

Local and Personal

A very large portion of the Medford public bailed with much satisfaction the news item published in yesterday's Mail Tribune that the merchants of the city at their meeting the night before, had decided to close their places of business all day Monday, May 29, and all day Saturday, July 4.

Before you buy that piano see Launspach. He can save you money. He knows pianos and is reliable.

After months of earnest study the Board of Education unanimously recommended the P. & E. site.

The list of teachers for the public schools will probably be published in tomorrow's Mail Tribune, as the list of acceptances of contracts tendered by the school board had been signed and returned to the board by Monday night. Unless something unexpected occurs the list will be ready for publication tomorrow morning.

Japanese oil paper parasols in attractive new colors and designs. 65c to $1.50. Japanese Art Store.

Clean rags for auto waxes. Salvation Army. Phone 356.

The Ladies of the Royal Neighbors of Jacksonville will hold a dance next Friday evening, the proceeds to be devoted to the benefit of the Jackson County Pioneer Museum in the U. S. Hotel, and recently opened.

Hemstitching 8c a yard. The Vanity Shop, Bartlett and Main.

Why not make your dress at the Wade de Rycke Sewing school, 25c an hour, this includes instruction, use of machine, etc. Phone 110. 331 E. Main.

Can you beat it? Three hours of good wholesome amusement for 75c! And it's mighty good exercise, too! Dance at the Fair Grounds Pavilion tonight. Ladies free!

Authority to issue $186,000 worth of bonds for a new high school building in Milwaukie, Ore., was granted at an election last Saturday in Milwaukie, participated in by electors of 11 surrounding districts. The vote was 340 to 172.

Rev. P. R. Leach offers this week his beautiful home, 16 S. Laurel street, at $250 below the low figure held at. Look it over. One of the best buys.

"Pavilion party" tonight. Admission 75c.

Today is the 13th of the month, and, as always on the 13th, the superstitious part of the local public moves with caution. Some of the school site radicals view with alarm the fact that the 13th comes so near the day of the high school location election.

Use Bear Creek Oil Emulsion in your arsenate sprays as a spreader and to destroy the codling moth eggs. Call at Bear Creek spray plant.

After months of earnest study the Board of Education unanimously recommended the P. & E. site.

L. R. Shurtliff, clerk at the Hotel Holland, and wife have returned from their visit to Portland, during which he attended the meeting of the Northwest Hotelmen's association.

Thirty inch indestructible pearls, nicely matched, very lustrous. 98c. Japanese Art Store.

E. Steward mentioned in the letter from the educational experts of U. of O. should have been C. T. Steward, instructor in mathematics.

Eva N. Owen of Medford is charged by Mrs. Della Acklin, in a complaint filed in justice court this morning, with operating an automobile in a reckless manner. No time for her hearing has been set yet, according to Justice Gowdy. Mrs. Acklin declared that the car driven by Eva N. Owen collided with the car driven by Mrs. Acklin, and that the accident was due to careless driving on the part of the former.—Ashland Tidings.

"Pavilion party" tonight. Admission 75c.

Special sale of roses going on at the Rogue Valley Floral Co. Earheart street on So. Riverside. Phone 1040.

The local Elks lodge monthly news bulletin containing items of interest to the lodge members has been revived after a quietus for several years. The first issue was being distributed through the mails today to the members of No. 1186.

Genuine Du Ponts Duco used at Class "A" Auto Paint Shop, 601 N. Grape street.

Real metropolitan tempo! Brand new dance hits! Hear "Ditty" Moore's "all stars" at the "Pavilion Party" tonight. Fair Grounds, of course.

Commencement exercises at the Wolf Creek high school will be held on Friday night at the Wolf Creek high school. This is the first commencement in the history of that community and a class of five boys will be graduated on that occasion.

Summer prices on blocks and slabs. Place your order early. Newcomb for Wood. Phone 621.

Have you read Prof. Douglas' and Dr. Rainey's reply to Steward's letter (the Better Sites Com. Argument)? It was in Tuesday's Mail Tribune. It was to the point. These men are impartial and they know.

