.

Final sale Scott 2nd Hand store starts Saturday.

Mrs. N. A. McKinnon and George A. McKinnon of Vancouver, B. C., and Mrs. Robert Moody of Milwaukee, Wis., are among the hotel guests here from a distance, which yesterday and this forenoon were few compared with the usual large number of daily distant visitors in the city.

Bunzlau water, jugs, $1.00 and $1.25. Japanese Art Store.

Mrs. C. Kamikawa is in the isolation department of the Sacred Heart hospital with scarlet fever, but is improving rapidly.

Jackson Hot Springs. Beautiful May pole dance Saturday night, May 2nd. White silk sport suit given to most popular lady dancer. Handsome silk shirt given to best gentleman dancer. Our price always, $1.10. Ladies free.

Final sale Scott 2nd Hand store starts Saturday.

The Shearer organ and vocal concert will be held this evening, 8 p. m., at the First Baptist church. The program includes a number of fine selections on the organ and some pleasing numbers by Mrs. Shearer. Both artists have many admirers in Medford, who will be glad to hear them again.

Pianos! See Launspach.

After May 1, we will deliver morning's milk, morning, and evening's milk. Patronize the producer and get good fresh milk. Phone 589-R-3. Gilman's Dairy.

Mrs. J. D. Russell returned today from a several weeks' visit with her mother and other relatives and friends in Los Angeles.

R. B. eggs at DeVoe's.

C. A. Meeker left this morning for Portland on a short business trip.

Ed M. White, of the Brown and White real estate agency, left last night on a short business trip to Portland.

The Theosophical Lodge will hold an open meeting in their lodge room at 8 o'clock tonight, to which all are invited.

Swimming! Helman's sulphur baths at Ashland, will be open for the season Saturday, May 2nd.

Thomas Moe was among the business visitors in the city today from Applegate.

Coal briquets, that clean fuel. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239.

Merriek's plunge opens Saturday at one o'clock.

John C. Still was among the Medford visitors yesterday from Eugene Point.

Medford-Klamath freight line, nothing too large, nothing too small. Five trucks in operation to and from Klamath Falls. Daily service. We do long distance hauling anywhere. Office 40 N. Front street. Phone 1033.

Fancy creamery butter 40c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

The local high school baseball team left this afternoon for Grants Pass where they will meet the Grants Pass high school baseball team in the second game of the season, the first having been won by the Medford team on the local diamond.

Infant's maderia dresses, specially priced at $1.50. Natwick, Inc.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McClain of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moody and R. H. Moody of Everett and G. J. Grass, C. Martenson, Louis Diener, A. C. Fleischman, A. Stutzer, Lieutenant and Mrs. T. J. Koenig and Mr. and Mrs. Hal R. French of Seattle are among the Medford visitors from the state of Washington.

A hearty invitation is extended to all to attend a jewelry sale of diamonds, watches, jewelry, etc., starting tomorrow (Friday), May 1st. See my ad in tomorrow's issue. Fay E. Diamond, Jeweler, Medford.

G. A. Inman of San Francisco, secretary of the Pacific coast department of North British and Mercantile Insurance company, was a Medford business caller Wednesday.

Laces, suitable for all materials. Natwick, Inc.

Mrs. W. P. Lane and E. L. Lane of Central Point are Medford visitors who arrived Wednesday.

Wanted—Feeder, hogs and pigs. Johnson Produce Co.

The Grants Pass ball club will play with Gold Hill in a practice game on Sunday. The official opening of the Southern Oregon league will be on May 17, when the Bear Creekers come down from Medford to meet the locals on the home diamond. The Grants Pass team is playing a number of pre-season games to get in condition for the league schedule.—Grants Pass Courier.

Hemstitching, buttons covered at the Handcraft Shop.

The sixth and seventh grades of the Jackson school enjoyed a swim followed by a wicker roast at Jackson Hot Springs Tuesday evening. The children were chaperoned by Mrs. E. H. Porter, Mrs. C. M. Thomas, Miss Elizabeth Ferguson and Mr. Hewitt.

