

MEDFORD LEGION TO HOLD MEETING ASHLAND, TUESDAY

Medford Post No. 15, American Legion will hold a big meeting in Ashland Tuesday night, May 12th.

Plans are complete for the members of Medford Post to leave the Medford Armory at 7 o'clock and upon their arrival at Ashland the Medford drum corps will head a big parade of legionnaires through the streets to the Ashland armory, where 50 ex-service men will be initiated, with the officers of the Medford Post putting on the ritualistic work.

Due to the fact that regular uniforms of the drum corps have not yet arrived, the corps will be decked out in an original way for Tuesday night's parade.

Commander "Dick" McElhose requests all members of Medford Post to report at Medford armory promptly at 7 o'clock tomorrow night.

Many things of importance will be brought before the two posts at this meeting, consequently 100 or more are planning to attend from Medford.

C. E. Gates Chosen.

C. E. Gates, one of Medford's business leaders and prominent in the city's civic affairs for many years past, has accepted the position as general campaign chairman for the American Legion endowment fund. Officers of the legion express great pleasure over this selection inasmuch as Mr. Gates was chairman of the campaign for the liberty loan drives during the war.

The local chairman expects to appoint the committees necessary.

Men Wanted Here for Pine Beetle Control

J. E. Patterson of the government bureau of entomology is here from Washington, D. C., conferring with Superintendent Thomson of Crater Lake park about plans for pine beetle control in Crater national park, which will be started May 20.

There is still need of 15 more men to take up the pine beetle control crew, and applicants should apply at the Crater national park offices in the Federal building in this city.

WEEKS & ORR PIANO DEPARTMENT EXPANDS

Weeks & Orr have completed the reorganization of their music department and they now offer to their Southern Oregon patrons an entirely new line of pianos which will be carried in conjunction with the Brunswick phonographs. This reorganization marks an expansion in the music section of Weeks & Orr's big furniture store and now you sound proof record rooms are available for visitors at their store. Fred Weeks and Bert Orr recently made a trip to Portland in search of new ideas and they have embodied them in this improved department. D. C. Durham, an experienced tuner will have charge of piano sales.

In upright piano models Weeks & Orr will carry the Cable, Conover, Haines, Ludwig, Mason-Hardin, Milton and Wellington and the players they will show the Haines Ampico, Mason-Hardin Ampico, Cable Player, Ludwig Player and Milton Player. The Star piano, however, will be especially featured.

In their new piano department Weeks & Orr will especially feature their instalment plan. Brunswick and Aeolian phonograph records will also be carried.

Special Good Bill Vaudeville Tuesday

For the opening of the summer season there is so much about the new vaudeville show at the Crater's Craterian theater tomorrow matinee and night that the average vaudeville fan appreciates.

"The Cotton Pickers," a company of all white artists, characterize the southern negro. They depict cotton pickers at work and play in his native Dixie.

The Wiseman Sisters present an "Ultimate Musical," One a singer, and the other an accomplished violinist. A physical culture and dancing act by Jack and Claire McMahon, in "Variety with a Punch." Pretty settings, feats of strength and bag punching.

A wire walking act with Bollinger and Reynolds doing the stunts, is novel, entertaining and thrilling. They use the slack and bounding wire.

Joe Whitehead, a musical comedy star, sings late popular songs, dances and gives a lively monologue. The comedy angle is the main feature of his act.