James A. Ormandy of Portland, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific railroad, who addressed the Ashland Chamber of Commerce forum yesterday noon, and spent the afternoon, last night and this morning here on business, left this forenoon for a business visit at Grants Pass.

Bottle stoppers, 50c. Japanese Art Store.

After months of earnest study the Board of Education unanimously recommended the P. & E. site.

Visitors from Seattle temporarily sojourning in the city include Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Fox and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Moran and the Misses Alice and Jessie Moran.

Planes! See Launspach.

We can get nine acres on Holly street for $10,600. Let the people keep their homes for the present. They are not in the way. The school experts recommend this.

Mrs. T. J. Malmgren of Phoenix, who recently underwent a serious operation at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, has returned to her home, accompanied by a nurse.

Last winter our school board thought less than two acres large enough for a new high school site. We do we have to have sixteen now?

Extra deep blue cantaberry bell plants, 60c dozen, 325c. Holly. Phone 320-L.

Among the early summer attractions at the Craterian, will be Jane Cowl, noted actress and beauty, in "Romeo and Juliet." It will mark the first appearance of Jane Cowl in this city.

The "sweet girl graduate" and the "June bride" will both find Mrs. Trowbridge a clever creator of gowns.

After months of earnest study the Board of Education unanimously recommended the P. & E. site.

L. J. Peterson of Coquille is transacting business matters in the city for a few days.

Special summer prices on dry factory mill blocks. Valley Fuel Co.

Parents remember, twenty per cent of high school students live east of Bear creek. Why send overhauling and majorly across congested bridges and Pacific highway, where often 3000 to 5000 cars pass every day?

J. E. Martin, grand master of the Council of Master Masons of Oregon, was a visitor in Eugene Monday and was a guest at the noon luncheon of the Kiwanis club. J. H. Richmond, general secretary of the same organization, was expected to arrive in the city this afternoon. The two will be joined by E. F. Carleton, principal conductor of work of the order, and will leave for Medford tonight, where they will install a council tomorrow night.—Eugene Guard.

Fruitgrowers—Oil Emulsion for your arsenate sprays made fresh daily at the Bear Creek Spray company, at Bear Creek orchards.

Over 30 real, honest-to-goodness dances for 75c! Wonderful music, excellent floor and a fine crowd! Fair Grounds Pavilion! Tonight!

Free! Coling of this city spent yesterday in Grants Pass on internal revenue office business.

Fancy creamery butter 40c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

"Pavilion Party" tonight. Ladies free.

Out of town Oregonians in the city who arrived yesterday included Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Everston of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. A. Maroff and child of Tillamook, and Mrs. W. F. Jeffress and J. Anita Gleason and many others from Portland.

$10 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction for each person caught stealing wood on our yards situated on the east side of Court and McAndrews streets, also on the Oregon-Owen Lumber company property. Valley Fuel Co.

Ten dollars worth of good music for 75c! And three hours of real dancing thrown in for good measure! Fair Grounds Pavilion! Tonight!

Ashland was the point of mobilization last night for American Legion men from a number of southern Oregon posts, to celebrate the successful completion of the membership drive in Ashland. Over fifty Medford legionnaires were present at the initiation ceremony which was conducted by officials of the Medford post. The Medford drum and bugle corps headed a parade of legion men through the downtown streets and later joined in the chase after candidates, who, although tied together with a strong rope, made a dash for liberty as the parade neared the city park.

Columbia plaster wall board. Call for prices. Wallace Wood Lumber yard.

Why take a site that there is a question about its being wet? Vote for the Holly street site.

The appointment secretary's office at the O. A. C. is busy with scores of seniors registering for positions and many teachers in the field desiring changes, according to Miss May Workinger, appointment secretary.

Fashion dictates slowness, simplicity and suppleness. These are achieved only by an experienced designer. Mrs. Trowbridge, 905 W. 10th St.

Why not accept the recommendation of the Board of Education and select the P. & E. site?

The regular meeting of the school board scheduled for last night turned out to be an informal one owing to the absence of a member from the city, and the regular meeting is now scheduled for tonight with all members in attendance.

Launspach Piano Store now open for business at 111 W. Main. Opposite Rialto theater. Successor to Root Music Co.