Fancy creamery butter 40c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hughes and J. H. Feist of McClelland, Calif., are among the people arriving in the city last night from out of town points.

$2.40 buys No. 1 Yakima Netted Gems at our warehouse free from frost damage and no black spots which appears in most potatoes shipped from Idaho points. A few cents is nothing to compare with quality in buying potatoes. Johnson Produce Co., Phone 241 N. J. St.

Hal R. French, representative of the Merchant Fire Insurance company, was a Medford business caller today from Seattle.

Columbia plaster wall board. Call for prices. Wallace Woods Lumber Yard.

Increase of the capital stock of the Farm Bureau Cooperative Exchange of Klamath county from $5000 to $20,000, and announcement of increased and more extended activity of that organization, was announced yesterday by C. A. Henderson, county agent.—Klamath News.

We pay cash for used pianos. Palmer Piano House.

Again the San Francisco weather bureau fell down on its prediction of probable rain for today, although the day was alternately cloudy and sunny. Wednesday, with a maximum of 79.9, was much cooler than Tuesday, which had a maximum of 86. Cloudy and cooler for tonight and fair and cooler for Friday is the prediction issued this morning.

We pay for ashes and sell dirt cheap. Brown & White Agency, Inc.

Final sale Scott 2nd Hand store starts Saturday.

Mrs. N. A. McKinnon and George A. McKinnon of Vancouver, B. C., and Mrs. Robert Moody of Milwaukee, Wis., are among the hotel guests here from a distance, which yesterday and this forenoon were few compared with the usual large number of daily distant visitors in the city.

Bunzlau water, jugs, $1.00 and $1.25. Japanese Art Store.

Mrs. C. Kamikawa is in the isolation department of the Sacred Heart hospital with scarlet fever, but is improving rapidly.

Jackson Hot Springs. Beautiful May pole dance Saturday night, May 2nd. White silk sport suit given to most popular lady dancer. Handsome silk shirt given to best gentleman dancer. Our price always, $1.10. Ladies free.

Final sale Scott 2nd Hand store starts Saturday.

The Shearer organ and vocal concert will be held this evening, 8 p. m., at the First Baptist church. The program includes a number of fine selections on the organ and some pleasing numbers by Mrs. Shearer. Both artists have many admirers in Medford, who will be glad to hear them again.

Pianos! See Launspach.

After May 1, we will deliver morning's milk, morning, and evening's milk. Patronize the producer and get good fresh milk. Phone 589-R-3. Gilman's Dairy.

Mrs. J. D. Russell returned today from a several weeks' visit with her mother and other relatives and friends in Los Angeles.

R. B. eggs at DeVoe's.

C. A. Meeker left this morning for Portland on a short business trip.

Ed M. White, of the Brown and White real estate agency, left last night on a short business trip to Portland.

The Theosophical Lodge will hold an open meeting in their lodge room at 8 o'clock tonight, to which all are invited.

Swimming! Helman's sulphur baths at Ashland, will be open for the season Saturday, May 2nd.

Thomas Moe was among the business visitors in the city today from Applegate.

Coal briquets, that clean fuel. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239.

Merriek's plunge opens Saturday at one o'clock.

John C. Still was among the Medford visitors yesterday from Eugene Point.

Medford-Klamath freight line, nothing too large, nothing too small. Five trucks in operation to and from Klamath Falls. Daily service. We do long distance hauling anywhere. Office 40 N. Front street. Phone 1033.

Fancy creamery butter 40c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

The local high school baseball team left this afternoon for Grants Pass where they will meet the Grants Pass high school baseball team in the second game of the season, the first having been won by the Medford team on the local diamond.

Infant's maderia dresses, specially priced at $1.50. Natwick, Inc.

Swimming! Helman's sulphur baths at Ashland, will be open for the season Saturday, May 2nd.

Visitors in the city from the state of California include, Mrs. L. Thompson of Redding, Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Grannell of Berkeley, B. R. Delvey and George Combs of Porterville, Helen M. Lawrence, Louise C. Kruse, Mildred Young, J. Schwandt and J. Thompson of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nelson, M. Veele, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mack, Mr. and Mrs. E. Block and Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Jackson of Los Angeles and the following from San Francisco: W. H. Nunn, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Sutton and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brady, O. S. Wish, Jerry Schoenfeld, W. J. Bracom and Ida M. Dickinson.

