

Sports 'SCOTTY' REFUSES TO BE BENCHED, LEAVES FOR HOME

NEW YORK, May 7.—(By the Associated Press.)—Everett Scott, shortstop of the New York Yankees who played in 1307 consecutive major league baseball games until his string was broken yesterday, is on his way west, but not with the team. He will spend a few days visiting at his home in Indiana.

He said his benching came as a surprise as he was "just beginning to play ball." "I got two hits Tuesday," said Scott. "I care nothing about the record, for I realized my ambition when I had played 1000 straight games. Had my benching come when the team was losing I wouldn't have cared, but it seems funny that it should happen the day after we win a game and I make two hits."

MISS COLLETT BEATEN IN FOURSOME MATCH

STANNES, May 7.—Miss Glenna Collett and her partner, Mrs. Allen MacBeth, were eliminated from the northern ladies' foursome this afternoon, being beaten one up by Mrs. Snodgrass and Miss Hixham of St. Annes.

STANNES, England, May 7.—(By the Associated Press.)—Miss Glenna Collett, former American golf champion, and Miss Allan MacBeth, former British champion, defeated Miss Dawson and Mrs. Sykes, of England, five up and four to play in the ladies' northern foursome play completed here today.

SPORT BRIEFS

Dazy Vance of the Dodgers is swinging back into his stride as a leading strike out pitcher. He fanned eight Boston Braves while being touched for four hits, while he and his teammates lambasted the offerings of the Braves' twirlers.

Gordon Cochrane, former Portland Pacific Coast league star, is playing a great game for the Athletics behind the plate. Cochrane, in addition to holding up his end in the pitching department, is doing some timely stick work. He cracked out three hits against the Yankees, one of them a circuit drive.

The veteran, Walter Johnson of the Senators, breezed through a slugging match with the Red Sox after his club had registered seven hits in the initial frame. When necessary, Walter put a little something on the ball and fanned five.

OREGON MAKES A GARRISON FINISH IN 9TH INNING

EUGENE, Ore., May 7.—Two out, the last of the ninth, two runs behind—and then Oregon won! Yesterday afternoon's Pacific coast intercollegiate baseball conference game between Oregon and the Washington State College nine was the most thrilling on the local field in the memory of baseball fandom. The final score was 8 to 7, with W. S. C. on the short end.

Two lightning double plays by the Cougars, and a slashing home run by Shelby, also of Washington State, featured the game until the last of the ninth. Oregon had led for most of the game, but W. S. C. came from behind and gained a two-run lead. It looked bad for Oregon. With two down some of the crowd drifted home, thinking it was all over.

Reinhart, Oregon lead-off man, walked, and Minnaugh sent a hot liner to left field, scoring Adolph Shelby, speed ball artist, went in for W. S. C. and proceeded to walk Hobson, Bliss, Oregon catcher, who has been hitting hard and consistently, came through with a scorching hit to left field scoring Reinhart and Minnaugh, and the game was won.

CHURCH ZEALOTS RESPONSIBLE FOR OLYMPIC DEFEAT

THE HAGUE, May 7.—(By the Associated Press.)—Olympic games are regarded as "heathenish" by some members of the Dutch parliament. This characterization was made during the debate in the lower chamber yesterday which preceded the defeat of the appropriation bill to provide expenses of the meet at Amsterdam in 1928.

The Calvinist and Catholic deputies joined forces on the onslaught against the bill while the liberals and socialists strongly supported it, emphasizing the benefits which they said would accrue to Holland thru the attraction there of thousands of foreign visitors.

Opponents of the bill held that no Christian government ought to tolerate revival of the games at all, even if the concession were made that the Sabbath would not be desecrated. One exclaimed that he would rejoice to see Holland forever struck from the list of nations entering for the Olympics in which "nothing worthy is done for the glory of God."

Defeat of the bill, 38 to 48, means the pigeonholing of the subsidy plan at least until October, as the elections are due within a few weeks and the new chamber will not meet until fall.

Meanwhile a public subscription will be started to raise the funds needed by the Olympic committee and the heads of this body are confident they will be able to appear before the Olympic congress in Prague on May 25 with adequate guarantees of their ability to stage the games.

TROTZKY RETURNS TO MOSCOW FOR SOVIET SERVICE

MOSCOW, May 7.—(By the Associated Press.)—Leon Trotzky, deposed soviet war minister, returned to Moscow this morning from Sukhum, trans-Caucasia after four months isolation, ready to accept any position the government may offer him.

The former red army leader granted absolute freedom his political heresy on his promise to obey the dictates of the party and observe all the rules of strict bolshevism, probably will be offered the commissariat of foreign trade, vacated by Leonid Krassin's appointment as ambassador to France.

This post, Trotzky's friends hope, will help to restore him to some degree of power by leading to a more respectable place in the cabinet. While Trotzky still has hopes of regaining his place in charge of the red army it is believed General Frunze, who succeeded him in the war ministry, will be left in that position.

DECIDING GAME WITH GRANTS PASS HERE TOMORROW

Each having won the game played on their own grounds, Medford HI and Grants Pass HI tangle in the third of the four game series at the Holly Street diamond tomorrow at 3:30. The first contest went to the local team by an 8-1 score and Grants Pass took the game on their field by a ninth inning rally, 11-10.

Hope points toward the same two pitchers who have hurled the preceding games to oppose each other again in the coming battle. Schoen for Medford and Benjamin probably taking the mound for the visitors.

On account of the Oregon state DeMolay convolve in Medford Friday and Saturday, a big crowd of young men is expected to view the content as guests of the local organization.