Essentials of a good school site—Avoid low, filled and wet land. Frank Irving Cooper. Boston's school architect.

The daily number of out of state cars to register here with the local state traffic bureau dropped yesterday to only thirty-three.

Have you tried that big milk shake at DeVoe's?

Cloudy tonight, fair Thursday and a moderate temperature is the official weather prediction issued this morning. The maximum temperature of yesterday was 74.2.

New alfalfa hay, 28-H-1.

Why not accept the recommendation of the Board of Education and select the P. & E. site?

Commander Singleton of the Grant's Pass American Legion post attended the joint legion meeting in Ashland last night, accompanied by Comrades Smith, Harris, Soutant and Brown.

Workmen were busy early this morning erecting the new sign across north Riverside avenue for the Phillips auto camp.

Summer prices on blocks and slabs. Place your order early. Newcomb for Wood. Phone 621.

Why talk of litigation preventing a necessary high school when construction could begin tomorrow on land owned by the Medford School District?

W. H. Rucker, who was formerly owner of the Rucker Taxi company, has purchased an interest in the Kincaid Taxi company of this city. Mr. Rucker is well known in Medford and southern Oregon.

Used piano for sale at a bargain. Noel Erskine. Phone 729-W.

"Pavilion Party" tonight. Ladies free.

Issuance of another new postage stamp to commemorate the landing of the first immigrants to the United States from Norway has been announced by the postoffice department. The stamp to be issued in denominations of two and five cents, will be known as the Norse-American Commemorative stamp, and a limited number will be printed. The first Norse immigrants landed in New York harbor October 9, 1925, coming over in the sloop Restaurationen. The stamps will be placed on sale at Washington, May 18.

Summer prices on blocks and slabs. Place your order early. Newcomb for Wood. Phone 621.

Why not accept the recommendation of the Board of Education and select the P. & E. site?

Among California guests at the local hotels are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Reedgear, and Mr. and Mrs. Davis Runyan and child of Los Angeles, Mrs. Fraser of San Jose, Mrs. Soule of Piedmont, and the following from San Francisco: Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Love and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lawrence.

Hand made and embroidered baby dresses of fine white material for $2.50 at the Handicraft Shop.

Columbia plaster wall board. Call for prices. Wallace Wood Lumber yard.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the Baptist church Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Mother's Day program has been prepared and a large attendance is desired.

Guaranteed lawn mower sharpening, called for and delivered free. Medford Hardware & Sporting Co. Phone 285.

You will find many beautiful weaves and rich fast colors in the Everfast materials at the Handicraft Shop. Also a wonderful line of laces from which to select your trimmings.

"Pavilion party" tonight. Admission 75c.

Mrs. Alice Applegate Sarzent of Jacksonville will address the Daughters of the American Revolution meeting at Ashland next Friday at the home of Mrs. J. P. Dodge, on "Historic Spots in the Rogue River Valley."

Why allow your making, designing, cutting, fitting or finishing garments worry you, when you can find just the help you need on the large cities' plan? Prices 25c an hour and up. Mrs. Wade de Rycke, 331 East Main. Phone 130.

Why not accept the recommendation of the Board of Education and select the P. & E. site?

The first new straw hat of the season to be worn in a proud, almost brazen manner of fact manner, was seen on the head of A. B. Cunningham this forenoon in the business section, while on his way to get a hair cut.

Dressmaking and plain sewing. 9 West 12th street.

The ball park owned by the Medford school district contains 4.4 acres.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Stoltz have returned from a motor trip to Eugene where they went to spend Mother's Day with their daughter Loraine, who is a student at the U. of O.

Hemstitching, buttons covered at the Handicraft Shop.

"Pavilion Party" tonight. Ladies free.

Insuance of another new postage stamp to commemorate the landing of the first immigrants to the United States from Norway has been announced by the postoffice department. The stamp to be issued in denominations of two and five cents, will be known as the Norse-American Commemorative stamp, and a limited number will be printed. The first Norse immigrants landed in New York harbor October 9, 1925, coming over in the sloop Restaurationen. The stamps will be placed on sale at Washington, May 18.

