

CLEANLINESS IS CLAIMED TO BE A FEATURE OF SHOW

It's got to be clean or it can't have a place on the Snap midway. That is the edict which went forth from the offices of Ivan and William Snapp five years ago when they enlarged their exposition shows to take a well worn place in the front rank of such tented attractions. And the same conditions have been maintained all these years. Clean, entertaining and meritorious, says the advance announcement.

There isn't a committee any place in the United States where the Snap Expositions Shows have furnished the attractions who haven't voted the aggregation the "best yet." And this condition is due entirely to the unswerving courage to continue a fight that at times has seemed a losing one; the fight for decent business methods, decent shows and a place in the lives of decent amusement seeking public. That we've won is proof that we were right and that is the ladies and kiddies we have to cater to, and not to the rough neck element.

Snapp Bros. Shows will appear in Medford all next week, starting Monday, May 18th. The thrilling free act, every evening. Mat Gay the famous high diver every night at nine-thirty, and Master Buster Ray, the boy wonder on the horizontal bars at eight o'clock. These two big free acts are presented in the open on the big midway each night during the show's stay in Medford.

HOUGHTON SPEECH LAUDED AS LAND MARK IN HISTORY

ST. PAUL, May 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—America desires to play a great part in every honest effort but will not be used as a cat's paw to gratify foreign ambition and self interest, Senator Arthur Capper, of Kansas, said in an address before the St. Paul Chamber of Commerce here today.

Senator Capper is a member of the senate committee on foreign relations, succeeding the late William McNamara. "This nation is deeply interested in the restoration of Europe," Senator Capper said, "and all its influence will be enlisted in behalf of a wholehearted effort on the part of Europe's governments for a more and stabilized political and economic life."

"But the sincerity of American professions was powerfully attracted when Ambassador Houghton said American cooperation depended upon agreement in good faith of European powers. It was a warning, courteous, but firmly voiced by Ambassador Houghton, that assured the world that America is in earnest in its peace professions."

"It is not indulging in conventional phrases or pious sentiments. It desires to play a part worthy of its own great position in the world in a genuine accord among Europe's powers and equally is determined to have no part in European scheming for advantage, which offers no foundation for permanent peace."

"The appeal of Ambassador Houghton was an appeal to good faith by Europe's governments and his timely address was a warning that American sympathy and American money are not available to any government for purposes of special advantage."

"This asserts a sound American foreign policy that the country will heartily approve. America is not afraid of its responsibility nor its duty in behalf of peace; it is not seeking to evade the problems of world peace because it is difficult or costly."

"It desires to play a great part in every honest effort, but it will not be used as a cat's paw to gratify foreign ambition and self interest. If this notable message is taken to heart by Europe's governments, Mr. Houghton's speech will have a landmark in constructive American diplomacy."

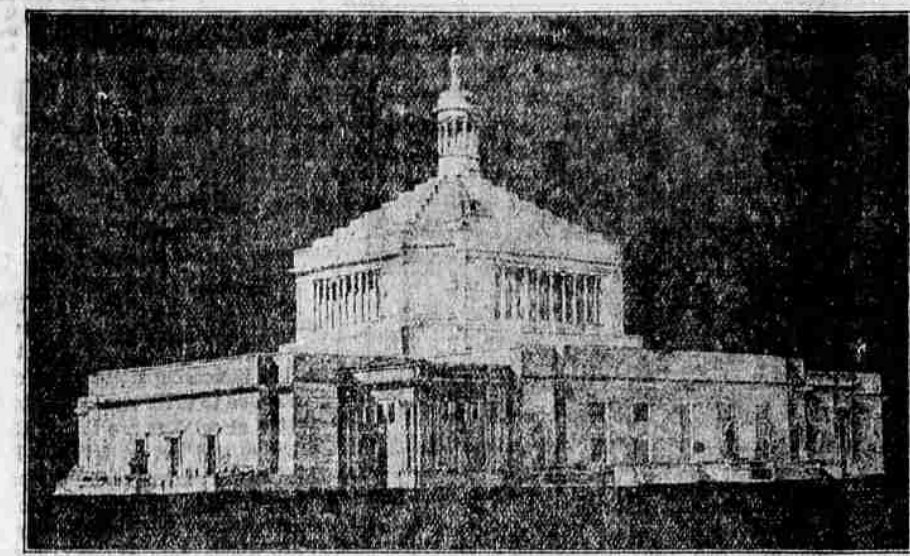

OLD BACHELOR IS PLEASED WITH BILL TAXING SINGLE MEN

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., May 14.—The old maid and bachelor bill, introduced yesterday by Representative Garret of Oklahoma has met the approval of at least one man. Arthur Y. Milam, speaker of the house today received a message from Harry Lee Johnson of Fort Myers, who placed a high valuation on his single blessedness. The telegram which was read and ordered printed in the house journal was as follows:

"Noting the bill taxing bachelors $5 per year I am today sending certified check for my tax. I will be away this summer and wish to do my part. Five dollars is too little. No real free man would object to paying fifty per cent even $500. Whoever heard of a single woman over 25?"