Laces, suitable for all materials. Natwick, Inc.

Mrs. W. P. Lane and E. L. Lane of Central Point are Medford visitors who arrived Wednesday.

Wanted—Feeder, hogs and pigs. Johnson Produce Co.

The Grants Pass ball club will play with Gold Hill in a practice game on Sunday. The official opening of the Southern Oregon league will be on May 17, when the Bear Creekers come down from Medford to meet the locals on the home diamond. The Grants Pass team is playing a number of pre-season games to get in condition for the league schedule.—Grants Pass Courier.

Hemstitching, buttons covered at the Handcraft Shop.

The sixth and seventh grades of the Jackson school enjoyed a swim followed by a wicker roast at Jackson Hot Springs Tuesday evening. The children were chaperoned by Mrs. E. H. Porter, Mrs. C. M. Thomas, Miss Elizabeth Ferguson and Mr. Hewitt.

Fancy creamery butter 40c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hughes and J. H. Feist of McClelland, Calif., are among the people arriving in the city last night from out of town points.

$2.40 buys No. 1 Yakima Netted Gems at our warehouse free from frost damage and no black spots which appears in most potatoes shipped from Idaho points. A few cents is nothing to compare with quality in buying potatoes. Johnson Produce Co., Phone 241 N. J. St.

Hal R. French, representative of the Merchant Fire Insurance company, was a Medford business caller today from Seattle.

Columbia plaster wall board. Call for prices. Wallace Woods Lumber Yard.

Increase of the capital stock of the Farm Bureau Cooperative Exchange of Klamath county from $5000 to $20,000, and announcement of increased and more extended activity of that organization, was announced yesterday by C. A. Henderson, county agent.—Klamath News.

We pay cash for used pianos. Palmer Piano House.

Again the San Francisco weather bureau fell down on its prediction of probable rain for today, although the day was alternately cloudy and sunny. Wednesday, with a maximum of 79.9, was much cooler than Tuesday, which had a maximum of 86. Cloudy and cooler for tonight and fair and cooler for Friday is the prediction issued this morning.

We pay for ashes and sell dirt cheap. Brown & White Agency, Inc.

Final sale Scott 2nd Hand store starts Saturday.

Mrs. N. A. McKinnon and George A. McKinnon of Vancouver, B. C., and Mrs. Robert Moody of Milwaukee, Wis., are among the hotel guests here from a distance, which yesterday and this forenoon were few compared with the usual large number of daily distant visitors in the city.

Bunzlau water, jugs, $1.00 and $1.25. Japanese Art Store.

Mrs. C. Kamikawa is in the isolation department of the Sacred Heart hospital with scarlet fever, but is improving rapidly.

Jackson Hot Springs. Beautiful May pole dance Saturday night, May 2nd. White silk sport suit given to most popular lady dancer. Handsome silk shirt given to best gentleman dancer. Our price always, $1.10. Ladies free.

Final sale Scott 2nd Hand store starts Saturday.

The Shearer organ and vocal concert will be held this evening, 8 p. m., at the First Baptist church. The program includes a number of fine selections on the organ and some pleasing numbers by Mrs. Shearer. Both artists have many admirers in Medford, who will be glad to hear them again.

Pianos! See Launspach.

After May 1, we will deliver morning's milk, morning, and evening's milk. Patronize the producer and get good fresh milk. Phone 589-R-3. Gilman's Dairy.

Mrs. J. D. Russell returned today from a several weeks' visit with her mother and other relatives and friends in Los Angeles.

R. B. eggs at DeVoe's.

C. A. Meeker left this morning for Portland on a short business trip.

Ed M. White, of the Brown and White real estate agency, left last night on a short business trip to Portland.

The Theosophical Lodge will hold an open meeting in their lodge room at 8 o'clock tonight, to which all are invited.