Summer prices on blocks and slabs. Place your order early. Newcomb for Wood. Phone 621.

Why not accept the recommendation of the Board of Education and select the P. & E. site?

Among California guests at the local hotels are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Reedgear, and Mr. and Mrs. Davis Runyan and child of Los Angeles, Mrs. Fraser of San Jose, Mrs. Soule of Piedmont, and the following from San Francisco: Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Love and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lawrence.

Hand made and embroidered baby dresses of fine white material for $2.50 at the Handicraft Shop.

Columbia plaster wall board. Call for prices. Wallace Wood Lumber yard.

Mrs. T. H. Young who is demonstrating well known Columbia comedies has interviewed many Medford ladies at the Hotel Holland during her short stay here. She will remain here but one more day and has extended a cordial invitation to local women to call Thursday and see her line of facial preparations and shampoo.

Columbia plaster wall board. Call for prices. Wallace Wood Lumber yard.

We pay for ashes and sell dirt cheap. Brown & White Agency, Inc.

Tennis racket restringing, 268 South Central. Phone 511-W.

The Golden Link Bible class will give their farewell party for Rev. and Mrs. F. R. Leach and daughter, Helen, Friday, May 15th, at the home of Mrs. F. L. Bennett, 531 S. Riverside, instead of at the home of Mrs. Penoyer, as previously announced.

Fifteen new Everfast wash materials for your summer frocks. Thin materials for the frilly feminine styles, heavier materials for the boyish tailored models. Handicraft Shop.

Fancy creamery butter 40c per lb. Johnson Produce Co.

R. I. C. eggs at DeVoe's.

"Pavilion party" tonight. Admission 75c.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the Baptist church Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Mother's Day program has been prepared and a large attendance is desired.

Guaranteed lawn mower sharpening, called for and delivered free. Medford Hardware & Sporting Co. Phone 285.

You will find many beautiful weaves and rich fast colors in the Everfast materials at the Handicraft Shop. Also a wonderful line of laces from which to select your trimmings.

"Pavilion party" tonight. Admission 75c.

Sure Relief FOR INDIGESTION

BELLANS

6 BELLANS Hot water Sure Relief

BELLANS

25c and 75c Packages. Everywhere

GREATEST LAUGHING RIOT IN YEARS

All's well—The world's funniest motion picture is here, and everybody's happy.

YOU'LL FORGET ALL YOUR TROUBLES WHEN YOU SEE THIS TODAY

!!!!

8-SCREAMING REELS-8 LAFFS! YELLS! THRILLS!

Charley's Aunt

with Syd Chaplin

As "AUNTIE" from Brazil where the nuts come from!

The Funniest Woman in Pictures Is a MAN!

You'll Roar When You See It and Continue to Laugh for Months Afterwards when You Think of It

Enough to make a cat laugh

Adults 50 Cents
Children 10 Cents

SUNDAY—Rupert Hughes' Comedy Sensation "EXCUSE ME" With NORMA SHEARER and CONRAD NAGEL

A Special Musical Score for This Production Has Been Arranged by

Betty Brown

And her rendition at the GIANT WURLITZER completes a typical CRATERIAN presentation.

[QUALITY CORNER]

Fountain Lunches

—and we have Winstel's Delicious Candies.

Davidson's

Corner 2nd and Main

MAGAZINE SUBSCRIPTIONS

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR RENT—6-room bungalow. Garage. Call at 129 So. Ivy. 47

FOR RENT—2-room apartment. 146 S. Holly. 47

FOR RENT—6-room house, close in, unfurnished. Phone 479-M. 47

WANTED—For cash. Lot, near or on pavement, not far out. State price and location. P. O. Box 658 City. 45

FOR SALE—Building lots on pavement. Chicken and stock ranches. Bargain prices. E. H. Hurd. Tel. 42. 46

FOR SALE—Range, bedroom set and miscellaneous furniture. 213 S. Central ave. 49

LOST—On road to Dodge bridge, spare tire. Finder please notify Dan Watson at Mann's. 46

FOR TRADE OR SALE—Chevrolet car. Will consider good cow. Inquire 1659 Court street. 46