The telegram refers to a bill putting a tax of $5 on every unmarried woman over 25 years and every unmarried man.

Perspective of O. A. C. Memorial Union Building for Which Funds are Being Raised Among Students, Alumni and College Friends

The accompanying cut illustrates the massive size of the proposed building to be on the O. A. C. campus to commemorate the active part Oregon heroes played in the Spanish-American and World wars. The building will tower 180 feet high and will be 200 by 200 feet. The building materials used will be such as to blend with the present campus architecture and yet be distinctive. The building will house all student and alumni activities and organizations. More than half of the total $500,000 needed for construction is now raised.

The O. A. C. Memorial union campaign to provide $500,000 needed to construct a building which will be a permanent memorial to the college and state heroes of the Spanish-American and World wars and to house all student and alumni activities on the O. A. C. campus, has been completed among students and is moving into different districts of the state where alumni and friends of the college are located.

More than half of the sum needed was raised on the campus in an intensive drive of a week. Inspired by the record of O. A. C. and Oregon heroes in the war, the undergraduates and faculty of the college pledged more than half of the total in three days. President W. J. Kerr, who was seriously ill at the time, sent in his pledge of $1000 on the second day of the drive. Alumni in Portland have responded with more than $25,000 and the campaign is now reaching into the smaller cities and communities of the state.

The great Memorial union project will seek to draw together the four component parts of the college: students, alumni, faculty and friends. It will be a great gathering place for college interests, a magnet to attract students and alumni in all walks of life and a melting pot to create a college democracy, say those in charge.

Loyalty of individual students and alumni, who mortgaged their future earning power to help pay back to the state the debt of honor they received, gave an impetus to the campaign that makes the total objective assured, according to campaign leaders. One freshman student from California pledged $1000 to the cause and many contributions of $250 and more were received.

More than $325,000 of the total is now subscribed and construction on the building will begin in the late summer of 1925 and will be completed by the fall term of 1926, according to present plans. Alumni are organized, not only in Oregon but in Washington, California, Hawaii, and many eastern states where former students are located.

The building will have rooms for student activities, faculty meetings, assembly hall for large gatherings, trophy rooms where athletic awards of the Varsity "O" association may be permanently kept, shop rooms for the building of campus dramatic productions and many other types of rooms. All the student publications will be housed in the new building which will be a big advancement of the old inadequate system of publication offices scattered over the entire campus.

"The Memorial union building will release much needed class room in the buildings provided by the state," said E. B. Lemon, registrar. "College life is highly organized and many of the student groups require accommodations which are needed for instructional purposes. The Memorial union building is being built without cost to the state, which is an important feature in Oregon's educational program."

Of much interest to students and faculty is the plan for the theater in the building, says the governing committee. One thousand persons will be seated in the well-appointed theater where campus productions, lecture numbers and other forms of entertainment may be given for the campus from time to time. A pipe-organ will be installed in the theater which will add an immense rotunda where student and alumni gatherings may be arranged.

Since the announcement that a class B, 500-watt broadcasting station will be installed at O. A. C., an effort is being made to tie up the activities of the Memorial union with this feature.

The college is host to many speakers of national repute and authorities on educational, scientific and economic subjects. In addition the lecture numbers bring artists of international fame to the campus. In the past few years such singers as Geraldine Farrar and Madame Schumann-Heink; Missa Elman and Erna Rubinstein; violinists, and many others have been entertainers on the campus. The high-powered broadcasting station will make their artistry available to the entire state.

A massive entrance to the building will lead into the main lobby to be called "Memorial Hall." Finest examples of art and sculpture will decorate the hallway. Leading back from it will be the rotunda, where alumni gatherings will often be held and where from 500 to 800 persons may be served at special banquets and luncheons for which the college tea room is inadequate.

A criteria for students and faculty is another feature planned for the new building, which is expected to be ready for the use of the campus one year from next fall.