Swimming! Helman's sulphur baths at Ashland, will be open for the season Saturday, May 2nd.

Thomas Moe was among the business visitors in the city today from Applegate.

Coal briquets, that clean fuel. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239.

Merriek's plunge opens Saturday at one o'clock.

John C. Still was among the Medford visitors yesterday from Eugene Point.

Medford-Klamath freight line, nothing too large, nothing too small. Five trucks in operation to and from Klamath Falls. Daily service. We do long distance hauling anywhere. Office 40 N. Front street. Phone 1033.

Fancy creamery butter 40c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

The local high school baseball team left this afternoon for Grants Pass where they will meet the Grants Pass high school baseball team in the second game of the season, the first having been won by the Medford team on the local diamond.

Infant's maderia dresses, specially priced at $1.50. Natwick, Inc.

Swimming! Helman's sulphur baths at Ashland, will be open for the season Saturday, May 2nd.

James Douglas, who was arrested by Chief of Police Adams yesterday morning on the charge of possessing a bottle of moonshine, was arraigned in Judge Taylor's court later in the day when his trial was set for 2 p. m. next Monday and bail was set at $500, which until this afternoon he had been unable to furnish.

Columbia plaster wall board. Call for prices. Wallace Woods Lumber Yard.

The following from Portland are among the temporary Medford sojourners: C. B. Hillabury, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hartwell, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pittenger, S. A. Carrick, George A. Morse, J. S. Simmons, G. Clement, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Kingston, L. R. Lawson, Mrs. W. A. Purcell and son, D. W. Hillman, H. R. Jansberg, R. W. Philpott, O. W. Elliott, George D. Field, W. Storrell, H. E. Newell, W. B. Jamison, M. J. Walther, C. H. Allen, G. C. Gillette, Truman Northrup and L. W. Van Fleet.

Free valuable souvenir will be given away at the opening of my auction sale of diamonds, jewelry, watches, etc. Sale starts tomorrow (Friday), May 1st. See full announcement in tomorrow's issue. Fay E. Diamond, Jeweler, Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Shearer, who presented a concert at the Baptist church Sunday night and will present another there this evening, motored to Ashland last evening and favored those in attendance at the Rogue River Baptist association meeting with several musical numbers.

Mrs. Martin Bowers of Gold Hill was a business visitor in the city today.

A new ice storage building is being erected by the Medford Ice and Storage company, on their property in South Medford, and it will be ready in about ten days. They will also commence the erection of an addition to their platform to ice cars next week and when completed will be able to handle 20 cars at a time.

The firm of St. Clair, O'Connor & Lee, auctioneers, of San Francisco and Los Angeles, have arrived in this city to conduct an auction sale for Fay E. Diamond, Jeweler, of this city.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First M. E. church will meet Friday, May 1st, at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. W. M. VanSoyoc, 811 Bennett avenue. Mrs. Whelden has charge of the program. Everybody is cordially invited.

Auction Sale—Diamonds, jewelry, watches, etc. Starting tomorrow, Friday, evening, May 1st. See my ad in tomorrow's issue. Fay E. Diamond, Jeweler, Medford.

Driving guilty at Bend to having driven his car while intoxicated, C. A. Aronson was fined $500, sentenced to 60 days in jail and suffered the loss of his driver's license for one year.

If you want a furnished apartment with all the modern conveniences, see or phone Hotel Holland.

Chester Applegate of Dead Indian is in Ashland today. Applegate states that he just killed 13 rattlesnakes found in a den on his place, making his total killing for the season 30. The rattlesnakes are just coming out from their winter hiding places.—Ashland Tidings.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR SALE—Cheap, 2 frame buildings. Corner 8th and Front streets. Must be moved off at once. Will build to suit tenant. Phone 664-W. C. D. Mobley, 141 S. Holly St.

Final sale Scott 2nd Hand store starts Saturday.

Mrs. N. A. McKinnon and George A. McKinnon of Vancouver, B. C., and Mrs. Robert Moody of Milwaukee, Wis., are among the hotel guests here from a distance, which yesterday and this forenoon were few compared with the usual large number of daily distant visitors in the city.