FAREWELL PARTY GIVEN REV. GRAY OF ROGUE RIVER

By MRS. E. W. SCOTT
ROGUE RIVER, May 6.—On Tuesday evening a farewell reception was given for Rev. Gray and family at the Community Hall in Rogue River. A large crowd from the entire community were present to express their regrets for having to lose such good neighbors and friends from our midst and to wish them happiness and success in their new home. The Gray family will make their home in Albany where Miss Margaret will enter college for next year. The evening was spent with a nice program and games were played. At the close of the evening light refreshments were served.

On Friday afternoon occurred the marriage of Henry Breeding and Mrs. L. Bailey. The groom has spent most of his life here but the bride only moved here about one year ago from North Bend. The best wishes of all are extended to the happy couple.

Sain Sandry and family and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Galbreath spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Neeley in Central Point.

Last week F. C. Elliott of Riveria park received word from his son Delbert who was at Los Angeles that he was sick with inflammatory rheumatism and wanted to come home. Mr. Elliott made arrangements for him to come and he is reported as much improved at this writing.

Mrs. Maude Breeding and Mrs. A. F. McIlvain were entertained Wednesday at the William Moore home.

The ladies of the Civic Improvement club wish to thank every one who assisted them in any way when they entertained the Women's Federation.

On Tuesday, May 12th, the Ladies'

Aid will give an old fashioned spelling school social in the Community Hall. Each lady is asked to bring a modest box lunch for two. The ladies' shadows will be cast on a sheet and the men bid onto shadow instead of the boxes. Everyone come. Bring a box.

Carter and Richman report that they have completed their work on the ditch and as soon as the other work is done, the water will be turned in, which will be in about two weeks.

Joe Burkhardt has recovered so as to be able to return to his home.

Mrs. Mary White is very ill at her home with the flu. All wish she may soon recover.

Bert Duncan of Central Point was seriously injured Monday while working on the Copco line. One of the large insulators fell and struck Mr. Duncan in the face breaking his nose and cheek bone and causing a bad cut on his face. Mr. Duncan is a brother-in-law of Earl Scott of this valley.

C. F. Reichstein has commenced logging again for this summer and has a large truck hauling the logs to the train at Rogue River where they are shipped to Medford to a saw mill there.

The seniors will give their class play at the school auditorium Friday night. The name of the play is "Clarence." The seniors have been spending much time and practice on the play and it should be good.

Mr. E. W. Jacobson is in Portland this week where he has his little boy for more treatments. The little fellow does not get along very well, his case seems to baffle the doctors. The Jacobsons have the sympathy of every one as the boy is in a critical condition.

At the regular session of the Odd Fellows Tuesday night E. W. Scott was chosen as delegate to grand lodge May 19th, at Ashland.

Clinton Wiley spent Sunday with home folks, returning to McCloud Monday morning.

Mr. F. H. Adams has returned from southern California, where he went for his health. He is some better, but not well yet.

Ed Robbins, manager of the Del Rio orchards at Rock Point, was down this way Saturday looking up help to help harvest and pack the large fruit crop which they have this year. Mr. Robbins states they will have, unless something happens, the biggest crop ever.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scott called on Bert Duncan at the hospital in Medford Wednesday.

THREE PLAYS TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT AT PHOENIX HALL

PHOENIX, May 7.—Three plays are to be presented at the Phoenix Auditorium Friday night under the direction of Mrs. Alma Gitchel Morse. "No Men Wanted," is a short comedy sketch of two bachelor girls and their colored maid, "Bimbo, the Pirate," by Booth Tarkington, is filled with the atmosphere of the high seas, but presents a new light on pirates. "The Ugliest of Seven," adapted from the German, presents the problem of the young heir who though he loves the loveliest, must by the terms of the will, marry the ugliest of seven daughters. Between the plays there will be special music and a fancy folk dance, the latter under the direction of Miss Faye Carver. The proceeds of the entertainment go toward the payment for the fireplaces in the Memorial hall, for which the student body obligated itself last year.

The high school annual, formerly known as the "Blue and White," but now rechristened "The Laurel" was received from the printers Wednesday. This is the third time an annual has been published by the Phoenix school. It is an attractive book in blue and silver. A sufficient number has been ordered so that friends of the school who wish to do so may obtain copies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Tyrrell and Mrs. Van M. Morse attended "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy" at Medford Friday evening.

At the Phoenix high school in the tennis tournament between Ashland and Phoenix schools Friday, May 1, three sets were played in singles. The first was 6-3 in favor of Ashland. The second was 6-1 in favor of Phoenix. The third was 6-4 in favor of Ashland.

In the tournament Wednesday between Medford and Phoenix, Medford high school was represented by Ralph Bailey, Earl Dorell, and Howard Spaulding, with Mr. Beeson as coach, and Phoenix by Andrew Stevens, Everett Martin, and Cecil Hartley. The singles were two 6-4 sets in favor of Medford, and the doubles were one 6-1, and one 6-2 sets in favor of Medford. Phoenix expects to play return games with both schools.

Irene Standley, Leona Fish, and Harold Fish went with Mr. and Mrs. Chandler to the circus at Ashland Monday.

Van M. Morse went to Roseburg on business Tuesday.

Rev. R. W. Nelson will preach the baccalaureate sermon for the high school class of '25 at Phoenix Memorial hall, at 11 o'clock Sunday morning May 10.

Next Sunday evening Rev. W. V. Yimont of Talent will preach at the Phoenix Presbyterian church.

Rev. Chaney of Ashland will deliver the commencement address for the graduating class Thursday evening, May 14, at Phoenix Memorial hall.

The guests of Walter Fraser Brown, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Frame, Mrs. M.

E. Loucks, and Mary Loucks drove to the Applegate and to Grants Pass Saturday.

The Ladies' Aid has been postponed until May 14, when the ladies will meet at the home of Mrs. Webster. This week many of the church people are planning to attend the Southern Oregon Presbyterial meetings at Ashland, May 7th and 8th.

over to a social good time. A very fine supper was served, which sent all home rejoicing.

The high school enjoyed a hike to Happy Camp Wednesday afternoon. The boys entertained the girls with a weiner roast. The girls report the boys as royal hosts.

The Ladies' club will meet with Mrs. Jack Florey Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. H. E. Campbell and Mrs. Butler attended the life insurance men's banquet in Medford Wednesday evening.

Last Friday afternoon the boys and girls high school baseball teams both played with Sams Valley teams. Sams valley won both games. The score of the boys' game was 6 to 2, and the girls 14 to 10. The boys will play Talent at Talent Friday afternoon.

Mr. Luy returned home from Klamath last Sunday and is busy irrigating his garden and affairs this week.

ANTIOCH ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Lair sold their place to Mr. Swanson and will move to Medford or Central Point, wherever they can rent a house.

Bert Chapman is home with his parents with a bad attack of the flu.

Mr. G. Nichols has bought cattle from Mr. G. Stacey, J. Higham and the Martin brothers.

Mr. Gaines of Trail was down in the neighborhood Saturday looking for a horse he had lost.

Mr. DeArmond was a caller on W. C. Chapman Sunday.

Mr. Copely found a colt on the range badly cut with wire Saturday.

EAGLE POINT ITEMS

Mrs. Crandall has gone to Los Angeles, Cal., to stay indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Thompson are again residing here.

The grange met Wednesday evening. After the regular business was transacted the evening was given
